PENN STATE FOOTBALL 2014

PROGRAM CORE VALUES

Franklin brings a passion and vision to the Penn State program that is built on four core values: a positive attitude, unrivaled work-ethic, competing on and off the field and the ability to sacrifice.

PENNSYLVANIA AND REGIONAL ROOTS

Franklin is from Langhorne, Pa., a Philadelphia suburb, spent many summers in Pittsburgh in his youth, and graduated from East Stroudsburg University. A "Pennsylvania kid with a Penn State heart," he was a two-time All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference selection at quarterback, breaking or tying 23 school records. Franklin coached one season at his alma mater and one year at Kutztown University, another PSAC institution. He also has nine years combined as an assistant coach at Maryland and James Madison.

20TH YEAR IN COACHING

Franklin is his 20th season in coaching, with 19 years at the collegiate level. He also spent one season with the NFL's Green Bay Packers as the wide receivers coach.

GOING BOWLING

In his initial three years as a head coach, Franklin has guided his teams to the post-season during each campaign. He helped Vanderbilt to consecutive bowl games for the first time in program history, with victories the last two years over North Carolina State (Music City Bowl) and Houston (BBVA Compass Bowl). The Commodores had played in four bowl games all-time in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival; none in consecutive years.

NATIONAL RESPECT

Just days before he was named the Nittany Lions' head coach, the engaging Franklin was in Pasadena, Calif., appearing on multiple ESPN platforms throughout the day during the network's coverage of the BCS National Championship Game in the Rose Bowl.

PROGRAM SUCCESS

Franklin has been instrumental in bringing success at every stop in his coaching career. His tenure as head coach at Vanderbilt was historic, as he led the Commodores to consecutive Top 25 finishes, a pair of nine-win seasons and bowl victories, all for the first time in school history. During the 2013 season, Vanderbilt defeated Florida, Georgia and Tennessee all in the same season for the first time in school history. At Maryland, he helped the Terrapins improve from 5-6 the year before he arrived to a 10-plus win team in his second, third and fourth years on the coaching staff.

"JAMES FRANKLIN IS A PROVEN COMMODITY AS A HEAD COACH WITH ALL HIS ACCOMPLISHMENTS AT VANDERBILT. HIS LEADERSHIP, INTEGRITY AND COMPETITIVE SPIRIT MAKE HIM A PERFECT FIT FOR PENN STATE."

Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN/ABC College Football Analyst

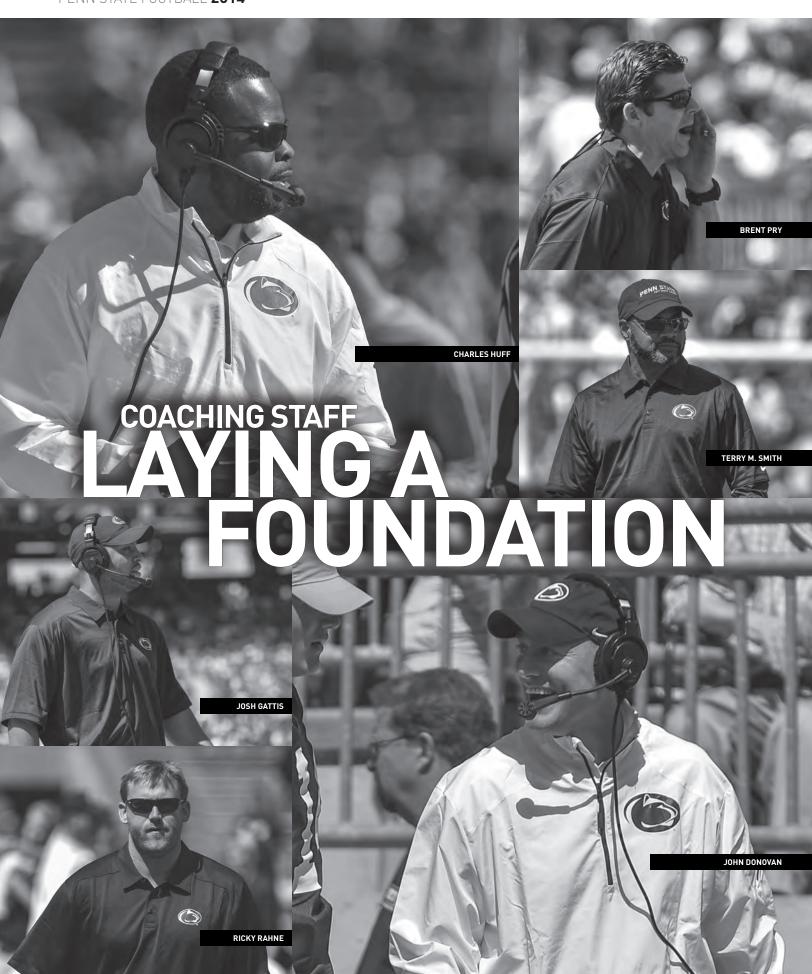

"I NOTICED EARLY ON THAT JAMES FRANKLIN ALWAYS SAW THE BIG PICTURE. HE DIDN'T JUST COACH HIS PLAYERS ON THE FIELD, BUT SAW THE NEED FOR THEM TO BE ACCOUNTABLE OFF THE FIELD, AS WELL. HE TOOK AN INTEREST IN EVERY ASPECT OF THEIR LIVES AND COACHED NOT JUST THE PLAYER, BUT THE PERSON."

BIG TEN NETWORK

ABC/FSPN

In 2006, the Big Ten Conference signed a new 10year national rights contract with ABC/ESPN. Big Ten action has been featured on ABC since 1966 and on ESPN since 1979, the network's first year. The new agreement, which began during the 2007-08 season, includes up to 41 televised Big Ten football games annually — up to 17 on ABC and up to 25 on ESPN or ESPN2. In addition, all regional afternoon football games are aired on ABC and by ESPN/ESPN2 in outer-markets, making these games nationally available. Additionally, through ESPN's collection of new media outlets such as ESPN.com, Mobile ESPN, ESPN360 and ESPN VOD, fans receive live events (including simulcasts), extended video highlights, including in-progress games, features and more. Big Ten coverage also is available on ESPNU and ESPN Classic and throughout the world via ESPN International.

BIG TEN NETWORK

Available to more than 90 million households in the United States and Canada, BTN is the first internationally distributed network dedicated to covering one of the premier collegiate conferences in the country. With more than 800 live events, all of them in HD, the network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country, allowing them to see their favorite teams, regardless of where they live.

The network operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, showcasing a wide array of classic to current sports and televising and streaming more Olympic sporting events and women's sports than has ever been aired on any other network. Original programming highlights activities and accomplishments of some of the nation's finest universities. The groundbreaking "Student U" initiative provides real-world experience for students interested in careers in sports television.

Each year, the network offers more than 40 football games, at least 110 regular-season men's basketball games, at least 55 women's basketball games, dozens of Big Ten Championship events, nightly studio shows, coaches' shows, and classic games.

The network has agreements with more than 300 affiliates, including Verizon FiOS, AT&T U-Verse, DirecTV, DISH Network, Atlantic Broadband, Bright House, Cablevision, Charter, Comcast, Consolidated Communications, Cox (Omaha, Cleveland, Northern Virginia, Arizona, Arkansas, Kansas), Insight, Mediacom, MetroCast, Midcontinent, RCN, Service Electric, Time Warner Cable, Western Broadband, Windstream and WOW, as well as Rogers Cable, Shaw Cable and Shaw Direct in Canada.

BTN is a 20-year joint venture between subsidiaries of the Big Ten Conference and Fox Cable Networks.

ALL BIG TEN; ALL THE TIME

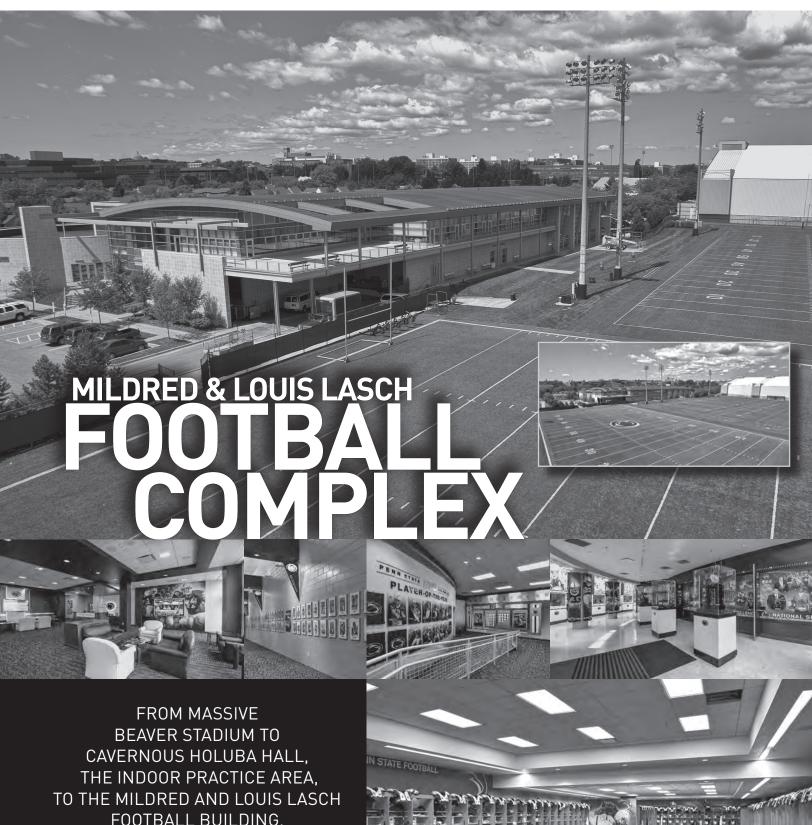

IN RECENT YEARS, THE BIG TEN HAS REACHED A SERIES OF MILESTONE MEDIA AGREEMENTS TO PROVIDE THE CONFERENCE WITH ITS GREATEST TELEVISION EXPOSURE EVER, INCLUDING EXTENSIONS WITH CBS (FOR BASKETBALL) AND ABC/ ESPN (FOR FOOTBALL, BASKETBALL AND VOLLEYBALL) AND THE CREATION OF THE BIG TEN NETWORK, A NATIONAL NETWORK DEVOTED TO BIG TEN ATHLETIC AND ACADEMIC PROGRAMS. THE CONFERENCE'S NEW MEDIA AGREEMENTS RESULTED IN THE BROADCAST OF MORE THAN 600 EVENTS NATIONALLY AND REGIONALLY BEGINNING WITH THE 2007-08 ACADEMIC YEAR, COMPARED TO 300 EVENTS IN THE FINAL YEAR OF THE PREVIOUS AGREEMENTS.

 1993-2011 Maryland Director of Strength & Conditioning
 1989-93 Maryland Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Is a prestigious Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC), as certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches' Association.
- His program is structured at improving speed, agility, strength and power, which played a significant role in Vanderbilt winning nine games and finishing in the Top 25 in consecutive seasons for the first time in program history.
- Was instrumental in helping the Commodores advance to three straight bowl games and secure back-to-back bowl victories in the Music City Bowl (2012) and BBVA Compass Bowl (2013).
- Nearly 40 former student-athletes trained by Galt are active in the National Football League.
- Galt-trained athletes have consistently impressed NFL scouts, including tight end Vernon Davis and receiver Darrius Heyward-Bey. Davis ranks among the fastest 40-yard dashes ever by a tight end (:4.36) and Heyward-Bey running the fastest 40 (:4.30) by a wideout in more than a decade at the NFL Scouting Combine.
- Worked with a pair of Maryland's ACC Championship football teams and also served as the conditioning coach for the Terrapins men's basketball program.
- From 1993-2011, Galt was responsible for the strength and conditioning for the student-athletes in all 27 Maryland sports.
- His son, Dwight IV, is in his third year at Penn State as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the football program.

TODD KULKA

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES COORDINATOR; ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF THE MORGAN CENTER

In his 23rd year with the Penn State football program, both as a player and academic counselor, Todd Kulka is in his 12th year directing the Penn State Football Academic Support Center.

Kulka works with the underclassmen in their transition from high school to college. He assists the upperclassmen in selecting and finishing their degree programs and with their transition into their career path. Kulka coordinates the structured study program, provides counseling and advising, tracks and monitors grades and eligibility and assists with on-campus recruiting.

A 1995 Penn State graduate, Kulka is in his 18th year on the academic support staff. He was a graduate assistant for three years and received his master's degree in education from Penn State in 2000, moving into a full-time academic counselor position in 2000.

The Nittany Lions have earned 18 first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors during Kulka's tenure as director, including Penn State's first three-time recipient Stefen Wisniewski (2008-10) and first Campbell Trophy recipient John Urschel (2013). Penn State has led the nation in four of the past six years in Academic All-America honorees, including a program record five in 2008.

Penn State football broke its program record for the second consecutive year with an NCAA Graduation Success Rate of 91 percent, tied with Rutgers for the No. 7 graduation rate among all 120 Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams, according to the NCAA in October 2012.

Kulka and his wife, Meghan, have three children, McKenna (6), Connor (4), and Cole (2).

MOLLY TYE

ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Molly Tye is in her first year as an academic counselor working with the Penn State football program.

She joined the Nittany Lions staff in May, 2014, after serving as Assistant Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Support at Bethune-Cookman University since 2011. At B-CU, Tye had supervision of the Office of Student-Athlete Support, which serves more than 300 student-athletes. Tye directly oversaw the academic support of the Wildcats football team, helping them maintain the highest APR score in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference during her tenure. Due to her leadership and programs she implemented, the B-CU football program received a national award for improvement in the team's APR score.

Tye began her career at Virginia Tech, serving as an academic coordinator in the Student-Athlete Academic Support Services unit. She then was a senior academic advisor at Howard University for two years, working closely with members of the football and men's and women's basketball teams.

From Lawrence, Kan., Tye graduated from the University of Kansas and earned a master's degree from Howard University, both in social work. She is an N4A certified academic advisor.

CHELSEA HOLMES

ASSISTANT LEARNING SPECIALIST

Chelsea Holmes is in her second year as an assistant learning specialist working with the Penn State football program.

She joined the Nittany Lions' staff in 2013, after serving as Tutorial Program Coordinator in the Academic Support and Career Development Unit at the University of Maryland. In her role, Holmes supervised a tutorial staff of 90, overseeing the scheduling of the tutors and writing specialists working with undergraduate students.

After graduating from Maryland with a degree in communications, Holmes began her academic services career as an intern and then a mentor at her alma mater's Academic Support and Career Development Unit, where she worked with the football and men's basketball programs.

Holmes then spent a combined four years teaching mathematics at Cardozo Senior High School and Cesar Chavez Parkside High School in Washington, D.C. before returning to work at the University of Maryland in 2012.

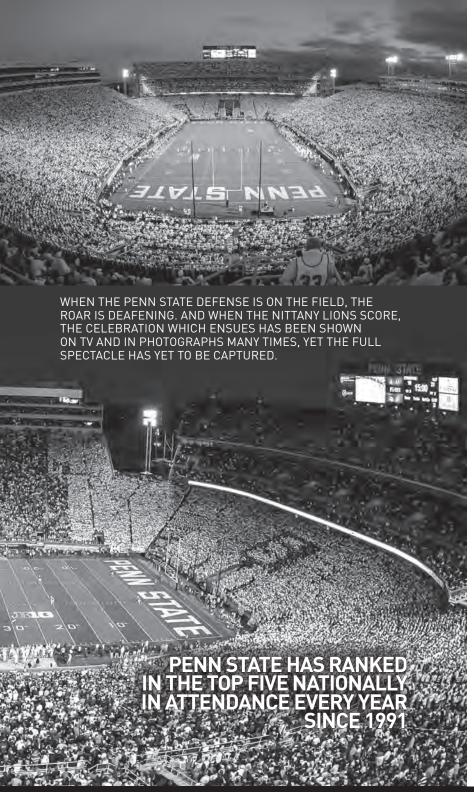

From Albany, N.Y., Holmes is working on a master's degree in educational leadership at Penn State, having previously done graduate work in secondary education, with a concentration in mathematics, at American University. Holmes is a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A).

OUTSTANDING ALUMNI

ABC/ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL ANALYST TODD BLACKLEDGE, QUARTERBACK OF THE 1982 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM, IS JUST ONE EXAMPLE OF HOW NITTANY LIONS ARE PREPARED FOR SUCCESS AFTER GRADUATION.

PENN STATERS HAVE DISTINGUISHED THEMSELVES IN A WIDE VARIETY OF PROFESSIONS. FORMER NITTANY LIONS ARE COMPANY PRESIDENTS. BUSINESS OWNERS AND LEADERS IN THE FINANCIAL WORLD. OTHERS ARE LAWYERS. DOCTORS, DENTISTS, ENGINEERS, TEACHERS, COACHES, COMPUTER AND TECHNOLOGY SPECIALISTS. ADMINISTRATORS. CONSULTANTS, SUPERVISORS AND MEMBERS OF THE MEDIA TO NAME JUST A FEW OF THE PROFESSIONS.

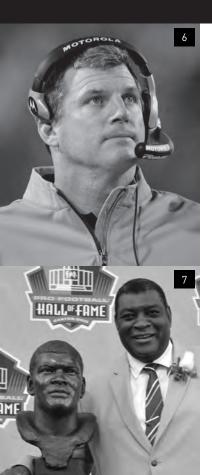

TEAMED UP IN BUSINESS

Franco Harris (34) and Lydell Mitchell (23) were teammates in the Penn State backfield from 1969-71, helping the Nittany Lions to a 29-4 record. The former college and pro gridiron greats teamed up again 25 years later, with Harris leading a group of investors, including Mitchell, in the purchase (top left) of Parks Sausage Co., a once-thriving institution which had fallen into bankruptcy and closed its doors. Harris, a majority owner of Super Bakery, Inc., and his investors agreed to purchase Parks for $1.7 million in cash while assuming nearly $9 million in debt. Several months later more than 100 employees were back at work at the company's Baltimore plant, which is overseen by Mitchell, Parks' President. Parks, a Black Enterprise magazine 100 company, was founded

NATION'S LARGEST

2014 OUTLOOK NOTES

Head Coach James Franklin

James Franklin, one of the nation's most successful and dynamic coaches, was named the Nittany Lions' 16th head football coach on January 11, 2014.

The passionate and driven Franklin led Vanderbilt University to unprecedented success the past three years as head coach, including consecutive nine-win seasons and bowl victories the past two years, as well as back-to-back Top 25 finishes, all for the first time in Vanderbilt history.

Franklin took Vanderbilt to new heights over the past three years. The Commodores finished the 2013 season with five consecutive victories, with wins over Florida, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky in Southeastern Conference play, along with a victory over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl.

From Langhorne, Pa., Franklin's 2012 squad finished the season with seven consecutive victories and posted Vanderbilt's first nine-win season since 1915. He led Vanderbilt to a bowl game in each of his three seasons. The Commodores had played in four bowl games all-time in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival, none in consecutive years.

Franklin was named Vanderbilt's head coach in December 2010 after three years as the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/ quarterbacks coach at Maryland, his second stint with the Terps. Franklin was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kansas State in 2006-07 and the wide receivers coach of the NFL's Green Bay Packers (2005) prior to arriving in Nashville.

Franklin was a two-time All-PSAC quarterback at East Stroudsburg University. He had set or tied 23 school records at the time of his graduation in 1995.

➤ Coaching Staff Brings Continuity & Familiarity With Region

James Franklin assembled a Penn State coaching staff with extensive collegiate experience, familiarity and strong recruiting ties to the Mid-Atlantic, South and Northeast regions of the United States. Franklin's staff includes seven members of his former staff at Vanderbilt that were instrumental in the Commodores achieving unprecedented success the past two years, a coach (Charles Huff) who previously worked with Franklin and one of Penn State's greatest all-time receivers (Terry Smith), who was a highly-successful high school coach in metropolitan Pittsburgh.

All but one member of the coaching staff graduated from a college or university in the Mid-Atlantic or Northeast. Franklin is an East Stroudsburg University alumnus. Nine members of the coaching staff are from the Mid-Atlantic or Northeast, including Philadelphiaarea product Franklin and Dwight Galt, the Director of Performance

> Forty Lettermen Return

Penn State returns 40 lettermen from last year — 23 on defense, 15 on offense and two specialists. Of the 40 lettermen returning, 23 have starting experience — 13 on defense, nine on offense and the starting placekicker. The number rises to 41 with the return of senior defensive end Brad Bars, who lettered in 2012 but missed last season with an injury. The Nittany Lions have lost the services of 19 lettermen 13 on offense, five on defense and one specialist.

➤ Nittany Lions Welcome Back 15 Starters

Penn State returns 15 starters — seven on defense, seven on offense and placekicker Sam Ficken. Six additional defensive players and two offensive players also have starting experience.

Among the Nittany Lions' returning starters are seven players who earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition last season: Ficken, safety Adrian Amos, quarterback Christian Hackenberg, tight end Jesse James, cornerback Jordan Lucas, defensive end C.J. Olaniyan and tackle Donovan Smith.

> Four Gain Preseason All-Big Ten Notice

Four Penn State players were selected first-team preseason All-Big Ten by national preview publications. Senior linebacker Mike Hull earned first-team all-conference recognition from Athlon Sports and Lindy's Sports. Junior cornerback Jordan Lucas and junior tackle Donovan Smith gained first-team recognition by USA Today and Lindy's Sports. Junior tight end Jesse James was named first-team by Sporting

➤ Trio Of Top 10 Squads On Schedule

The Nittany Lions will play a trio of 2013 Top 10 teams, including two squads that won BCS games last year, and six squads that played in bowl games during the 2014 campaign.

Penn State opens the season Aug. 30 in the Croke Park Classic against UCF, which was 12-1 and won the 2014 Fiesta Bowl. The Nittany Lions will host Big Ten and Rose Bowl Champion Michigan State (Nov. 29). Orange Bowl participant Ohio State (Oct. 25). Northwestern (Sept. 27, Homecoming) and Maryland (Nov. 1) during their Big Ten home schedule.

In addition to the trio of Top 10 teams, Penn State will face three more bowl teams this fall: Maryland (Military), Michigan (Buffalo Wild Wings) and Rutgers (Pinstripe).

> Penn State Among Victories Leaders

Entering its 128th season of varsity football, Penn State has posted 730 victories to rank 12th in the nation. The Nittany Lions are one of just 14 programs with 700 wins and enter the 2014 season with an official all-time mark of 730-370-42

> Across The Pond For Season-Opener

Penn State will play its first international game since the program's 1887 inception when it opens the season against UCF in the Croke Park Classic on August 30 in Dublin, Ireland. The contest will be played at Croke Park, the headquarters of the Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA), and will have a capacity of 69,000 for UCF also will be playing in its first international game. The Knights were 12-1 last season, defeating Baylor in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, and finishing No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll.

2014 OUTLOOK NOTES

The Penn State-UCF contest will be the eighth American college football game held in Ireland. The last American football game hosted in Croke Park was in 1996 when Notre Dame played Navy. The Irish and Middies played in Dublin's Aviva Stadium to open the 2012 season.

Penn State will be the first Big Ten Conference team to play internationally since Michigan State and Wisconsin met in Tokyo in the 1993 regular-season finale.

➤ Player Position Changes

Among the Nittany Lions who have changed positions since last season are: Derek Dowrey (DT to G), Brian Gaia (DT to G), Albert Hall (TE to T), Von Walker (Saf to LB) and Anthony Zettel (DE to DT).

➤ Amos Leads Lions In Career Starts

Senior safety Adrian Amos leads the 2014 squad with 25 career starts, having started every game the past two seasons. Senior guard Miles Dieffenbach (23), junior tackle Donovan Smith (20), junior defensive end Deion Barnes (18) and junior tight end Jesse James (18) are next on the career starts list entering the season.

➤ Big Ten Welcomes Maryland, Rutgers; East-West Division Alignments Begin

A pair of old Penn State rivals, Maryland and Rutgers, became members of the Big Ten on July 1 and join the Nittany Lions in the conference's East Division starting this season. The conference will have divisions for football only.

The Big Ten East División will consist of Penn State, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio State and Rutgers. The West Division will include Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin. Teams in the same division will play each other annually. Starting in 2016, the Big Ten will move to a nine-game conference schedule.

Penn State will provide the opposition for the Scarlet Knights' first Big Ten game, on Sept. 13 in Piscataway, N.J. The meeting also will be the opening game of the Big Ten's 119th football season. The Nittany Lions have played Rutgers nine times in New Jersey, but the last six games came at Giants Stadium, most recently in 1995. Penn State played at Rutgers in 1951, '53 and '55. The teams have met 24 times, the first in 1918 and the last in 1995. From 1977-95, the Nittany Lions and Scarlet Knights played every season except in 1999 and '91.

The Terrapins will visit Beaver Stadium on Nov. 1 for the first time Sept. 26, 1992. Penn State and Maryland have met 37 times, with the first game in 1917 and the last in 1993 in College Park. From 1960-93, the Nittany Lions and Terrapins played every year except 1976. '81 and '83.

The Nittany Lions and Spartans will end the 2014-16 campaigns against each other as they did from 1993-2010 in the battle for the Land Grant Trophy. In 2017 and '18, Penn State will play Maryland in the regular-season finale and in 2019, the Nittany Lions will face Rutgers to end the regular-season.

➤ Five Returnees Graduate In May; Four More On Schedule For August

Five returning Nittany Lions received their degrees at Penn State's spring commencement in May and four more returnees were on schedule to graduate in August.

Brad Bars, Jesse Della Valle, Miles Dieffenbach, Mike Hull and Zach Zwinak all received their degrees at the spring commencement. Ryan Keiser, C.J. Olaniyan, Devin Pryor and Deron Thompson were on schedule to graduate in August, bringing the total to nine returnees who have earned their degrees.

➤ Three Nittany Lions Have Penn State Football Lineage

A trio of returning members of the 2014 Penn State squad have ties to current or former Nittany Lion players, coaches or staff:

✓ Redshirt freshman guard Evan Galimberti is the son of Mark Galimberti, who played at Penn State and graduated in 1988;

✓ Sophomore wide receiver Gregg Garrity's father, Gregg, lettered from 1980-82. The elder Garrity made one of the iconic plays in Penn State football history with his diving TD catch to help beat Georgia in the 1983 Sugar Bowl for the Nittany Lions' first National Championship; ✓ Senior linebacker Mike Hull's father, Tom, lettered for the Nittany Lions at linebacker from 1971-73, helping Penn State to its first 12-0 season as a senior. An uncle, John Hull, was a tight end who lettered for the Nittany Lions in 1970-71.

➤ Nearly 50 Nittany Lions Compile 3.0 Grade-Point Average During Spring Semester

The Penn State football team produced another outstanding academic performance during the spring semester, with 46 squad members earning at least a 3.0 grade-point average, including three with a perfect 4.0 GPA.

Forty of the 46 Nittany Lions will be returning for the 2014 season. During the 2013 spring semester, there also were 46 players that compiled a 3.0 GPA or higher.

Among the 46 high achieving Nittany Lions this past spring semester, 24 posted a 3.5 GPA or higher, with 21 passing the minimum 12 credits, to earn Dean's List recognition. The 21 Dean's List honorees is a significant increase from last spring's total of 12.

The superlative academic performance by James Franklin's squad during the spring semester brings to 41 the total number of Penn State football student-athletes with a cumulative 3.0 or higher GPA who are returning for the 2014 season. The 41 total also is an increase over the spring 2013 total of 34 returning players with a 3.0 GPA.

Redshirt freshman placekicker Chris Gulla was among three Nittany Lions that compiled a 4.00 grade-point average during the semester. The Dean's List student has a 3.60 cumulative GPA. Also earning a 4.0 GPA were seniors Kyle Baublitz and Pat Zerbe, who graduated in May.

Among some of the other returning Nittany Lions who made the Dean's List last spring were: wide receiver Gregg Garrity, safety Ryan Keiser, linebacker Ben Kline, kick snapper Zach Ladonis, cornerback Jesse Merise, quarterback Michael O'Connor and receiver Matt Zanellato.

PENN STATE SPORTS NETWORK

Nearly 60 radio stations across Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Ohio will carry Penn State football to fans throughout the Northeast this season on the Penn State Sports Network presented by Sands Bethlehem.

Steve Jones and Jack Ham will team up for their 15th season as the play-by-play voice and color analyst, respectively, on the Penn State Sports Network. Loren Crispell once again will serve as the sideline reporter.

The football broadcasts begin 90 minutes before kickoff with the one-hour "Dietz & Watson Tailgate Show" with host Roger Corey, along with Jones, Ham and Crispell. "The Chesapeake Energy Kickoff Show," a 20-minute conversation with Head Coach James Franklin follows, before Jones, Ham and Crispell bring listeners the starting lineups, health reports, field conditions and late-breaking news in the final minutes leading up to kickoff.

The broadcasts conclude with the "Pennsylvania Propane Gas Association Postgame Show" featuring locker room interviews, game statistics, stars and plays of the game, as well as scores from around the nation.

"The Penn State Football Show — Presented by Pepsi," a weekly live remote radio show with Coach James Franklin and hosted by Jones and Corey is broadcast statewide from Damon's Grill in State College and airs Thursday nights during the football season. "Inside Penn State Athletics — Presented by McLanahan's," a three-minute daily update show hosted by Jones airs Monday through Friday on most Network affiliates; check local station for times.

All Penn State Sports Network broadcasts also can be heard via the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics website: www.GoPSUsports.com.

The Penn State Sports Network is syndicated by Penn State Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports, one of the country's largest syndicators of college sports.

37 KYLE ALSTON

5-9 ➤ 173 ➤ So./Fr. Eligible

Cornerback ➤ Robbinsville, N.J.

The tradition of academic excellence brought Kyle Alston to Penn State, but his love for playing football, and doing so the right way, is what earned him a spot on the roster. He participated in walk-on tryouts during the 2014 spring semester and caught the eyes of the coaching staff as a player with the ability to provide depth and help the squad on special teams and in the secondary. Alston is among five Nittany Lion newcomers from New Jersey in 2014 and 16 overall football studentabletes on the roster from the Garden State.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Alston attended classes on the University Park campus, but did not compete in football. He made the squad during walk-on tryouts during the 2014 spring semester.

➤ High School

Alston was a three-year letterman at Robbinsville High School for head coach Jason Gray. He was a first-team All-West Jersey League Liberty Division pick as a sophomore and senior, missing most of his junior season due to injury. As a senior, Alston was a New Jersey Super 100 all-state selection and a Trenton Times Player-of-the-Week. He amassed 1,419 all-purpose yards and 12 touchdowns, which included 968 rushing yards on 90 carries, and added 60 tackles and one interception. Alston also was honored with the United States Marine Corps Distinguished Athlete Award in 2012-13. He was invited to participate in the Sunshine Football Classic and New Jersey North-South All-State game following his senior year. Alston also lettered in track and field.

➤ Personal

Full name is Kyle Jerrel Alston. He is the son of David and Paula Alston, and has one older brother, Brian. His father, David, played football at Harvard and his brother played football at New Haven. He enjoys traveling, riding a jet ski and playing sports. He intends on majoring in criminology to pursue a career in law enforcement, like his father, who retired after serving with the New Jersey State Police. Born December 14, 1994 in Plainfield, N.J.

48 RYAN AMMERMAN

6-1 ➤ 220 ➤ So./Fr. Eligible

Linebacker > West Chester, Pa.

Ryan Ammerman enters the season looking to add depth to the linebacker unit and crack the rotation or earn a spot on special teams. He played outside linebacker last spring after taking a redshirt season in 2013. Ammerman earned all-city honors at Malvern Prep in suburban Philadelphia and is among 15 returnees from Eastern Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Redshirt season

➤ High School

Ammerman was a three-year letterman for head coach Kevin Pelligrini at Malvern Prep. A standout at tight end and linebacker, he helped the Friars to the 2011 Inter-Academic League championship as a junior, compiling a 9-2 overall record and a 5-0 mark in league play. Ammerman earned All-Inter-Academic League, All-City and All-Mainline honors as a senior after catching 22 passes for 399 yards and two touchdowns. He led the team with 11 catches for 194 yards and two touchdowns during his junior campaign. He also started at linebacker in his three seasons with the Friars and was a team captain his junior and senior seasons. The team MVP as a senior, Ammerman played in the Chesapeake Bowl. He also was a letterman on the basketball team.

Personal

Full name is William Ryan Ammerman. He is the son of Keith and Chyriese Ammerman. He is the oldest of three children, and has one brother, Riley, and one sister, Brynn. Ammerman earned academic First Honors and Second Honors in high school. He plans to enroll in the Smeal College of Business and is interested in owning a business. Born October 4, 1994 in West Chester, Pa.

4 ADRIAN AMOS

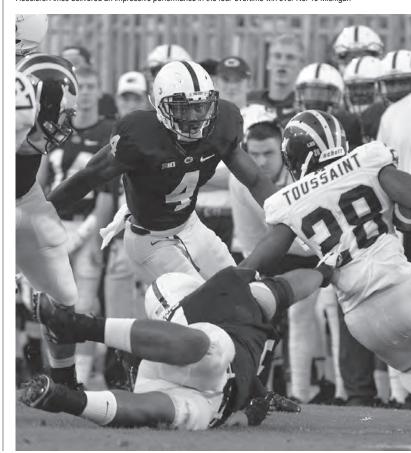

6-0 ➤ 209 ➤ Sr./Sr. Eligible

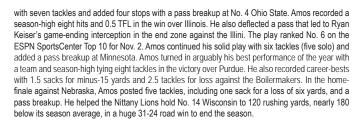

Safety > Baltimore, Md.

One of the Nittany Lions' defensive stalwarts, the vastly talented and hard-hitting Adrian Amos is doing everything individually and as a team leader he can to help ensure that the team reaches its maximum potential this fall. The senior safety started all 12 games last season and has made 25 career starts, the highest total on the team. Amos should be an all-conference candidate after earning 2013 All-Big Ten honorable-mention accolades. He was named second-team preseason All-Big Ten by Athlon Sports and Phil Steele's College Football Preview. Amos returned to safety this past spring after starting the final six games of last season at cornerback. He brings outstanding athleticism, skills, work-ethic and instincts to the field every day. Recognized as a team leader during off-season workouts, Amos ranked seventh on the team with 50 tackles (32 solo) last season. He also recorded 4.0 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks for minus-21 yards, five pass breakups and grabbed one interception. Amos' commitment in the strength and conditioning program has seen him maintain his approximate playing weight from last year, while improving his speed and strength. His: 4.45 40-yard time and 35.5-inch vertical jump were among the best on the squad through the spring. A fierce competitor, Amos posted a season-high eight tackles last season in the win over Illinois and tipped an end zone pass that was intercepted to end the game. A former Baltimore prep Defensive Playerof-the-Year, he also made a team-best eight hits in the win over Purdue, recording career-highs with 2.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks against the Boilermakers. Amos and Nittany Lion secondary mates Da'Quan Davis and Trevor Williams all played at Calvert Hall College High School in Baltimore. They are among seven returning Nittany Lions from Maryland. Amos is on schedule to graduate in December.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Amos earned the starting nod in all 12 games for the second-straight season, splitting time between safety and cornerback. He has made 25 starts, dating back to the 2011 season, starting the first six contests of the season at safety. Amos attained honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors, ranking seventh on the team with 50 tackles (32 solo), 4.0 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks for minus-21 yards. He also had five pass breakups and grabbed one interception. Amos made three tackles and had a pass breakup in the season-opening win over Syracuse. He had four tackles against Eastern Michigan and three stops against UCF. In the third quarter at Indiana, Amos grabbed his fourth career interception, leading to a field goal. He also had one tackle and a pass breakup against the Hoosiers. Amos delivered an impressive performance in the four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

Amos started all 12 games at cornerback, playing in every contest for the second consecutive year. He was selected honorable-mention All-Big Ten by the coaches and media. Amos was eighth on the team with 44 tackles (31 solo) and was tied for second with two interceptions. He also recorded 2.5 tackles for loss, 0.5 sacks and three pass breakups. He played an instrumental role for a defense that ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 16 nationally in scoring defense at 19.1 ppg, holding six teams to 17 or fewer points. Amos recorded a career-high 10 tackles in the season-opener with Ohio. He made six stops (five solo) at Virginia, including a tackle for loss. Amos recorded three solo hits in the 34-7 win over Navy to help Bill O'Brien post his first career head coaching victory and made three tackles and added 0.5 TFL in the 35-7 Big Ten-opening victory at Illinois. Amos grabbed his first interception of the season, inside Ohio State territory, registered five tackles and had a pass breakup against the Buckeyes. He made five hits (four solo) in the 34-9 win at Purdue and had four solo tackles, with one TFL, and a pass breakup at No. 18 Nebraska. In the 45-22 win over Indiana, Amos made four tackles, had a pass breakup and grabbed a fourth-quarter interception inside the Penn State 10-yard line and returned it 54 yards.

➤ 2011 ➤ Freshman Season

Amos appeared in every game at cornerback and on special teams, making one start. He totaled 13 tackles, one interception, four pass breakups and five passes defended. He was one of four true freshmen to see action. In his first career game as a Nittany Lion, Amos made two tackles and returned an interception 46 yards against Indiana State. His pick came in the fourth quarter and set up an eventual Shane McGregor touchdown run to give Penn State a 41-0 lead. Amos made two tackles against Eastern Michigan and two tackles and two pass breakups in the Big Ten-opening win at Indiana. He made his first career start in the win over lowa and recorded two tackles and one pass breakup. In a strong second-half effort in the victory at Northwestern, Amos posted two tackles and a pass breakup. He also recorded two tackles against Houston in the TicketCity Bowl. Amos logged a total of 301 plays in 2011, including a career-high 70 against lowa in his first career start.

➤ High School

Amos led Calvert Hall College High School to the MIAA Class A Conference Championship and the No. 1 state ranking. As a senior for coach Donald Davis, Amos recorded 78 tackles and four interceptions, while forcing three fumbles as a safety. He was named all-met and was the Baltimore City Defensive Player-of-the-Year.

➤ Personal

Full name is Adrian Gerald Amos Jr. He is majoring in recreation, parks and tourism management and is on schedule to graduate in December. Born April 29, 1993.

86 deshawn baker

Wide Receiver > Philadelphia, Pa.

Junior DeShawn Baker continues to improve in his bid to earn playing time in the wide receiver rotation. A noted hard worker on the field and in the weight room, Baker grabbed two balls in the 2014 Blue-White game, leading the White squad in receiving. With the top two wide receivers moving on from the program following last season, there is a significant opportunity for the young receivers to step into bigger roles this fall. Baker, who redshirted in 2011, is looking to make his Nittany Lion debut. He owned a 3.53 cumulative grade-point average through the spring semester. Baker is among 15 returning Nittany Lions from Eastern Pennsylvania.

> High School

Baker lettered in football, basketball and track and field at the William Penn Charter School. Playing wide receiver and cornerback for coach Jeff Humble, Baker scored six touchdowns as a senior, with three scores during his junior campaign. He was an all-conference performer in track and field. Baker was an Honor Roll student and earned the bronze medal placement on the National Spanish Exam.

> Personal

Full name is Deshawn Baker. He is the son of Rodney Dumas and Danielle Hollis-Dumas, and has two sisters, Alyssa and Latoya, and a brother, Rodney. He enjoys music, poetry, movies and playing video games. He is a kinesiology major and plans to pursue a career as a chiropractor or a physician assistant. He owned a 3.49 cumulative grade-point average through the 2014 spring semester. Born September 16, 1992 in Philadelphia, Pa.

URSCHEL WINS PRESTIGIOUS WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

Penn State's John Urschel was honored as the recipient of the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy at the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame's 56th annual celebration of college football in December 2013.

A two-time first-team All-Big Ten honoree and Associated Press third-team All-American, Urschel became the first Penn State student-athlete to win the Campbell Trophy, also known as the "Academic Heisman," since it was first presented in 1990.

The William V. Campbell Trophy, endowed by HealthSouth, is presented to the nation's premier college football Scholar-Athlete. A two-time first-team Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-American®, Urschel will receive a total of $25,000 for post-graduate work.

A 4.0 grade-point average graduate student, Urschel was the 17th Nittany Lion to be selected a Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete. He followed another standout offensive lineman and first-team Academic All-American®, Stefen Wisniewski (2010), on the distinguished list.

Penn State is tied for third in the nation (with Notre Dame) with its 17 Scholar-Athlete recipients. Nebraska (22) and Ohio State (20) are the only schools with more honorees than the Nittany Lions.

The Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented on an annual basis to a select group of college football players in their senior year of eligibility who have demonstrated outstanding academic success, strong leadership, citizenship and superior football performance.

Urschel was the first Big Ten student-athlete since 2003 to win the Campbell Trophy and the fifth overall from a current Big Ten institution. Ohio State's Craig Krenzel was the 2003 recipient. Among some of the previous Campbell Trophy recipients are: Danny Wuerffel (1996), Peyton Manning (1997), Brian Leonard (2006), Tim Tebow (2009) and Barrett Jones (2012).

35 MATTHEW BANEY

Linebacker ➤ State College, Pa.

A life-long State College resident, linebacker Matt Baney could not let the opportunity to fulfill his dream slip by. After starting his college career 60 miles away at St. Francis University, Baney transferred to Penn State to major in the world-renowned kinesiology program and made the squad during walk-on tryouts. Baney has made significant progress during the past year and earned a start for the victorious Blue team in the 2014 spring game, returning an interception 28 yards for a touchdown. He is looking forward to competing for playing time on defense and the special teams and providing depth for "Linebacker U." Baney has a grade-point average above 3.0 and is a potential Academic All-Big Ten candidate. He joins Evan Galimberti and Jack Haffner as returning Nittany Lions who played at State College Area High School.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Baney made good progress and was a valuable member of the scout team but did not see any game action.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

Redshirt season. Baney transferred to Penn State from St. Francis (Pa.) University.

> 2011 > Freshman Season — St. Francis (Pa.)

Baney appeared in 10 games with two starts during his freshman season at St. Francis. He started the season-opener against Wagner, as well as against Sacred Heart, and totaled 14 tackles, 0.5 tackles-for-loss (minus-1) and recovered a fumble. Baney recorded three tackles against Albany, including 0.5 TFL. He made four tackles in consecutive games at Robert Morris and at Sacred Heart. He added two tackles at Youngstown State and made a fumble recovery at Robert Morris.

> High School

Baney made a significant impact at linebacker his final two seasons at State College Area High School. Playing for coach Al Wolski, Baney made 107 tackles, with one sack and two fumble recoveries as a senior. During his junior season, he made 85 tackles and two interceptions. He recorded 14 tackles as a sophomore. Baney, who also played on the offensive line, was selected a team captain as a senior and was a two-year letterman. He helped the Little Lions reach the 2009 PIAA Class AAAA state championship game, to an unbeaten regular-season in 2008 and three district titles. He was honored by the Central Pennsylvania Chapter of the National Football Foundation and earned Pennsylvania Football News All-Academic honors. He also participated in track and field. Baney was a High Honor Roll student and a member of Pride of the Lion.

➤ Personal

Full name is Matthew Samuel Baney. He is the son of Mark and Brenda Baney, both Penn State graduates. He has one younger sister, Allison. He is majoring in kinesiology and plans to pursue a career as a physical therapist, strength coach or strength trainer. He compiled a 3.17 grade-point average during the 2013 fall semester. Born October 19, 1992 in State College, Pa.

LINEBACKER SHANE CONLAN ELECTED TO HALL OF FAME

Former Penn State All-America linebacker Shane Conlan, the leader of the Nittany Lions' tenacious 1985-86 defenses, has been elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. Conlan is the 18th Penn State player to receive college football's ultimate honor.

Conlan will be inducted with other members of the Class of 2014 at the National Football Foundation's 57th annual awards dinner on December 9 at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. He will become the 23rd member of the Penn State program inducted, joining 17 other former players and five Nittany Lion coaches. The most recent Penn State player so honored was running back Curt Warner in 2009.

A native of Frewsburg, N.Y, Conlan was a standout at Frewsburg Central High School before matriculating to Penn State, where he was instrumental in the Nittary Lions posting a 23-1 mark his last two seasons, capped by the 1986 National Championship. A senior co-captain in 1986, Conlan led Penn State to a stunning 14-10 win over No. 1 Miami (Fla.) in the 1987 Fiesta Bowl to capture Penn State's second national title in five seasons.

Conlan capped his career by leading a superlative defensive effort in the 1987 Fiesta Bowl to earn the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player, recording eight tackles and two interceptions to lead Penn State past previously unbeaten Miami. He led a defense that forced seven turnovers, including a season-high five interceptions of Vinny Testaverde, the 1986 Heisman Trophy winner. He returned his second interception 39 yards to the Miami five-yard line to set up D.J. Dozier's game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter.

A four-year letterman and a three-year starter for Hall of Fame coach Joe Paterno, Conlan was a consensus first-team All-American in 1986. As a junior in 1985, Conlan was selected a first-team All-American by Newspaper Enterprise Association (NEA) and named a second-team All-American by UPI and Football News. He led Penn State in tackles in 1984 and 1986. He recorded 274 career tackles, which were tied for No. 2 on the Penn State list when his career ended and remain No. 7 today. Conlan made 186 career solo hits, which still rank No. 3 on the school list (held solo tackles record for 20 years).

Defensive End ➤ Philadelphia, Pa.

Deion Barnes enters his junior season with an opportunity to be a leader for a talented and deep defensive line unit that should be among the best in the Big Ten. Barnes and senior C.J. Olaniyan return with an opportunity to be one of the most productive and assertive defensive end tandems in the conference. Already blessed with tremendous physical attributes and a relentless attitude, his efforts in the weight room have added several pounds to his frame since last season. Barnes is coming off an outstanding spring practice session where he earned the squad's Frank Patrick Memorial "Total Commitment" Award for his efforts. The honor goes to a junior class member who consistently displays a total commitment to academics, off-season preparation, in-season commitment and community service in honor of Patrick, who was a Penn State assistant coach from 1949-73. A 2013 preseason candidate for the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy, Barnes was the 2012 Big Ten Thompson-Randle El Freshman-of-the-Year. Possessing a great motor and big play ability, he started 10 games last year and has made 18 career starts. Barnes recorded 28 tackles, 4.0 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, two pass breakups and one forced fumble last year. He has recorded four forced fumbles, 8.0 sacks and 14.0 TFL in his first two seasons. The former Northeast High School all-state honoree will be counted on for leadership and continued productivity for the unit and has a very promising future. Barnes is on schedule to graduate in December. He is among 15 returning Nittany Lions from Eastern Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Barnes started 10 games, boosting his total to 18 career starts. He recorded 28 tackles, 4.0 tackles for a loss, 2.0 sacks, two pass breakups and one forced fumble. A preseason candidate for the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy, he made one tackle, batted down a pass and posted a pair of quarterback hurries in the season-opening win over Syracuse. He made two tackles against both Eastern Michigan and UCF. Barnes was a defensive stopper against Kent State as he tied his career-high, previously set at Nebraska in 2012, with six tackles, 0.5 sack and one tackle for a loss in the 34-0 win over the Golden Flashes. He had three tackles, including one minus-yardage play, in the pulsating four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan. In the win over Illinois, Barnes made three stops, including 0.5 tackle for loss. He recorded four tackles, with 0.5 sack and 1.0 TFL at Minnesota. Barnes registered his fourth career forced fumble to go with one sack for a loss of eight yards and three tackles in the win over Purdue. He notched a solo stop and added a pass breakup in the huge season-ending victory at No. 14 Wisconsin.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Barnes appeared in all 12 games, with eight starts. He was selected the 2012 Thompson-Randle El Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year, becoming the second Nittany Lion to receive the conference's freshman honor. Barnes was a consensus first-team Freshman All-American, earning the honor from CBSsports.com, Sporting News, CollegeFootballNews.com,

Fox Sports/Scout.com and Phil Steele's College Football. He also was selected honorable-mention All-Big Ten by the coaches and media and was named to the ESPN.com and BTN.com Big Ten All-Freshman teams. Barnes tied for No. 3 in the conference with three forced fumbles, tied for No. 5 in the Big Ten in sacks (6.0) and was No. 14 with 10.0 tackles for loss, leading the team in sacks and TFL. He made 26 tackles (14 solo) and had one pass breakup. Barnes played a vital role for a defense that ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 16 nationally in scoring defense at 19.1 ppg, holding six teams to 17 or fewer points. Barnes recorded his first two career sacks at Virginia and made five tackles in the 34-7 win over Navy, including his third sack in two games. He shared Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honors after the 34-7 win over the Midshipmen in Bill O'Brien's first career head coaching victory. He made two solo stops in the win over Temple, had 0.5 sacks and two stops in the 35-7 victory at Illinois and combined on a sack and had a pass breakup in the 39-28 win over No. 24 Northwestern. Barnes made three hits in a 38-14 win at lowa and had one TFL and forced his team-leading third fumble of the season to set up a first-quarter touchdown in the 34-9 victory at Purdue. Barnes recorded a season-high six tackles (four solo) and 3.0 TFL for minus-13 yards, including a sack, at No. 18 Nebraska. He had three hits in the win over Indiana, including an 11-yard sack, and registered three stops in the pulsating Senior Day overtime win over Wisconsin.

91 TAROW BARNEY

Defensive Tackle > Gainesville, Fla.

Tarow Barney arrived on the University Park campus in January 2014 and has benefited from a semester of transition to the academic and football rigors and routine. Rated as one of the nation's top 20 junior college players at the end of the 2013 season, Barney played the past two years at Northwest Mississippi Community College in Senatobia, Miss. He was ranked by ESPN as the No. 5 junior college defensive tackle, No. 18 overall, in 2013 and has two years of eligibility at Penn State. Barney played as a senior at Bainbridge (Ga.) High School and brings good size and skills to the field. When preseason camp begins, Barney will look to make an impact on a defensive tackle spot that lost the services of DaQuan Jones to the NFL and Kyle Baublitz to graduation. In his first appearance in front of the Beaver Stadium faithful, Barney recorded two tackles, including one sack, in the Blue-White game. Barney is the third former Georgia high school standout to matriculate to Penn State since June 2013, joining Kasey Gaines and Grant Haley.

> 2013 > Sophomore Season — Northwest Mississippi C.C.

A starter in all nine games, Barney ranked seventh on the team with 36 tackles and led the squad with 9.5 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks. He opened the season with a season-best six tackles, 4.0

tackles for loss and 0.5 sack against Southwest Community College. He followed with four tackles against Copiah-Lincoln and two tackles against Coahoma. A three-tackle day against Northeast Mississippi included one tackle for loss. Barney logged a season-high tying six tackles with 1.5 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack against Itawamba. He totaled five tackles against Mississippi Delta Community College before making four tackles, forcing a fumble and notching 2.0 sacks against Holmes. Baney had three stops in each of his final two games with East Mississippi and Jones County, including a tackle for loss against JCCC. Barney was rated as the 18th-best prospect on the ESPN JC50. He was the No. 5-rated junior college defensive tackle by ESPN.

> 2012 > Freshman Season — Northwest Mississippi C.C.

Barney played in all 10 games and recorded 20 tackles and four quarterback hurries at Northwest Mississippi Community College. He helped the Rangers to the program's first bowl victory in 20 years with a win over Kilgore in the Brazos Valley Bowl. He made a season-high seven tackles against No. 7 Gulf Coast. Barney logged five solo tackles against Jones County Community College, three tackles against Mississippi Delta Community College and two stops against Coahoma. He also contributed one tackle each against Northeast Mississippi, Itawamba and East Mississippi.

> High School

Barney played one season of high school football, earning a letter for coach Ed Pilcher at Bainbridge High School. He was an honorable-mention all-region selection after recording 55 tackles and five sacks during his senior campaign. He was selected to play in the War of the Border game, which features prep standouts from northern Florida and southern Georgia.

31 BRAD BARS

6-3 ➤ 263 ➤ Gr./Sr. Eligible

Defensive End ➤ Nashville, Tenn.

Brad Bars is more than ready to return to the field after missing the 2013 season due to injury. He provided tireless effort during his rehabilitation and is looking to work his way into a significant role in the defensive end rotation during his fifth-year senior season. Bars is a talented and relentless player with a great motor who could also play a prominent role on the special teams. With his efforts in the strength and conditioning program, he has added more than 15 pounds to his frame since the start of the 2013 season. A product of Montgomery Bell Academy in Nashville, Bars played in eight games on defense and special teams in 2012. Bars is one of the squad's premier students, owning a 3.68 grade-point average after the spring semester. The Dean's List student compiled a 4.00 grade-point average during the 2012 fall semester and was selected to the Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District team. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, Bars will be a candidate for CoSIDA Academic All-America consideration this year. He earned his degree in finance in May and is among the five returnees who graduated last spring.

➤ 2013 ➤ Senior Season

Bars suffered a ruptured Achilles tendon in July 2013 and missed the season.

➤ 2012 ➤ Junior Season

Bars played in eight games on defense and special teams. He missed the first two contests with a leg injury and made two tackles in the win over Navy to assist in Bill O'Brien's first career head coaching victory. Bars attained a 4.00 grade-point average during the 2012 fall semester. He was selected to the Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District® team and was an Academic All-Big Ten honoree for the second time.

➤ 2011 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Bars saw playing time in 12 games and delivered one of the season's biggest special teams plays when he blocked an Illinois punt in the fourth quarter. After the block, the Nittany Lions kicked a field goal to pull within four points and won the Leaders Division game, 10-7, with a touchdown with less than 70 seconds to play to improve to 5-0 in the Big Ten at the time. Bars played a total of 97 snaps with a season-high 12 snaps each against Purdue, Nebraska and Wisconsin. He earned Academic All-Big Ten honors.

26 BRANDON BFII

6-1 ➤ 222 ➤ So./So. Eligible

Linebacker ➤ Mays Landing, N.J.

Brandon Bell emerged as a bigger contributor towards the end of his true freshman season and should have an opportunity to become a significant contributor from day one as the 2014 season commences. One of four New Jersey prep standouts to matriculate to Penn State in 2013, Bell appeared in 10 games and made his first career start at "Linebacker U." in the big win at No. 14 Wisconsin. Bell's increased role and productivity earned him a spot on the BTN.com All-Freshman team. The talented and physical player was among 12 true freshmen to make their debut in 2013 and was one of four true freshmen to make their first start. He made 24 tackles (14 solo), had one forced fumble and also caused one of the key interceptions of the season during his true freshman campaign. With the shift of Mike Hull to middle linebacker, Bell should be a primary challenger for a starting assignment at one of the OLB positions. He has a grade-point average above 3.00 and is a potential Academic All-Big Ten candidate this fall. Bell is among 12 returning Nittany Lions from New Jersey.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Bell was named to the BTN.com All-Freshman team after appearing in 10 games and making one start at linebacker. He was one of 12 true freshmen to make their debut and was among four true freshmen to make their first start during the season. Bell tallied 24 tackles (14 solo), had one forced fumble and also caused one of the key interceptions of the season. He also finished tied for third on the team with six special teams tackles. Bell made his collegiate debut against Eastern Michigan and had two tackles against the Eagles. Bell had a strong effort at No. 4 Ohio State, making five tackles (two solo). He made one tackle at Minnesota and followed that up with three stops against Purdue. Bell turned in his best performance of the season with a career-high six tackles and forced his first career fumble against Nebraska. While stopping Cornhusker quarterback Ron Kellogg III on a third-and-goal from the one-yard line, Bell stripped the ball, which was recovered by the Huskers and held them to only a field goal. In the next game, Bell made his first career start and equaled his season-high with six tackles (four solo) in the season-ending victory at No. 14 Wisconsin. He also made the hit on Wisconsin quarterback Joel Stave on C.J. Olaniyan's interception in the third quarter. Olaniyan returned the pick 33 yards deep into Badger territory to set up a field goal in the 31-24 victory.

➤ High School

Bell was a highly productive two-way player at Oakcrest High School, playing for head coach Chuck Smith. A standout at linebacker and running back for the Falcons, Bell accumulated 309 tackles and more than 1,000 yards rushing in his career. Bell was selected first-team All-Cape Atlantic League, first-team All-Atlantic City Press and second-team All-South Jersey as a senior. A four-year letterman, he recorded 112 tackles, two sacks, four forced fumbles and an interception during his senior season. His junior year featured 117 stops, 22 tackles for loss and three sacks, while gaining 429 rushing yards and five touchdowns. Nine sacks highlighted a 68-tackle season as a sophomore and he added 455 rushing yards and seven touchdowns. Bell was rated a three-star prospect coming out of high school by ESPN.com, Rivals.com and Scout.com.

1 BILL BELTON

Running Back ➤ Sicklerville, N.J.

One of the most athletic and dynamic players on the roster, Bill Belton has been preparing to play a paramount role in the success of the Nittany Lion offense this fall. Coming off a strong junior campaign, Belton continued his progression in the weight room and on the field during the spring. Among the squad's most dedicated workers, Belton was second on the team with 1,036 all-purpose yards, good for a 94.2 average. The senior running back gained 803 yards on 157 carries for a strong 5.1 average last year, with a long of 51 yards, and scored five rushing touchdowns. Belton ranked ninth in Big Ten games only with 78.6 rushing yards per game. Against Minnesota, he became the 41st Nittany Lion to record 1,000 career rushing yards, ending the season with 1,131 career yards, good for No. 35 on the prestigious list. A swift runner and receiver with good hands and leaping ability, Belton was tied for sixth on the team with 15 receptions for 158 yards and two scores, with a long catch of 30 yards. A starter in four games last season, he also had 75 yards on kickoff returns. Belton and fellow senior Zach Zwinak should again form one of the Big Ten's top running back tandems after combining to gain 1,792 yards in 2013. A former receiver, Belton joined elite company in the win over Illinois last fall when he gained a career-high 201 yards, becoming the 15th Nittany Lion to rush for at least 200 yards in a game. He delivered Penn State's first 200-yard rushing game since Larry Johnson against Michigan State in 2002 and earned Big Ten Offensive Player-of-the-Week honors. The former Winslow Township High School all-state honoree ended the longest game in Penn State and Big Ten history when he scored on a two-yard run to give the Nittany Lions a 43-40 four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan. He had a then-career-high 27 carries for 85 yards, with 50 yards after the third quarter, and caught three passes for 26 yards. He received an ESPN. com Big Ten Helmet Sticker for his efforts in the dramatic win over the Wolverines. One of the most athletic and elusive playmakers on the squad, Belton should play a significant role as a ball carrier and receiver in 2014. Belton is one of 12 returning Nittany Lions from New Jersey.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Belton delivered his most productive season as a Nittany Lion. He was second on the team with 1,036 all-purpose yards, good for a 94.2 average. He gained 803 rushing yards on 157 carries for a strong 5.1 average, with a long of 51 yards, and scored five rushing touchdowns. Belton ranked ninth in Big Ten games only at 78.6 rushing yards per game. Against Minnesota, he became the 41st Nittany Lion to record 1,000 career rushing yards, ending the season with 1,131 yards, good for No. 35 on the prestigious list. Belton was tied for sixth on the team with 15 receptions for 158 yards and two scores, with a long catch of 30 yards. Playing in 11 contests and a starter in four games, he also had 75 yards on kickoff returns. Belton joined elite company in the win over Illinois when he gained a career-high 201 yards, becoming the 15th Nittany Lion to rush for at least 200 yards in a game. He delivered Penn State's first 200-yard rushing game since Larry Johnson against Michigan State in 2002 and garnered Big Ten Offensive Player-of-the-Week honors. Belton carried the ball a career-high 36 times, scored on a five-yard run and averaged 5.6 yards per carry en route to his third career 100-yard game. He gained a career-best 209 all-purpose yards against the Illini, adding one reception for eight yards to his rushing total. Belton began the season in his native Garden State, rushing for 22 yards on six carries and delivering three kickoff returns for 66 yards (long of 26 yards) in the win over Syracuse at MetLife Stadium. He ran for 108 yards on nine attempts in the win over Eastern Michigan, scoring twice. His 51-yard touchdown run was a career-long and the team's longest, at the time, since Evan Royster's 69-yard run at Northwestern in 2009. Belton combined with Akeel Lynch (108 yards) to become the 32nd Penn State running back combo to rush for 100 yards in the same game and the first since 2010 against Northwestern (Royster/Silas Redd). Belton carried the ball 13 times for 90 yards (6.9) in the shutout win over Kent State, including a long run of 28 yards that set up a touchdown. He also made a 15-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter against the Flashes. Belton had three catches for 24 yards and one touchdown and ran for 31 yards in the Big Ten-opener at Indiana. Belton ended the longest game in Penn State and Big Ten history when he scored on a two-yard run to give the Nittany Lions a scintillating 43-40 four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan. He had a then-career-high 27 carries for 85 yards, with 50 yards after the third quarter, and caught three passes for 26 yards, in the win over the Wolverines. He earned an ESPN. com Big Ten Helmet Sticker for his efforts in the Michigan game. Belton gained 98 yards at No. 4 Ohio State, the second-highest rushing total for a running back allowed by the Buckeyes all year. In his first start of the season, he also caught one pass for nine yards against Ohio State. He carried the ball seven times for 47 yards, including a long of 19 yards in the fourth quarter, at Minnesota. He also had a career-high 41 receiving yards on two catches, including a career-long 30-yard catch against the Gophers. In the win over Purdue, Belton had 19 carries for 81 yards, with a five-yard touchdown run to open the scoring. He did not play against Nebraska due to a slight shoulder injury and illness. Belton gained seven yards on three carries in the season-ending win at No. 14 Wisconsin and caught one pass for five yards.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

Belton appeared in eight games with five starts at running back. He was third on the team with 263 rushing yards on 60 attempts (4.4) and had three rushing touchdowns. Belton made nine catches for 50 yards and one score and returned nine kickoffs for a 15.6-yard average. He was tied for third on the team with 453 all-purpose yards. Belton made his first career start in the season-opener with Ohio and led the team with 53 rushing yards on 13 carries. But, he suffered a sprained ankle against the Bobcats and missed the next three games. He started at tailback in the 35-7 Big Ten-opening win at Illinois and set then-career-highs with 65 yards on 16 carries. Belton gave Penn State a 100-yard rusher in each of the first three Big Ten games by gaining a season-high 103 yards on 16 carries (6.4) and scoring his first three career rushing touchdowns in the 38-14 prime time win at lowa. He had a season-long 23-yard burst and touchdown runs of 11, 3 and 5 yards against the Hawkeyes. Belton became the 86th Nittany Lion all-time to rush for at least 100 yards in a game.

➤ 2011 ➤ Freshman Season

Belton was a key component in the successful "Wildcat" formation that the Nittany Lions unveiled late in the season, gaining 65 yards on 13 carries in eight games. He gained 15 yards on four attempts in the 20-14 win at Ohio State. At Wisconsin, Belton carried the ball three times, collecting 12 yards. He delivered the best game of his freshman season against Houston in the TicketCity Bowl, setting season-highs in rushing yards (38) and attempts (6). Belton made his collegiate debut in the win at Temple and returned his first kickoff for 15 yards against Eastern Michigan. One of four true freshmen to earn playing time, Belton logged a total of 71 plays, led by 17 against Houston and 14 at Wisconsin.

➤ High School

Belton was named first-team all-state, all-group and All-South Jersey at Winslow Township High School, playing for coach Mike McBride. He was honored as the Courier-Post Player-of-the-Year and Rivals.com rated him the No. 13 athlete in the nation. Belton became the first New Jersey prep quarterback to post consecutive seasons of 2,000 yards passing and 1,000 yards rushing. As a senior, he threw for 2,167 yards and 21 touchdowns, while rushing for 1,003 yards and 13 touchdowns.

81 ADAM BRENEMAN

6-4 ➤ 243 ➤ So./So. Eligible

Tight End ➤ Mechanicsburg, Pa.

On the heels of a strong finish to his true freshman season, tight end Adam Breneman heads into 2014 looking to again play a significant role for the offense and special teams. As the 2013 season unfolded, Breneman became more and more comfortable on the field. Making significant progress throughout the campaign, Breneman played the best football of his young career in November. He made a touchdown catch in each of the last three games and was selected a 247Sports.com second-team True Freshman All-American. He has added nearly 10 pounds to his frame during the off-season through his efforts in the strength and conditioning program. A sophomore, Breneman was among the conference's 10 players selected to BTN.com's All-Breakout Team for the 2014 season. He possesses outstanding skills, physical attributes and a desire to succeed in everything he does. In 2013, he was tied for sixth on the team with 15 receptions for 186 yards and his three touchdown catches were tied for second. Breneman enrolled in the University in January 2013 and was among 12 true freshmen to make their debut last year and was one of four true freshmen to make their first start. Playing in 11 games, he started five and was among the 14 first-time starters in 2013. He posted his first career catch in the first quarter against UCF and made a season-best four catches against the Knights. The former Cedar Cliff High School All-American grabbed his first career touchdown catch in the win over Purdue. He saved the best performance of his freshman season for last in Penn State's big road win at No. 14 Wisconsin. Breneman caught three passes for a career-high 78 yards, which included a 68-yard catch and run for a touchdown on the game's first possession, in the 31-24 win in Madison. His 68-yard catch and run against the Badgers was the longest play from scrimmage for Penn State, and the longest given up by the Badgers, during the 2013 season. Breneman had a 3.19 grade-point average entering the summer and is a potential Academic All-Big Ten candidate this fall. He is secretary of Penn State's Uplifting Athletes chapter, which has raised more than $825,000 for kidney cancer patients, their families and research since the first Penn State Lift For Life was held in 2003. Breneman has been honored for his creation of the "Catch The Cure" initiative, as a high school senior, to support Project A.L.S. research and assist a family friend, Tom Kirchoff, with A.L.S. Breneman wears No. 81, the same number worn by another former Cedar Cliff standout, Kyle Brady, who was a first-team All-America tight end at Penn State in 1994. The Mechanicsburg native is among 17 returning players from Central Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Breneman enrolled in the University in January 2013 and made significant strides as his true freshman season wore on. He played the best football of his young Nittany Lion career in November. Breneman was among 12 true freshmen to make their debut and was one of four to make their first start. Playing in 11 games, he started five games and was among the 14 first-time starters in 2013. HACKENBERG, BRENEMAN GAIN FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN HONORS

Quarterback Christian Hackenberg and tight end Adam Breneman were named to the 247Sports True Freshman All-America team, with Hackenberg earning three additional freshman accolades.

The 2013 Big Ten Thompson-Randel El Freshman-of-the-Year, Hackenberg was the first-team quarterback on the 247Sports squad and Breneman was named to the second-team as a tight end.

Their selections give Penn State four freshman All-America honorees the past two years, as defensive end Deion Barnes and tight end Kyle Carter were consensus 2012 choices.

Hackenberg also was selected a second-team Freshman All-American by Athlon Sports, Phil Steele's College Football and CollegeFootballNews.com. Heisman Trophy-winner Jameis Winston was the firstteam honoree by all three outlets. Hackenberg was selected the 247Sports National True Freshman-of-the-Week twice last season, after leading the Nittany Lions to wins over No. 18 Michigan and No. 14 Wisconsin.

Hackenberg broke one Penn State overall and 11 school freshman game or season passing and total offense records in 2013, including game (30) and season (231) completions, game (340) and season (2,955) passing yardage and game (4) and season (20) touchdown passes. He also broke freshman marks for game (55) and season (392) passing attempts and the number of 200-yard (9) and 300-yard (4) passing names

A starter in five games last season, Breneman was sixth on the team with 15 catches for 186 yards (12.4) and three touchdowns, grabbing a scoring strike in each of the last three games. His 68-yard touchdown catch and run on Penn State's first possession in the win at Wisconsin was the team's longest play from scrimmage in 2013.

87 KYLE CARTER

6-3 ➤ 241 ➤ Sr./Jr. Eligible

Tight End ➤ Bear, Del.

Kyle Carter's size and receiver-like speed make him a challenging match-up for opposing teams. A crisp route-runner with strong hands, Carter has been an impact player for the Nittany Lion offense the past two seasons. Entering his junior campaign, Carter is among a talented and deep pool of Nittany Lions tight ends, a unit that should rate among the nation's best. He has added several pounds to his frame since last season through his stellar efforts in the strength and conditioning program. Appearing in all 12 games last year, Carter was tied for third on the team with 18 receptions for 222 yards and one game-winning touchdown. A strong and improved blocker and receiver, he was a mid-season candidate for the John Mackey Award, after being the only freshman on the award's mid-season watch list in 2012. The vastly talented and athletic Carter was a consensus Freshman All-American during the 2012 campaign. Limited by an arm injury suffered in the 2013 season-opener against Syracuse, Carter did not miss a game for the Nittany Lions. He tied his career-high with six catches for a season-high 79 yards at Indiana, including a 26-yard catch to set up a score. Carter caught the game-winning touchdown pass against Illinois, a 15-yarder from Christian Hackenberg in overtime. The former William Penn High School standout compiled a 3.23 grade-point average during the spring semester and is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree. Carter is among a trio of Nittany Lions from Delaware, being joined by freshmen Chris Godwin and Troy Reeder this fall.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Carter made 18 catches for 222 yards during his second season on the field. Appearing in all 12 games, with four starts, he was tied for fourth on the squad in receptions. Carter's efforts as a blocker and receiver helped the Nittany Lions rush for 2,088 yards and throw for 3,110 yards. A midseason candidate for the John Mackey Award, Carter was limited by an arm injury suffered during the season-opener against Syracuse. Nonetheless, Carter did not miss any games. He made two catches in the home-opener against Eastern Michigan, gaining 16 yards. Carter had two catches for 23 yards against UCF, including a long of 15 yards. He made one catch for 29 yards in the first quarter against Kent State that set up the first touchdown of the game. Carter tied his career-high with six catches for a season-high 79 yards at Indiana, including a 26-yard catch to set up a score. He hauled in a pair of catches for 24 yards in the four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan. One of his catches came in the fourth quarter that set up a fourth-and-one, which Penn State converted on its way to a field goal that drew the Lions within 34-27 against the Wolverines. Carter caught the game-winning touchdown pass against Illinois, a 15-yarder from Christian Hackenberg in overtime. He made one catch for eight yards at Minnesota and had two catches for 25 yards against Nebraska, including a long of 22 yards in the third quarter. Carter made one catch in the big 31-24 seasonending victory at No. 14 Wisconsin. He was selected Academic All-Big Ten for the second time.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

GoPSUsports.com

In his first season on the field, Carter made a dynamic impact, gaining recognition among the premier tight ends in the nation. He was a consensus first-team Freshman All-American, earning the honor from CBSsports.com, Sporting News, CollegeFootballNews.com, Fox Sports/Scout.com and Phil Steele's College Football. Carter was a first-team All-Big Ten selection by the media and was the only freshman named to the 2012 John Mackey Award Mid-Season Watch List. Carter played in nine games, which included two starts. He was second on the team with 36 receptions for 453 yards (12.6) and two touchdowns. He made six catches of 20 yards or more, with a career-long 34-yard grab in the 38-14 prime time win at Iowa. In his Nittany Lion debut, Carter made six catches against Ohio and he had four catches at Virginia, including his first career touchdown on an 8-yard connection with Matt McGloin. Carter made five catches for 70 yards in the win over Temple and hauled in three catches for 45 yards in the 35-7 victory at Illinois to open Big Ten play. He made four receptions for 44 yards in the 39-28 comeback decision over No. 24 Northwestern. Carter broke his career-high with 85 yards and tied his season-high with six catches, all in the first half, en route to Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week accolades in the victory at Iowa. He made a superlative 34-yard catch and run to the lowa 11-yard line to set up a first-quarter touchdown for a 14-0 lead. Carter made a game-high six receptions for 77 yards and a touchdown against Ohio State. He had a 20-yard touchdown catch and a 21-yard grab against the Buckeyes. After missing the Purdue game due to a sprained ankle suffered in the Ohio State game, Carter returned to the field at No. 18 Nebraska and made one catch for 12 yards before suffering the wrist injury that ended his year. He was named Academic All-Big Ten.

SEATTLE'S ROBINSON & HILL ADD TO PENN STATE'S TOTAL OF SUPER BOWL RINGS

For the second time in three years, a pair of former Penn State standouts won Super Bowl rings. Seattle veteran fullback Michael Robinson and rookie defensive tackle Jordan Hill helped the Seahawks to a dominating 43-8 win over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII. The former Nittany Lions helped Seattle win its first National Football League championship in its second Super Bowl appearance.

With Seattle's victory, 37 former Nittany Lions have compiled a total of 54 Super Bowl rings. Former Penn State standouts Kareem McKenzie and Jimmy Kennedy were members of the Super Bowl XLVI champion New York Giants. Tight end Andrew Quarless won a Super Bowl ring with the Green Bay Packers as a rookie in Super Bowl XLV.

For the 43rd time in the Super Bowl's 48-game history, at least one Penn State alumnus was a member of one of the teams (17th time in last 19 years). A total of 103 Nittany Lions have been on Super Bowl rosters, the third-highest total nationally, trailing only Miami (Fla.) and Southern California.

Ten former Nittany Lions were on the rosters of 2013 National Football League playoff teams, with at least one Penn Stater on seven of the squads which were vying for a berth in Super Bowl XLVIII.

There were 25 former Nittany Lions with NFL teams at the end of the regular-season, placing Penn State in the top 15 nationally among schools in producing current NFL players.

A total of 332 Nittany Lions have been selected all-time in the NFL Draft, including 36 in the first round. Thirty-three Penn State football student-athletes have been drafted since 2006, including 15 in the first three rounds.

3 DA'QUAN DAVIS

5-10 ➤ 171 ➤ Jr./Jr. Eligible

Cornerback ➤ Baltimore, Md.

Da'Quan Davis brings athleticism, instincts and passion to the Penn State defense and special teams. He heads into his junior season ready to continue his improvement and play a larger role in the secondary this fall. Davis also should be a strong challenger to remain a contributor on special teams. The determined and hard-working Davis saw action in seven games on defense and special teams last season. He is one of three Nittany Lions in the secondary from Baltimore's Calvert Hall College High School, joining safety Adrian Amos and cornerback Trevor Williams. Davis is one of seven returning Nittany Lions from the state of Maryland.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

Davis played in seven games and recorded five tackles (four solo) during his sophomore campaign. He recorded a pair of tackles (one solo) in the win over Eastern Michigan. In the 34-0 victory over Kent State, Davis made back-to-back solo stops in the fourth quarter to help preserve the shutout. He made one tackle in the big 31-24 season-ending win at No. 14 Wisconsin.

> 2012 > Freshman Season

Davis played in every game on defense and special teams. He was among six true freshmen to see action. Davis recorded five tackles, one fumble recovery and three pass breakups. He made his Penn State debut in the season-opener with Ohio, had one solo tackle at Virginia and made two hits in the win over Temple. Davis made two stops and pounced on a fumble late in the game to help secure the 39-28 comeback win over No. 24 Northwestern. He had a pass breakup in the win over Indiana.

➤ High School

A four-year letterman, Davis was named all-met and all-conference as a junior and senior under coach Donald Davis. A team captain, Davis helped lead Calvert Hall to an 11-1 season and its first conference championship since 1982. He recorded 45 tackles, three interceptions and forced four fumbles as a senior. As a junior, he registered 48 tackles, six interceptions and 15 pass breakups. Davis played in the Maryland Crab Bowl all-star game. He also lettered two years in track and field.

38 DESI DAVIS

5-10 ➤ 165 ➤ So./Fr. Eligible

Cornerback ➤ Ardmore, Pa.

Desi Davis impressed the coaching staff during the team's spring walk-on tryout and earned a spot on the roster entering the 2014 season. Davis played wide receiver in spring practice but is scheduled to shift to the defensive backfield this fall to add depth to the unit. He is among 15 returning Nittany Lions from Eastern Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Davis attended classes on the University Park campus, but did not compete in football. He made the squad during walk-on tryouts during the 2014 spring semester.

➤ High School

Davis was a three-year letterman for head coach Matthew Barr at Harriton High School. Selected a team captain, he was a dual-threat as a quick wide receiver and running back. Davis carried the ball 30 times during his senior season for 208 yards (6.9 avg.) and scored one touchdown on the ground. He also made 16 catches for 200 yards (12.5) and a pair of scores for the Rams. He received the Perseverance Award after his senior season. Davis also lettered three times in track and field. He was a New Balance Indoor Nationals qualifier during the indoor season and advanced to the district meet as a junior and senior. He ranks third in school history in the 100 meters and second in the 400 meters.

➤ Personal

Full name is Desmond Larnell Davis Jr. He is the son of Desmond Sr. and Monique Davis. He has two brothers, Ashton and Deion, and two sisters, Ashley and Aja. 39 JESSE DELLA VALLE

6-1 ➤ 203 ➤ Gr./Sr. Eligible

Safety > Pittsburgh, Pa.

Fifth-year senior Jesse Della Valle should play an important role this fall in the secondary and on special teams. The hard-working and determined safety will be part of an experienced secondary rotation that includes three returning starters and likely will vie with classmate Ryan Keiser for the majority of the snaps at free safety. His efforts during the winter strength and conditioning program helped him add more than 10 pounds to his frame since the start of the 2013 season. The talented, athletic and instinctive Della Valle has played in every contest the past two seasons on defense and special teams. Last season, his second as the team's primary punt returner, he ranked fourth in the Big Ten with an 8.7-yard average on his 18 returns, improving his average by nearly one yard per return from 2012. The former Shaler Area High School standout earned his first two career starts in the secondary last year and made 21 tackles (13 solo), with one fumble recovery and one pass breakup. One of the squad's top students, Della Valle owned a 3.38 cumulative grade-point average after the spring semester and is a potential CoSIDA Academic All-America candidate. Della Valle graduated with a degree in advertising and public relations in May and was an intern with the State College Spikes minor league baseball team in the summer of 2013. A Dean's List honoree, he is among 11 returning Nittany Lions who hail from Western Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Senior Season

Playing in every game for the second consecutive season, Della Valle continued in his role as the Nittany Lions' primary punt returner. He was fourth in the Big Ten and 28th nationally in punt return average at 8.7 yards per return, improving his average by nearly one yard per return from 2012. Della Valle earned his first two career starts at safety and made 21 tackles (13 solo), with one fumble recovery and one pass breakup. He had three punt returns for 44 yards in the season-opening win over Syracuse, including a career-long 31-yard return in the third quarter to set up Penn State's second touchdown. He followed with 21 return yards on two punts against Eastern Michigan. Della Valle continued his strong play with one punt return for 15 yards and three tackles against UCF. He returned one punt and made a pair of tackles in the Big Ten-opener at Indiana. Della Valle had three punt returns for 26 yards, including a 12-yard return on his first opportunity in the pulsating four-overtime win over Michigan. Della Valle made his first career start at No. 4 Ohio State and recorded a career-high nine tackles (four solo), which was tied for second on the team. He also started in the victory over Illinois, tallying five tackles (four solo) and one pass breakup. Della Valle returned three punts for 27 yards against Nebraska in the home-finale, including a long of 25 yards to set up the Nittany Lions' first touchdown. He also made two solo tackles and recovered a fumble for a touchback on third-and-goal from the Penn State three-yard line against the Huskers for his first career fumble recovery. Della Valle had two punt returns and the recovery of an onside kick attempt by No. 14 Wisconsin with 5:37 left in the fourth quarter to help seal the big 31-24 win in Madison. Della Valle garnered his second Academic All-Big Ten honor, posting a 3.56 grade-point average during the fall semester for Dean's List recognition. He was an intern with the State College Spikes minor league baseball team during the summer prior to the 2013 season.

➤ 2012 ➤ Junior Season

Della Valle played in all 12 games on defense and special teams, playing a prominent role in the return game. He led the team and was No. 3 in the Big Ten with a 7.6-yard average on 15 punt returns, including a team season-long 29-yard return in the win over Temple. He also had six kickoff returns for a team-best 25.2-yard average, including a 46-yard return to open the second half in the win at lowa. Della Valle totaled seven tackles on the season. He made his first two career tackles against Ohio in the season-opener and he had one stop at Illinois. He had two kickoff returns for 39 yards in the 34-9 win at Purdue. He returned two kickoffs for 46 yards at Nebraska and had a 16-yard punt return into Northwestern territory to set up a field goal. Della Valle made two tackles and returned two punts 26 yards in the victory over Indiana. He recorded two tackles in the thrilling 24-21 Senior Day overtime win over Wisconsin. He earned Academic All-Big Ten honors for the first time.

➤ 2011 ➤ Sophomore Season

Della Valle made his Nittany Lion debut in the win over Indiana State.

➤ 2010 ➤ Freshman Season

Redshirt season.

➤ High School

Della Valle was a three-year letterman for coach Neil Gordon at Shaler Area High School. He was selected second-team Class AAAA all-state. He also was named to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Fabulous 22 and the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review Terrific 25. He played in the East-West All-Star game and grabbed two interceptions, returning one 75 yards for a touchdown. He finished his senior year with 1,600 all-purpose yards, with 718 rushing yards, 726 receiving yards and 156 return yards, with 28 touchdowns. On defense, Della Valle recorded 56 tackles, seven sacks and five interceptions. He also was a four-year starter on the basketball team.

➤ Personal

Full name is Jesse Philip Della Valle. He is the son of Phil and Cindy Della Valle and has an older brother, Nick, and a younger sister, Gina. 65 MILES DIEFFENBACH

6-3 ➤ 303 ➤ Gr./Sr. Eligible

Guard ➤ Pittsburgh, Pa.

Miles Dieffenbach enters 2014 as the most experienced member of the Nittany Lion offensive line and as an established team leader. A veteran with 23 career starts, second-most among 2014 returnees, Dieffenbach was instrumental in helping the Penn State offense rush for more than 2,000 yards and throw for more than 3,000 yards last year. Dieffenbach and junior tackle Donovan Smith will provide leadership for an offensive line unit that lost three starters and two key reserves from last year. Among the vocal and passionate leaders of the 2014 squad, Dieffenbach was injured during spring practice but is expected to be available during the season. The talented, tough and intense player has been a fixture at the left guard position since he grabbed the starting spot prior to the 2012 season-opener. Dieffenbach was instrumental in Penn State rushing for 250 yards or better four times last season. The hard-working and dedicated Dieffenbach was key in helping Penn State gain at least 350 yards in every game, scoring at least 23 points nine times. He helped Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year Christian Hackenberg throw for 2,955 yards and 20 touchdowns, breaking 12 school freshman and all-time game and season passing records, and Zach Zwinak and Bill Belton combine to rush for 1,792 yards in 2013. Dieffenbach and the O-Line boosted Belton to the team's first 200-yard rushing effort since 2002 against Illinois (201 yards) and paved the way for 250 rushing yards and 240 passing yards in the win over the Illini. Recognized as one of the squad's funniest members, he also is a state champion table tennis player. The former Fox Chapel High School All-American was co-recipient of the team's Frank Patrick Total Commitment Award in 2013. Dieffenbach graduated with a degree in advertising/public relations in May with a cumulative 3.27 grade-point average. He is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree. His father, George, compiled more than 500 combined career victories as head coach of the Pitt tennis teams, coaching the women's team for 31 years. Dieffenbach is among 10 returning Nittany Lions from metropolitan Pittsburgh.

➤ 2013 ➤ Senior Season

Dieffenbach started all 12 games at left guard, giving him 23 career starts. He was instrumental in Penn State rushing for 250 yards or better four times during the season. He helped the Lions gain at least 350 yards in every game, scoring at least 23 points nine times. Dieffenbach helped Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year Christian Hackenberg throw for 2,955 yards and 20 touchdowns, breaking 12 school freshman and all-time game and season passing records, and Zach Zwinak and Bill Belton combine to rush for 1,792 yards. Dieffenbach helped the Lions gain 574 yards of total offense against Eastern Michigan, their most since 2008 against Coastal Carolina (594 yards). He helped pave the way for a 287-yard rushing effort against Kent State, which was Penn State's most rushing yards in a game, at the time, since gaining 338 yards at Illinois in 2009. Dieffenbach was instrumental in protecting Hackenberg at Indiana, allowing him to complete 30 passes for 340 yards and three touchdowns. He helped clear the way for 390 yards of total offense and five touchdowns in the four-overtime win over Michigan, including the first two rushing touchdowns allowed all season by the Wolverines. Dieffenbach and the O-Line boosted Bill Belton to the team's first 200-yard rushing effort since 2002 against Illinois (201 yards) and paved the way for 250 rushing yards and 240 passing yards in the win over the Illini. He helped open running lanes for Zach Zwinak's 150 yards rushing at Minnesota and his 149 yards and three rushing touchdowns in the win over Purdue.

Dieffenbach and the O-Line led the way for a season-high 289 rushing yards and 501 total yards, a season-high against a Big Ten foe, in the 45-21 win over the Boilermakers. He blocked for Zwinak's 149-yard rushing effort against Nebraska and helped open running lanes for Zwinak's 115 yards in the big win at No. 14 Wisconsin, marking the only 100-yard rusher allowed by the Badgers during the season. Dieffenbach and the O-Line also protected Hackenberg, who completed 21-of-30 passes for 339 yards — including three completions of 50 yards or longer — and four touchdowns with no interceptions in the big win over the Badgers. Penn State delivered the four longest plays from scrimmage at Wisconsin all season — completions of 68, 52 and 59 yards and Zwinak's 61-yard run. Dieffenbach was named to the Academic All-Big Ten team for the second time. He was selected co-recipient of the team's Frank Patrick Total Commitment Award at the end of spring practice.

➤ 2012 ➤ Junior Season

Dieffenbach solidified a starting assignment at left guard in training camp and started 11 games. He earned his first career start in the season-opener against Ohio, and appeared in all 12 contests. He was instrumental in helping the Nittany Lions lead the Big Ten in total offense (437.0 ypg) in conference games and ranking second in scoring offense (32.6 ppg) and second in pass offense (283.1 ypg) against Big Ten foes. Dieffenbach helped Penn State gain more than 500 yards of total offense three times in conference play, topped by 546 yards against Indiana, its highest total against a Big Ten foe since gaining 557 yards against Michigan State in 2008. He played a critical role in helping pave the way for 1,000-yard rusher Zach Zwinak and protecting quarterback Matt McGloin during his record-setting 2012 campaign. Dieffenbach was named to the Academic All-Big Ten team for the first time.

➤ 2011 ➤ Sophomore Season

Dieffenbach's hard work and improvement did not result in any playing time, with four senior starters on the offensive line.

➤ 2010 ➤ Freshman Season

Redshirt season

> High School

Dieffenbach was a four-year starter under coach Bryan Deal at Fox Chapel Area High School. He was rated the nation's No. 1 prep center by ESPNU, No. 3 by Scout.com and No. 4 by Rivals.com. He was an Under Armour All-American and first-team all-state selection. He was named first-team All-WPIAL and all-conference. Dieffenbach did not allow a sack his junior or senior years, and tallied 45 tackles and five sacks. He was named to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Fab 22 and was on the winning squad in the 2010 Under Armour All-America game.

➤ Personal

Full name is George Miles Dieffenbach. He is the son of George and Emma Dieffenbach. He has an older sister, Sarah, who played tennis at the University of Pittsburgh, where their father compiled more than 500 combined career victories as head coach of the Pitt men's and women's tennis teams, coaching the women's team from 1981-2012. His grandparents, Fred and Shirley Dieffenbach, are Penn State graduates, as well as an aunt and a great aunt. Dieffenbach enjoys fishing during his free time. Dieffenbach graduated with a degree in advertising/public relations in May 2014 and owned a 3.27 cumulative grade-point average through the 2014 spring semester. Born July 9, 1991 in Pittsburgh, Pa.

53 DEREK DOWREY

6-3 ➤ 323 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Guard > Winchester, Va.

After spending his initial two seasons on the defensive line, Derek Dowrey shifted to the offensive line during spring drills to increase the talent and depth at the guard position. The redshirt sophomore made a seamless transition into his new role and is poised to play a big part for the offensive line this fall. He made good progress throughout spring practice and started for the victorious Blue team in the spring game. The former John Handley High School all-state honoree added nearly 20 pounds of muscle during the off-season strength and conditioning program and has emerged as one of the squad's strongest players in the weight room and on the field. Dowrey squatted a team-high 500 pounds 10 times during Max-out week in March just before spring practice commenced. The talented and relentless Dowrey saw action in eight games during the 2013 season, primarily on short-yardage and goal line situations. A physical player with a great motor, he is among five Nittany Lions from Virginia.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

Dowrey saw action in eight games during his first season on the field. Specializing in short-yardage and goal line situations, Dowrey helped bolster the middle of the defensive line. He made one tackle against Indiana. Dowrey was a member of the unit that blocked Michigan's field goal attempt in the first overtime of Penn State's eventual four-overtime win.

➤ 2012 ➤ Freshman Season

Redshirt season. During the 2013 Blue-White game, Dowrey recorded four solo stops and a pair of sacks to help the defense win the intrasquad contest.

➤ High School

Dowrey was a first-team all-state selection during his junior and senior seasons at John Handley High School. Playing for coach Tony Rayburn, Dowrey garnered all-district honors during each of his four years, with accolades on the offensive and defensive lines his final three seasons. He was selected the Northern Virginia Daily Male Athlete-of-the-Year and Defensive Player-of-the-Year. During his senior season, Dowrey recorded 107 tackles and 13 sacks and ran for 225 yards and three touchdowns. As a junior, he recorded 145 tackles, 10.5 sacks, two interceptions and a touchdown. Dowrey earned the first of his three all-region selections as a sophomore, when he tallied 128 tackles and seven sacks. He helped Handley to the district crown all four years, and was instrumental in helping the Judges to a pair of region championships. He was a two-time team captain and a Handley High School Scholar-Athlete Award recipient all four years. Dowrey also lettered in basketball and track and field.

➤ Personal

Full name is Derek Wayne Dowrey Jr. He is the son of Derek and Glendora Dowrey, and has one younger brother, Jordan. His father is an assistant football and track and field coach at Handley High School and played football and ran track at Bridgewater (Va.) College. Dowrey enjoys spending time with friends and playing video games. He plans to major in broadcast journalism and is interested in a career in the media or as a football or strength coach. Born July 3, 1993 in Winchester, Va.

ROBINSON PENN STATE'S 98TH FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICAN; URSCHEL THIRD-TEAM

Wide receiver Allen Robinson was selected a 2013 first-team All-American by Sporting News, CBSSports.com and Phil Steele's College Football to become Penn State's 98th first-team All-American.

Senior guard John Urschel was selected an Associated Press third-team All-American, having earned first-team All-Big Ten accolades twice.

The 2012 and 2013 Big Ten Richter-Howard Receiver-of-the-Year, Robinson garnered a total of seven All-America honors during his junior season. He also was a second-team All-America honoree by the FWAA, Sl.com and Athlon Sports and a third-team honoree by the Associated Press.

Robinson led the Big Ten with Penn State season records in receptions (97) and receiving yardage (1,432) for the second consecutive year. Robinson ranked No. 3 nationally in receiving yardage (119.3 ypg) and No. 8 in receptions (8.1 avg.). He had six touchdown catches in 2013 (17 career) and a long catch of 65 yards, which resulted in a touchdown at Ohio State.

Robinson became the 84th Penn State football student-athlete to gain first-team All-America recognition, a total of 98 times, dating to W.T. (Mother) Dunn's selection to the Walter Camp All-America squad in 1906.

Penn State has had 12 first-team All-Americans since 2005. A semifinalist for the 2013 Biletnikoff Award, Robinson was the Nittany Lions' 24th first-team All-American since starting Big Ten Conference competition in 1993 (28 total selections).

97 SAM FICKEN

Placekicker ➤ Valparaiso, Ind.

Sam Ficken led the Nittany Lions in scoring for the second-straight season and wrote his name into the record books during the 2013 season, but the senior enters his final campaign stronger and more confident than ever. The dedicated and determined Ficken has a strong and accurate leg and should be an All-Big Ten candidate this fall. One of the squad's leaders on and off the field, he earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition in 2013. After connecting on his final 10 field goal attempts of the 2012 season, Ficken was true on his first five attempts last year to boost his consecutive made streak to 15, breaking Craig Fayak's school record of 13 straight field goals in 1992. The streak ended when he just missed a 57-yarder against UCF at the end of the first half. The former Valparaiso High School all-state player delivered the longest field goal by a Penn State player in home game history when he knocked in a 54-yard attempt in the rain against Kent State. That impressive field goal was tied for the fourth-longest in Penn State history and was the team's longest trey since 1979 when Herb Menhardt hit a game-winning 54-yarder at North Carolina State. Ficken's 54-yard effort trails only a trio of 55-yard field goals by All-American Chris Bahr in 1975. His 54-yard effort was the longest in the Big Ten and ranked tied for eighth nationally last season. Ficken led the team with 86 points last year, connecting on 15-of-23 field goals and 41-of-42 extra points. He also handled the kickoff duties, with 18 touchbacks among his 67 kicks and a 60.9 average. Entering the 2014 campaign, Ficken is 11th in school career field goals made (30) and just 20 points shy of writing his name among the top 15 scorers in school history. He has ranked among the top scorers in the Big Ten in each of the last two seasons and he continues to refine his craft, including video work with former Nittany Lion and current Chicago Bears All-Pro kicker Robby Gould. Ficken is a regular at the Nittany Lions' community service events and is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree. The Dean's List student owned a 3.59 cumulative grade-point average in finance entering the summer and is a potential Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America® candidate. He is on schedule to graduate in December.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

A strong junior campaign that included a 54-yard field goal and a school record for consecutive field goal attempts made boosted Ficken to honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition. He broke the Penn State record for consecutive field goals made, with 15 straight converted attempts, a streak that started on Oct. 27, 2012 against Ohio State and ended on Sept. 14, 2013 against UCF, when his 57-yard attempt was just short. Ficken's 54-yard conversion in the rain in the Kent State game marked the longest field goal by a Penn State player in home game history. It was the longest Penn State field goal in 34 years and tied for fourth-longest in school history. Ficken led the team in scoring for the second consecutive year, with 86 points, connecting on 15-of-23 field goals and 41-of-42 extra points. He also handled the kickoff duties, with 18 touchbacks among his 67 kicks and a 60.9 average. Ficken ranked fourth in the Big Ten in field goals made per game (1.25) and was tied for third in the conference with 15 successful field goals. His 54-yarder against Kent State was the longest field goal in the Big Ten and tied for eighth in the NCAA during the season. For the second straight year he ranked among the conference scoring leaders, finishing eighth in scoring (7.2 ppg) - a mark that was fifth among Big Ten kickers. After a three-field goal effort in the season-opening win over Syracuse at MetLife Stadium, Ficken earned Big Ten Special Teams Player-of-the-Week for the second time in his career. He connected on all three field goal attempts and both extra points in the win over the Orange, including a then-career-long field goal of 46 yards in the fourth quarter. He converted his 14th consecutive field goal (39 yards) late in the second quarter against Eastern Michigan, breaking the Penn State record he previously shared with Craig Fayak from the 1992 season. Ficken extended his school record to 15 straight by booting a then-career-long 47-yard field goal in the second quarter against UCF, before the streak ended when a 57-yard attempt was just short near the end of the first half. The next week against Kent State, he booted a career-long 54-yard field goal in the fourth quarter in the rain during the shutout win. The 54-yarder was Penn State's longest since 1979, when Herb Menhardt's 54-yarder at North Carolina State gave the Lions a 9-7 win, and tied for the fourth-longest in program history. Ficken's 54-yard effort trailed only a trio of 55-yard field goals by All-American Chris Bahr in 1975. He made a 30-yard field goal and three extra points at Indiana, an effort that included four touchbacks on five kickoff attempts. In the back and forth four-overtime contest against No. 18 Michigan, Ficken connected on field goals of 45, 43 and 36 yards, going 3-for-5 overall, and made all four extra point attempts. His first two field goals came in regulation, with the 43-yard effort drawing Penn State within 34-27 with 6:35 left in the fourth period. He converted both extra point attempts at No. 4 Ohio State, but did not have any field goal attempts, which snapped a 13-game streak with at least one made field goal. In the win over Illinois, Ficken kicked the game-tying field goal from 35 yards out with 41 seconds left, while also converting all three of his extra point opportunities. He was successful on a 27-yard field goal and converted his lone extra point opportunity at Minnesota and a 29-yard field goal and six converted extra points highlighted the win over Purdue. Ficken connected on two extra points in the homefinale with Nebraska. In a second consecutive classic season-ending victory, Ficken converted a 28-yard field goal and all four extra points to help the Lions to a huge 31-24 win at No. 14 Wisconsin. He earned Academic All-Big Ten honors for the second time.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first full season as the Nittany Lions' placekicker, Ficken ended the year with his first collegiate game-winning kick, a 37-yard field goal for a thrilling 24-21 Senior Day overtime win over Wisconsin. He finished the season by connecting on his last 10 field goal attempts, including a 3-of-3 effort against the Badgers to earn Big Ten Special Teams Player-of-the-Week accolades for the first time in his career. Ficken led the Nittany Lions in scoring with 81 points, hitting 14-of-21 field goals and going 39-of-41 on PAT attempts. He was ranked No. 2 in the Big Ten in kick scoring (8.1 ppg) and No. 3 in field goals (1.50 avg.) in conference games. He made his final 31 PAT attempts. He handled all of the kickoff duties, with 68 kickoffs for a 61.9-yard average and 27 touchbacks. Ficken connected on a 21-yard field goal and was 4-of-4 on PAT attempts in the 39-28 comeback win over No. 24 Northwestern and made a 34-yard field goal and was 5-of-5 on PAT attempts in the 38-14 win at lowa. He made his only field goal attempt, 27 yards, and was 2-of-2 on PAT attempts against Ohio State and made 27- and 24-yard field goals and was 4-of-4 on PAT attempts in the 34-9 victory at Purdue. Ficken delivered a strong game at No. 18 Nebraska, going 3-of-3 on field goal attempts (27, 38, 35 yards) in windy conditions, which included getting debris blown in his eye during pre-game warm-ups. Ficken hit three field goals in a game for the first time in his career against the Huskers, his 38-yarder was a season-long and five of his six kickoffs were touchbacks. Ficken attained Dean's List recognition and was an Academic All-Big Ten selection.

➤ 2011 ➤ Freshman Season

Ficken made his Nittany Lion debut in the season-opener with Indiana State, connecting on his one PAT attempt and kicking off once. He missed his first career field goal attempt, from 49 yards, at Temple. Ficken made his first career field goal, from 43 yards, on his second career attempt and kicked off twice in the win over Eastern Michigan. He did not see any action in Big Ten play. Ficken was among four true freshmen who saw action in 2011.

➤ High School

Ficken was named first-team Associated Press Class 5A all-state for coach Mark Hoffman at Valparaiso High School. He also was a member of the all-area team. A former soccer player, he made 13 field goals as a senior, including a school-record 52-yard kick. He also recorded 45 touchbacks on kickoffs during his senior season.

BRIAN

6-3 ➤ 291 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Guard ➤ Pasadena, Md

One of the most significant position changes during the off-season was shifting Brian Gaia from defensive tackle to guard, giving the Nittany Lions more talent and depth in the interior of the offensive line. Gaia's dedicated efforts have added more than 10 pounds since last season in the strength and conditioning program. A redshirt sophomore, he stepped into his new role with ease during the spring practice period. The coaching staff recognized Gaia's efforts during spring ball by selecting him as the recipient of the Red Worrell Award, presented to the offense's most improved player. The talented and tough Gaia is on track to play a significant role on the offensive line this fall and started for the victorious Blue squad in the spring game. Gaia saw action in all 12 games last year at defensive tackle and on special teams, recording five tackles. Gaia entered the summer with a 3.00 grade-point average and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors last year. He is among seven returning Nittany Lions from Maryland.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Gaia saw action in all 12 games at defensive tackle and on special teams. He played a significant role in adding depth to the middle of the defensive line on shortyardage situations. Gaia made five tackles, including four assisted stops in the win over Eastern Michigan. Gaia also assisted on a stop in the dramatic quadruple-overtime victory over No. 18 Michigan. He was named to the Academic All-Big Ten team.

➤ 2012 ➤ Freshman Season

14 KASEY GAINES

5-10 ➤ 161 ➤ So./Fr. Eligible

Cornerback > Lawrenceville, Ga.

The Nittany Lion coaches have increased their recruiting presence in the Southeast and have found success, with prep standouts from Alabama, Florida and Georgia joining the Penn State football family the past two years. Entering his redshirt freshman season, cornerback Kasey Gaines is among three players from Georgia on the roster, being joined by Atlanta freshman Grant Haley and junior college transfer Tarow Barney, who played at Bainbridge High School. Gaines was a standout at Grayson High School in suburban Atlanta, helping the Rams win the 2011 GHSA 6A state title. He will be looking to earn time in the secondary rotation as well as on special teams this fall.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Redshirt season.

➤ High School

Gaines was a four-year letterman at defensive back for head coach Mickey Conn at Grayson High School. He was selected as a first-team all-county performer as a senior, helping the Rams to the second round of the GHSA 6A playoffs. Gaines was instrumental in Grayson capturing the 2011 GHSA 6A State Championship as a junior, earning first-team all-state and all-county honors and being named the Metro Defensive Player-of-the-Year. On a team that selected game captains, Gaines was selected on multiple occasions. A school Scholar-Athlete, he also was invited to play in the Gwinnett All-Star game following his senior season.

74 EVAN GALIMBERTI

6-4 ➤ 268 ➤ So./Fr. Eligible

Guard ➤ State College, Pa.

Evan Galimberti moved to State College as a youngster and ever since his love of football took hold, his dream has been to run through the south tunnel of Beaver Stadium as a member of the Nittany Lions. His dream was fulfilled last fall, but this season, Galimberti is primed to try and make an impact on the offensive line. He turned down Holy Cross, Penn, Princeton and other schools for the opportunity to be a walk-on at Penn State. He enters preseason camp as one of the top candidates at right guard, where he likely will battle Brian Gaia for the majority of the first-team snaps. A redshirt freshman, Galimberti is one of the squad's premier students, bringing a 3.78 cumulative grade-point average into the summer, with designs on enrolling in the College of Engineering. He joins Matthew Baney and Jack Haffner as returning Nittany Lions who played at State College Area High School. Galimberti is among 17 returning Nittany Lions from Central Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Redshirt season.

➤ High School

Galimberti lettered twice as a two-way lineman at State College Area High School for head coach Al Wolski and was a stalwart on the offensive line for the Little Lions. He was selected a team captain during his senior season and helped the team to a 9-4 overall mark. The Little Lions ran for more than 180 yards in 10 games, including five 200-plus yardage games and a season-high 321 yards behind Galimberti and the offensive line. As a junior in 2011, he helped Little Lion and Nittany Lion teammate Jack Haffner rush for more than 2,000 yards. Galimberti was selected to play in the 2013 Big 33 All-Star Classic. He also lettered for the indoor track and field team. Galimberti was named to the High Honor Roll for every marking period during his prep career and was a SCASD Faculty Scholar.

82 GREGG GARRITY

5-9 ➤ 153 ➤ So./So. Eligible

Wide Receiver > Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Garrity family has been a part of Penn State football since the 1950s, when Gregg's grandfather, Jim, laced up his cleats for the Nittany Lions. Gregg's father, Gregg Sr., was a wide receiver for the Blue and White, lettering from 1980-82. He is famous for making "The Catch" in the end zone that helped the Nittany Lions clinch their first national title in the 1983 Sugar Bowl with a win over No. 1 Georgia. Regarded as one of the iconic plays in Penn State football history, the feat landed the elder Garrity on the cover of Sports Illustrated. The third-generation Garrity brings a strong work-ethic to the practice field and weight room. A crisp route-runner, the North Allegheny High School all-state selection played an instrumental role on the scout team during his first campaign on campus and played in three games. With continued progress in the weight room and on the field, the talented and quick Garrity enters the season looking to add depth to the receiving corps and crack the rotation. He brought a 3.54 grade-point average into the summer and is a potential Academic All-Big Ten candidate. Garrity is among 11 returning Nittany Lions from Western Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Garrity played in three games during his first season on campus. He played against Eastern Michigan, Purdue and Nebraska and had one punt return for nine yards against the Boilermakers. Garrity was among 12 true freshmen who saw action during the season.

> High School

Garrity earned two letters playing for head coach Art Walker at North Allegheny High School. He attained first-team all-state honors after helping the Tigers to the 2012 PIAA Class AAAA Championship, making 68 receptions for more than 1,200 yards and 18 touchdowns. He grabbed 28 passes for 600 yards and five touchdowns as a junior. Garrity also helped North Allegheny capture a pair of WPIAL titles. He was selected to play in the East-West All-Star game.

Running Back ➤ Dillsburg, Pa.

Growing up 90 miles from State College in York County, Adam Geiger joins a long line of Penn State football talent from south central Pennsylvania. Geiger was a strong contributor on the scout team during his true freshman season. The former Trinity High School standout saw action in three games on special teams, including the thrilling four-overtime win against Michigan. With continued progress in the weight room and on the practice field, Geiger will add depth to the running back corps and on special teams and again play a vital role for the Nittany Lion scout team. Geiger is among 17 returning Nittany Lions from Central Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Geiger saw action in three games on special teams as a true freshman. He was among 12 true freshmen to make their debut. Geiger played in the dramatic, 43-40 quadruple-overtime win against Michigan, in addition to the road games against Ohio State and Minnesota.

➤ High School

Geiger lettered all four seasons for head coach Bill Ragni at Trinity High School, rushing for more than 1,000 yards during each of his final three seasons. He was a three-time first-team All-Mid-Penn Conference selection at running back and was elected team captain during his final two seasons with the Shamrocks. Geiger amassed 1,510 yards rushing and added 222 yards receiving as a senior, scoring 15 rushing touchdowns and one receiving tally. His junior season included 1,112 yards on the ground and his 12 receptions netted 184 yards. Geiger scored 20 rushing touchdowns, three receiving touchdowns and returned a kick for a touchdown. As a sophomore, he totaled 1,419 rushing yards and found the end zone 20 times, catching 21 passes for 316 yards. He also lettered in wrestling, finishing third at the 2013 PIAA State Championships, and in track and field.

6 MALIK GOLDEN

6-1 ➤ 198 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Safety ➤ Hartford, Conn.

Malik Golden ended the 2013 campaign with the best game of his young career and he has been preparing during the off-season to have a greater impact in the secondary rotation. The Hartford, Conn., product made significant strides last season after moving from wide receiver to safety following a redshirt season in 2012. Golden saw action in all 12 games last year and played an important role on several special teams units. The former Cheshire Academy standout made eight tackles last year, including a season-high three in the huge season-ending victory at No. 14 Wisconsin. With continued progress, the athletic and hard-hitting Golden is poised to again be a central figure on special teams and challenge for more playing time in the defensive backfield.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Golden made the move to the defensive side of the ball after playing wide receiver as a redshirt during the 2012 campaign. He earned playing time in all 12 games on special teams and at safety, recording eight tackles and a pass breakup. Golden opened the season with a tackle in the win over Syracuse in MetLife Stadium and followed with a solo stop against Eastern Michigan. Golden also recorded tackles against Kent State, Ohio State and Purdue. He capped off the season with arguably his best outing with a season-high three tackles, all of which came late in the third quarter and the fourth quarter, and a pass breakup in the big 31-24 win at No. 14 Wisconsin.

➤ 2012 ➤ Freshman Season

Playing as a wide receiver, Golden took a redshirt season.

➤ High School

Golden was a two-time All-New England and two-time All-Colonial League selection for coach Dan O'Dea at Cheshire Academy. Elected a team captain during his senior season, he played defensive back and wide receiver. Golden compiled more than 1,400 all-purpose yards and grabbed seven interceptions as a senior, helping the squad to the Colonial League championship and an undefeated record. Golden also posted more than 1,500 all-purpose yards as a junior. He helped Cheshire Academy win the New England Preparatory School Athletic Council state championship as a junior and senior. Golden was ranked the No. 2 overall prospect in Connecticut, according to Rivals.com. He also lettered in basketball and track, helping break the school record as a member of the 4x100 relay team.

ROBINSON, HACKENBERG HONORED BY BIG TEN CONFERENCE

The Big Ten coaches and media recognized wide receiver Allen Robinson and quarterback Christian Hackenberg with individual accolades after their impressive 2013 campaigns.

Robinson was selected the Richter-Howard Receiver-of-the-Year for the second consecutive season and Hackenberg was named the Thompson-Randel El Freshman-of-the-Year, giving Penn State the last two freshman honorees.

Robinson was the first player since at least 1985 to lead the Big Ten in receptions and receiving yardage in consecutive seasons. His combined 174 receptions and 2,445 receiving yards the past two years both rank No. 3 in Big Ten history for consecutive seasons.

Robinson earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and media the past two seasons. In Penn State's eight Big Ten games in 2013, Robinson made 71 catches (8.9 avg.) for 984 yards (123.0 ypg), improving on his overall season averages.

Hackenberg was selected Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week five times during the 2013 season, the second-highest total for a player since the award began in 2010. Penn State defensive end Deion Barnes was the conference's 2012 Freshman-of-the-Year. They join tailback Curtis Enis (1995) as Nittany Lions to be selected the Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year.

For the season, Hackenberg was 231-of-392 for 2,955 yards, with 20 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He ranked No. 2 in the Big Ten in completions, his 20 touchdown passes were two off the Big Ten lead, and he was 0.5 yards from ranking No. 2 in passing (246.2 ypg). He had 14 completions of 40 yards or longer last season, which was tied for eighth nationally. Hackenberg and Florida State's Jameis Winston were the nation's only freshmen with at least 14 completions of 40 yards or longer.

14 CHRISTIAN HACKENBERG

6-4 ➤ 234 ➤ So./So. Eligible

Quarterback > Palmyra, Va.

From the day he arrived on the Penn State campus in June 2013, Christian Hackenberg was on a fast track transition into life as a Division I student-athlete. He started classes in late June, began working out with his new teammates in July, ran onto the practice field to begin training camp in early August and led the Nittany Lion offense onto the field at the season-opener in MetLife Stadium in late August, all in a span of just over two months. Hackenberg took the transition in stride and manufactured one of the greatest seasons by a Nittany Lion signal-caller in the 127 years of the program. With a record-breaking first season under his belt, Hackenberg added 10 pounds of muscle to his frame during the off-season strength and conditioning program. The Virginia product is firmly in a leadership position and has rapidly developed tremendous respect in the locker room. Among the team's hardest workers in practice and the weight room, Hackenberg is routinely among the first players on the practice field warming up. The vastly talented and instinctive Hackenberg was named the nation's No. 8 overall quarterback by Lindy's and the Big Ten's best passing quarterback by Sporting News. The competitive sophomore also was selected second-team preseason All-Big Ten by Athlon Sports and Lindy's. The former Fork Union Military Academy All-American became just the second true freshman quarterback to start a Penn State season-opener since 1911 and started all 12 games. Hackenberg was selected the 2013 Thompson-Randle El Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year, becoming the second-straight Nittany Lion to win the award, with defensive end Deion Barnes doing so in 2012. Hackenberg's tremendous season was recognized nationally, as he garnered firstteam True Freshman All-America accolades from 247Sports.com. He was selected a second-team Freshman All-American by Athlon Sports, Phil Steele's College Football and CollegeFootballNews. com, with Heisman Trophy-winner Jameis Winston claiming the first-team nod. Hackenberg was selected to the BTN.com and ESPN.com Big Ten All-Freshman teams, earning BTN.com's Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year award and being named the offensive captain of ESPN.com's conference All-Freshman team. The poised and mature Hackenberg earned Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week five times during the season, the second-highest total since the honor began in 2010. He also garnered the Athlon Sports National Freshman-of-the-Week twice, following wins over ranked Michigan and Wisconsin squads. For the season, he was 231-of-392 for 2,955 yards, with 20 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. Possessing a strong and accurate arm, he had a long completion of 68 yards to Adam Breneman, good for a touchdown in the big win at No. 14 Wisconsin. Hackenberg also ran for four touchdowns and accumulated 2,887 yards of total offense, an average of 240.6 ypg. He broke one Penn State overall passing record and 12 school freshman passing records, including the freshman marks for game and season passing completions, attempts, yards and touchdown passes. He compiled four 300-yard passing games to tie Matt McGloin for the school season record and tie Kerry Collins for second place on the career list, just two behind McGloin's career mark of six. Hackenberg completed 14 passes of 40 yards or longer, which was tied for the most nationally by a freshman and eighth overall (with Winston). Hackenberg brought a 3.14 grade-point average into the summer and is a probable Academic All-Big Ten candidate this year. Born in Northeastern Pennsylvania, Hackenberg is among five Nittany Lions from Virginia.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Hackenberg enrolled in the University in late June and the true freshman produced one of the most impressive seasons of any Nittany Lion signal-caller during the program's 127-year history. Selected the 2013 Thompson-Randle El Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year, he broke one Penn State overall passing record and 12 school freshman passing records, including the rookie marks for game and season passing completions, attempts, yards and touchdown passes. For the season, he was 231of-392 for 2,955 yards, with 20 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He had a long completion of 68 yards to Adam Breneman, good for a touchdown in the big win at No. 14 Wisconsin. Hackenberg also ran for four touchdowns and accumulated 2,887 yards of total offense, an average of 240.6 ypg. Hackenberg's tremendous season was recognized nationally, as he garnered first-team True Freshman All-America accolades from 247Sports.com. He was selected a second-team Freshman All-American by Athlon Sports, Phil Steele's College Football and CollegeFootballNews.com, with Heisman Trophy-winner Jameis Winston claiming the first-team nod. Hackenberg earned Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week five times during the season, the second-highest total since the honor began in 2010. He also was named the Athlon Sports National Freshman-of-the-Week twice, following the wins over Michigan and at Wisconsin. Hackenberg finished third overall on the Penn State season passing yardage chart (2,955) and fourth on the season completions list (231). He compiled four 300-yard passing games to tie Matt McGloin for the school season record and tie Kerry Collins for second place on the career list, just two behind McGloin's career mark of six. He completed 14 passes of 40 yards or longer, which was tied for the most by a freshman and eighth overall nationally (with Winston). He ranked second in the Big Ten in completions (231), third in passing yards (246.2 ypg), fourth in total offense (240.6) and seventh in touchdown passes (20). Hackenberg garnered the first of his five Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week accolades after completing 22-of-31 passes for 278 yards, with two touchdowns, in the season-opening win over Syracuse. He threw two 50-yardplus touchdowns, including his first career touchdown pass to Allen Robinson (51 yards) in the third quarter. He also fired a 54-yard scoring strike to Geno Lewis in the fourth quarter in the 23-17 win over the Orange. Hackenberg threw for 311 yards in the win over Eastern Michigan to break Zack Mills' Penn State freshman game passing yardage record (280; vs. both Ohio State and Southern Mississippi in 2001). He was 23-of-33, with one touchdown and one interception, tossing a 45-yard scoring strike to Robinson. He was named Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week for the second time after completing 21-of-28 passes for 262 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions against UCF. Hackenberg threw a 46-yard pass to Robinson in the third quarter that set up the Lions' second touchdown of the game. He threw a five-yard TD pass to Robinson and they also connected on a 44yard completion. Hackenberg was 13-of-35 for 176 yards with one touchdown and one interception in a rain-soaked win over Kent State. He connected with Bill Belton on a 15-yard touchdown pass and had completions of 29 yards (Kyle Carter) and 27 yards (Breneman) against the Golden Flashes. Hackenberg broke the school freshman record with 30 completions in the Big Ten-opener at Indiana, also eclipsing the school record with 55 pass attempts. He broke Kerry Collins' pass attempts record of 54, set in 1992 at BYU. His 30 completions rank third overall at Penn State and he broke his own school freshman record with a season-high 340 yards, tossing three touchdowns against the Hoosiers, including a 46-yarder to Robinson. His 300-plus yard effort against the Hoosiers made him just the fourth player in school history to accumulate multiple 300-yard passing games. The eyes of the college football world were on Hackenberg and the Nittany Lions for the Oct. 11 prime time battle with unbeaten Michigan and he led Penn State to one of its most dramatic victories in program history. Trailing 34-27, he led the team on a game-tying, 80-yard scoring drive with 50 seconds left in the fourth quarter and no timeouts. He completed a 14-yard pass to Robinson, followed by a 29-yard strike to Brandon Felder and a 36-yard leaping grab by Robinson at the Michigan one-yard line, sending the Homecoming crowd of 107,884 into hysterics. Hackenberg then dove into the end zone for his first career rushing score, tying the game at 34-34, needing only 23 seconds and four plays to get Penn State into the end zone and overtime in the eventual 43-40 four-overtime thriller. Hackenberg posted his third 300-yard passing game with 305 yards on 23-of-44 passing and had three TD passes in the win over the No. 18 Wolverines. He was named the Athlon Sports National Freshman-of-the-Week and Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week for the third time. He also won the Capital One Cup Performance-of-the-Week against Michigan. Hackenberg connected with Felder on scoring strikes of 12 and 24 yards and hit Jesse James on a 20-yard scoring grab for a 21-10 halftime lead against the Wolverines. His one-yard touchdown run was the first rushing TD allowed by Michigan during the season. Hackenberg was 12-of-23 with one touchdown and two interceptions at No. 4 Ohio State. He connected with Felder on a 12-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter against the Buckeyes for the Lions' first touchdown of the game. He left the game in the third quarter with a slight shoulder injury. Hackenberg completed 20-of-32 passes with a touchdown pass in the overtime win over Illinois to earn Athlon Sports' Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week. He threw a 47-yard strike to Robinson in the first quarter, and connected with Carter on the game-winning, 15-yard touchdown pass in overtime. Hackenberg also had a nine-yard touchdown run in the second quarter against the Illini and broke the school freshman record with his sixth 200-yard passing game. He completed 14-of-25 passes for 163 yards at Minnesota, with no touchdowns or interceptions, on a day that saw winds gusting to 30 mph. He connected with Belton on a 30-yard pass in the fourth quarter against the Gophers. Hackenberg was 16-of-23, with one TD and one interception, in the 45-21 win over Purdue to attain Athlon Sports Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honors for a fourth time. He capped the scoring against Purdue with a four-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. He connected with Breneman on an eight-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter and had a 58-yard completion to James. Hackenberg was 16-of-33, including two completions of 40-plus yards, with two touchdowns and one interception in the Nebraska game. He found Breneman on a two-yard scoring pass in the first quarter and James on a 46-yard TD strike in the fourth quarter. He also completed a 43-yard pass to Robinson. He also delivered a seven-yard touchdown run in the third quarter for a 13-7 lead en route to receiving his fourth Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honor. Hackenberg gained Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week for a fifth time and Athlon Sports National Freshman-of-the-Week for a second time after going 21-of-30 for 339 yards, with a season-high four touchdown passes and no interceptions in a huge 31-24 victory at No. 14 Wisconsin. He found

Breneman on a 68-yard scoring strike on the fourth play of the game, the Lions' longest play from scrimmage, and the longest play allowed by Wisconsin, all season. Hackenberg also connected with Lewis on three and 59-yard touchdown passes, with the second one coming early in the fourth quarter for a 31-14 lead. He also found James on a beautiful seven-yard scoring toss in the third quarter to give Penn State the lead for good.

➤ High School

An Under Armour All-American, Hackenberg was rated as the top pocket passing quarterback in the nation during his senior season at Fork Union Military Academy. Playing for head coach Brian Hurlocker, he led the Blue Devils to the 2010 VISAA Division I State Championship as a sophomore and a state runner-up finish as a senior in 2012. Hackenberg was a VISAA Division I first-team all-state performer as a senior and was invited to "The Opening," an all-star summer prospect camp held on the Nike campus. Additionally, he was a 2012 Elite 11 Finalist. He threw for 5,473 yards, tossing 55 touchdowns and completing more than 50 percent of his passes, playing three years at Fork Union. PENN STATE CLAIMS UNPRECEDENTED 29TH LAMBERT TROPHY

Penn State captured an unprecedented 29th Lambert Trophy, symbolic of Eastern football supremacy, for the 2013 season. The Nittany Lions were honored in March at the Eastern College Football Awards Banquet, hosted by the ECAC, at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.

Prior to 2013, Penn State's most recent Lambert Trophy selection had been in 2009, which was the 24th Lambert Trophy title captured under Coach Joe Paterno.

Eighteen institutions have captured the Lambert Meadowlands Trophy, but no four schools combined can match Penn State's 29 titles.

Established in 1936 by brothers Victor and Henry Lambert in memory of their father, August, the Lambert Trophy was first captured by Penn State in 1947 under Coach Bob Higgins. Coach Rip Engle guided Lambert Trophy winners in 1961, '64 and '65. The first of Paterno's Lambert titles came in 1967.

Penn State finished the 2013 season with a 31-24 victory over No. 14 Wisconsin, claiming its first on-field Top 15 win since beating No. 13 LSU in the 2010 Capital One Bowl.

Linebacker ➤ Canonsburg, Pa.

The cycle is the same during every off-season. Leaders leave, new leaders are needed and those leaders step up or continue their emergence. After the Nittany Lions' big win at No. 14 Wisconsin in the 2013 season-finale, it came as no surprise that linebacker Mike Hull took a more active role as a team leader heading into his senior season. The highly-productive, instinctive and physical player on defense and special teams should merit All-Big Ten and CoSIDA Academic All-America consideration this season. He was named first-team preseason All-Big Ten by Athlon Sports and Lindy's and second-team all-conference by Phil Steele's College Football Preview. Having been born and raised in western Pennsylvania and coming from a Penn State family, Hull has long been familiar with the litany of outstanding "Linebacker U." products from the Pittsburgh area during the Big Ten era — including the likes of LaVar Arrington, Sean Lee, Paul Posluszny and Brandon Short. Hull was more than willing, ready and able to carry forward the "Linebacker U." legacy with the departure of Michael Mauti and Gerald Hodges after the 2012 season. Hull was second on the team with 78 tackles (44 solo) last year despite missing two full games and most of two others due to injury. The tough and fierce competitor ranked fifth in the conference with 9.1 tackles per game in Big Ten play, making at least nine tackles in six Big Ten games. Hull has come up big on some of the biggest stages, recording 10 tackles, including two tackles for loss on Michigan's final drive of regulation, and an athletic pass breakup, in the four-overtime win over the No. 18 Wolverines. He is a passionate workhorse in the weight room and regularly ranks among the strongest nonlinemen in team strength and conditioning testing. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, Hull earned his degree in finance in May. The former Canon-McMillan High School standout owned a 3.30 cumulative grade-point average through the spring semester and should be a strong candidate for CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades. Hull's father (Tom) and an uncle (John Hull) played for the Nittany Lions in the early 1970s. His father helped the Nittany Lions compile a perfect 12-0record as a senior in 1973, defeating LSU in the Orange Bowl. Hull is among 10 returning Nittany Lions from metropolitan Pittsburgh.

➤ 2013 ➤ Senior Season

Hull embraced his role in the "Linebacker U." tradition, as he ranked fifth in the conference with 9.1 tackles per game in Big Ten play and finished 11th in the conference for all games at 7.8 tackles per game. Hull played in 10 games and made eight starts, missing the Eastern Michigan and Kent State games and seeing limited time against Syracuse and UCF due to a knee injury. Hull was a stalwart for the defense, making at least nine tackles in six of the eight Big Ten games. He was second on the team with 78 tackles, also ranking second with 44 solo stops. He made 4.5 tackles for loss, 0.5 sacks, forced one fumble, recovered a fumble and had two pass breakups. Hull made his second career start in the season-opening win against Syracuse and made one tackle before suffering a knee injury in the first half. Hull returned to the field against UCF, posting four tackles (three solo) in limited action and registered his first double-digit tackles game of the season with 10 stops at Indiana, including 0.5 sacks. Hull followed with another 10-tackle effort in the dramatic four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan. In that game, he recorded two tackles for loss on the Wolverines' final drive of regulation, forcing a punt, and had a huge pass breakup in the end zone in the second overtime to help hold Michigan to a field goal. Hull tied for second on the team in tackles at No. 4 Ohio State with nine stops. Hull's productivity continued to escalate, delivering a career-high 13 tackles to lead the team and all Big Ten players on Nov. 2 in the victory over Illinois. He also broke up a pass on fourth-and-one from the Penn State four-yard line early in the fourth quarter. Hull had nine stops (seven solo), including one TFL at Minnesota, followed by a six-tackle performance in the win over Purdue. He also forced and recovered a fumble against the Boilermakers. Hull recorded nine tackles (four solo) in the home-finale with Nebraska, including a tackle on first-and-goal during a fourth-quarter goal line stand. Hull finished the season strong, recording a team-high seven tackles (five solo) in the season-ending win at No. 14 Wisconsin. He led a defense that held the Badgers to 120 rushing yards, nearly 180 yards below their season average of 297.8 yards entering the contest. Hull claimed his third Academic All-Big Ten honor.

➤ 2012 ➤ Junior Season

Hull played in every game for the second straight season, making his first career start against Wisconsin. After senior co-captain Michael Mauti was injured in the first quarter of the Indiana game, Hull took the field and responded by recording a career-high 11 tackles, with one sack, 1.5 tackles for loss and a pass breakup in the win over the Hoosiers. In addition to helping Penn State rank second in the Big Ten and No. 16 nationally in scoring defense at 19.1 ppg, Hull saw action on all four punt and kickoff units. He was No. 6 on the team with 58 tackles (34 solo), the highest total among the non-starters. He was tied for third on the squad with 4.0 sacks for minus-25 yards, recorded 5.0 TFL, two fumble recoveries, including one for a touchdown, an interception, a blocked punt and four pass breakups. Hull made six tackles (four solo) against Ohio and had two solo stops, including a sack, at Virginia. He had five hits and alertly scooped up a fumble, returning it 74 yards for a touchdown, in the 34-7 win over Navy for Bill O'Brien's first career head coaching victory. Hull made three stops each in wins over Temple and at Illinois and had five hits with a pass breakup in the 39-28 decision over No. 24 Northwestern. He made two solo stops and grabbed an interception in the 38-14 win at lowa. Hull blocked his second career punt in the second quarter against Ohio State, which was recovered by Michael Yancich for a 7-0 lead in an electric Beaver Stadium. He also recorded a sack among his three solo tackles against the Buckeyes. Hull made six hits and had a pass breakup in the 34-9 victory at Purdue, helping hold the Boilermakers to their fewest points since 2008. Hull made seven tackles at No. 18 Nebraska and recovered a fumble in Northwestern territory that led to a touchdown. He made his first career start in the thrilling 24-21 overtime win over Wisconsin and had five tackles (four solo), with 0.5 TFL. Hull earned Academic All-Big Ten honors for the second time.

NORTHWESTERN IS HOMECOMING FOE

Northwestern will provide the opposition for Penn State's 95th Homecoming game on Sept. 27 at 12 p.m. The Nittany Lions have a 68-21-5 on-field record in front of the alumni audience, including a thrilling 43-40 four-overtime victory over Michigan in 2013. Penn State posted a comeback 39-28 win over Northwestern on Homecoming in 2012, scoring the final 22 points.

18 JESSE JAMES

Tight End ➤ Glassport, Pa.

Tight end Jesse James has the size, skill set and football IQ of a player that presents a mismatch on every snap when he lines up. The 6-7 Nittany Lion has quietly emerged as one of the Big Ten's top tight ends and has had two tremendously productive campaigns for the Blue and White. Sporting News named James first-team preseason All-Big Ten heading into his junior season. The team's top returning receiver, James made 25 receptions for 333 yards last year and scored three touchdowns, tied for second on the squad. James will team with Adam Breneman, Kyle Carter and Brent Wilkerson to form one of the nation's premier tight end units. He started all 12 games last season and has made 18 career starts, tied for fourth-highest on the squad. His tremendous physical attributes, strength and receiver-like traits make him a challenging matchup for opposing defenses, and he has consistently demonstrated the ability to catch the ball in traffic and gain significant yards after the catch. The former South Allegheny High School all-state player brings a fierce work-ethic to the practice field and the strength and conditioning program, adding 10 pounds of muscle since last season. James made at least two receptions in eight games last season, including a career-best six catches and grabbing his first touchdown of the season in the four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan. He gained a season-high 67 yards against the Wolverines, including the 20-yard TD reception. James made two catches for 64 yards in the 45-21 win over Purdue, including a career-long 58-yard catch and run in the third quarter to set up a score. He made three catches for 56 yards against Nebraska, with a career-long 46-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter to give Penn State a 20-17 lead. James is director of marketing for Penn State's Uplifting Athletes chapter, which has raised more than $825,000 for kidney cancer patients, their families and research since the first Penn State Lift For Life was held in 2003. Among 10 returning players from the greater Pittsburgh area, James joins a long line of outstanding Nittany Lion football student-athletes from Western Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

James was third on the team with 25 receptions for 333 yards and was tied for second with three touchdown catches. His 13.3-yard average was second only to All-America wideout Allen Robinson. Starting in all 12 games, he boosted his career starts total to 18. His efforts as a blocker and receiver helped the Nittany Lions rush for 2,088 yards and throw for 3,110 yards. James made two catches for 10 yards in the season-opening win over Syracuse at MetLife Stadium. He had two catches for 46 yards against Eastern Michigan, including a 27-yard effort. He made two catches for 30 yards against UCF, including a long of 17 yards in the fourth quarter that set up the Lions' final touchdown, and made three catches for 20 yards against Kent State. James had a career-best six catches and grabbed his first touchdown of the season, a 20-yard reception, in the four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan. He gained a season-high 67 yards in the win over the Wolverines. James made two catches for 64 yards in the 45-21 win over Purdue, including a career-long 58-yard catch and run in the third quarter to set up a field goal. He made three catches for 56 yards against Nebraska, including a career-long 46-yard TD catch and run in the fourth quarter to give Penn State a 20-17 lead. He recorded three receptions for 24 yards in the 31-24 win at No. 14 Wisconsin, including a leaping seven-yard touchdown catch to give Penn State the lead for good in the third quarter.

➤ 2012 ➤ Freshman Season

James enrolled in the University in January 2012 and went right to work in the winter conditioning program, followed by spring practice. Playing in every game, with six starts, he was selected a CollegeFootballNews.com honorable-mention Freshman All-American for his efforts. James made 15 receptions for 276 yards and five touchdowns, good for second on the team, and his superb 18.4 yards per catch average led the squad. His five touchdown catches tied the Penn State season record by a tight end, joining Bob Parsons (1971) and Dan Natale (1972). James also played a vital role in helping pave the way for 1,000-yard rusher Zach Zwinak and protecting quarterback Matt McGloin during his record-setting campaign. One of six true freshmen to earn playing time, James made his Penn State debut in the season-opener with Ohio and caught his first career touchdown pass in the 34-7 win against Navy in Bill O'Brien's first career head coaching victory. James made his first career start in the 24-13 win over Temple and started in the 39-28 comeback victory over No. 24 Northwestern, making one catch. James set then-season-highs with three catches for 52 yards, including a touchdown, in the 38-14 prime time win at Iowa. He made a 31-yard catch and dove into the end zone to give the Nittany Lions a 7-0 first-quarter lead over the Hawkeyes. He made one catch for 20 yards against Ohio State and had three catches for 49 yards and a touchdown in the 34-9 win at Purdue. James had a 35-yard catch and run to set up a second-quarter score against the Boilermakers and broke free from a defender for a 12-yard touchdown and a 27-3 lead in the third quarter. He made two catches for 21 yards at No. 18 Nebraska, including an 11-yard catch and run for a touchdown. James recorded a season-long 42-yard catch and run to set up a touchdown in the final minute of the first half in the win over Indiana. James started in the 24-21 overtime win against Wisconsin and delivered the go-ahead score on a 41-yard catch and run early in the fourth quarter in a frenzied Beaver Stadium. He made three catches for a season-high 90 yards against the Badgers, adding a 37-yard catch and run in the third quarter to set up a field goal.

> High School

James was a two-time second-team all-state performer for coach Pat Monroe at South Allegheny High School. He earned first-team All-Century Conference at tight end as a junior and senior, after making 71 receptions for 1,030 yards and 10 touchdowns during his final two seasons with the Gladiators. He was selected a team captain during each of his final three seasons at South Allegheny. James was invited to play in the Semper-Fidelis All-American game and was named to the 2011 Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Fabulous 22. MaxPreps rated James the nation's No. 3 tight end during his senior season.

99 AUSTIN JOHNSON

6-4 ➤ 313 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Defensive Tackle ➤ Galloway, N.J.

A big opportunity is available on the interior defensive line this season and redshirt sophomore Austin Johnson figures to be among the primary challengers for a starting assignment. Both starting defensive tackles from last season, Kyle Baublitz and DaQuan Jones, have departed, providing the talented and physical Johnson with an opportunity to earn significant playing time this year. Johnson's efforts in the weight room have helped him gain more than 15 pounds since the start of the 2013 season. He brings excellent physical attributes, toughness and drive to the field and weight room. Johnson appeared in all 12 games last season with a pair of starts, recording 27 tackles, with 3.0 tackles for loss. Johnson was an all-state and All-South Jersey honoree at St. Augustine Prep, which produced former Nittany Lion defensive end Jack Crawford, a 2012 NFL Draft choice who plays with the Oakland Raiders. He is among 12 returning Nittany Lions from New Jersey on the 2014 roster.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Johnson appeared in all 12 games with two starts, including his first career start against Kent State. He recorded 27 tackles, with 3.0 tackles for a loss, one sack and a fumble recovery. Johnson opened the season with one tackle in the win over Syracuse before making a season-high six stops, including his 0.5 sack, against Eastern Michigan. Johnson contributed three tackles (two solo) against UCF. In the Big Ten-opener at Indiana, he recorded three stops and followed with two hits, including 1.0 TFL, in the four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan. Johnson made his second career start and tallied two solo tackles in the victory over Illinois. He posted three solo stops, including 1.0 TFL, at Minnesota. In the 45-21 win against Purdue, Johnson registered two tackles, including 0.5 sack, and recovered his first career fumble to set up a third-quarter touchdown run by Zach Zwinak. He made four tackles (three solo) and a quarterback hurry in the big 31-24 win at No. 14 Wisconsin in the season-finale.

KLINE ELECTED PRESIDENT OF PENN STATE UPLIFTING ATHLETES

Redshirt junior linebacker Ben Kline is the new president of Penn State's Uplifting Athletes chapter. With a senior-laden group of officers departing after last season, Kline steps in to take the reins of one of the nation's most successful and recognized student-athlete fundraisers, the Penn State Lift For Life. In his third season at Penn State, Kline has had the opportunity to watch and learn from out-going president Eric Shrive — the 2013 Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion.

A two-time Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District® selection, Kline was a productive member of the linebacker rotation in 2013 before suffering a season-ending injury (chest) at Minnesota.

Kline was among the squad's top fundraisers for the 2013 Lift For Life, which raised a record total of more than $140,000 for the Kidney Cancer Association last July. In its 11 years, the Penn State Lift For Life has raised in excess of $825,000 for the Kidney Cancer Association, including record totals above $100,000 in each of the past three years.

23 RYAN KEISER

Safety > Selinsgrove, Pa.

Safety Ryan Keiser is a talented player with good instincts and a nose for the ball, a combination that likely will have him playing a significant role during his fifth-year senior season. Keiser has been a consistently productive player on defense and special teams, playing in 36 of a possible 37 career games the past three seasons. He could team with safety Adrian Amos and cornerbacks Jordan Lucas and Trevor Williams, to give the secondary a quartet of experienced returning starters. A starter in the last four games of 2013, Keiser grabbed three interceptions to tie Lucas for the team lead, and delivered eight pass breakups, tied with Williams for second on the squad. The physical and hard-hitting Keiser was tied for sixth in the Big Ten in passes defended (1.00 avg.). The sure-handed Keiser also will be a primary candidate to resume duties as the holder on field goal and PAT attempts. He handled the holding duties in 2012 and the early part of last season before a hand injury sidelined him from those duties. The former Selinsgrove High School all-state honoree recorded 38 tackles (26 solo), while appearing in 11 games last year, including starting five contests. Keiser was stellar in crunch time last season as he cemented the Illinois win by alertly grabbing a pass tipped by Amos in the end zone for a game-ending interception, which was the No. 6 play on the SportsCenter Top 10 for Nov. 2. He also grabbed an interception in the end zone on Wisconsin's final play from scrimmage to seal the huge 31-24 road win over the No. 14 Badgers. Keiser owns a 3.37 grade-point average, made the Dean's List last spring and is a potential CoSIDA Academic All-America candidate. The two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree is on schedule to graduate in August with a degree in kinesiology. He is the squad's lone married player. Keiser is among 17 returning Nittany Lions from Central Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Senior Season

Keiser was a fixture in the secondary and on special teams, appearing in 11 games with five starts. He was eighth on the squad with 38 tackles (26 solo), was tied for the team lead with three interceptions and tied for second with eight pass breakups. He added 2.0 tackles for loss and one sack. Keiser made two tackles and delivered a five-yard rush on a fake field goal to pick up a first down that led to a field goal in the 23-17 season-opening win over Syracuse. He made two stops against Eastern Michigan and had two tackles and a pass breakup in the UCF game. Keiser delivered an outstanding effort in the 34-0 win over Kent State with four tackles, a personal-best three pass breakups and the first interception and first sack of his career. He suffered a hand injury against Kent State and did not play at Indiana, missing the first game of his career. Keiser returned to make his first career start against No. 18 Michigan and made two tackles in the thrilling four-overtime win. Keiser cemented the victory over Illinois by alertly grabbing a pass tipped by Adrian Amos for a game-ending interception in the end zone to give the Nittany Lions a 24-17 win. The play ranked No. 6 on the ESPN SportsCenter Top 10 for Nov. 2. The interception was his second of the season and he added a tackle for loss in the win over the Illini. Keiser made a career-best seven tackles (six solo) at Minnesota in his second career start. He matched his personal-best in the next game with seven tackles in the 45-21 victory over Purdue. In the home-finale against Nebraska, he recorded four tackles (three solo) and added one pass breakup. Keiser came up big for the Nittany Lions in the season-finale at No. 14 Wisconsin, making five tackles (four solo), breaking up two passes and grabbing an interception in the end zone on the Badgers' final play from scrimmage to seal the 31-24 win. The pick was his third of the season, tied for the team lead. Keiser earned his second Academic All-Big Ten honor.

➤ 2012 ➤ Junior Season

Keiser saw action in every game for the second consecutive year, serving as the holder on all 62 placements. He also played on other special teams and defense. He made five tackles, led by three stops in the win over Indiana. Keiser also had hits in the victories at Illinois and Purdue. Keiser earned Dean's List recognition after posting a 3.76 grade-point average during the fall semester. He was selected Academic All-Big Ten for the first time.

➤ 2011 ➤ Sophomore Season

Keiser saw action in every game, serving as the holder on placements and playing on other special teams. He made six tackles, led by three stops in the win over Eastern Michigan. Keiser played a total of 102 snaps, topped by 15 in the victory over Indiana State.

2 JAKE KILEY

6-0 ➤ 179 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Wide Receiver ➤ Plymouth, N.H.

Moving from safety to wide receiver during the 2013 season gave Jake Kiley the opportunity to bolster the depth at wide receiver. With two-time Big Ten Receiver-of-the-Year Allen Robinson and Brandon Felder moving on from the receiving corps, experience and finding playmakers will be key this season. Kiley is looking forward to using his skills, speed and instincts to challenge for playing time in the rotation this fall. Coached by his father, Edward, at New Hampton School in New Hampshire, Kiley was a strong contributor on the scout team defense in 2012 during his redshirt season before making the switch to the offense last fall. He is among the growing number of Nittany Lions from New England, joining D.J. Crook, Malik Golden and freshman Johnathan Thomas, all of whom have arrived on campus since 2012.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

Kiley moved from safety to wide receiver mid-way through the season, but did not see any action.

➤ 2012 ➤ Freshman Season

Redshirt season.

➤ High School

Kiley was selected the New England Private School Athletic Conference Class C Player-of-the-Year at New Hampton School. As a senior, he was New Hampshire's No. 1 prospect. Playing defensive back, quarterback and wide receiver, Kiley was a three-time All-New England Class C selection and a two-time Evergreen League Most Valuable Player. He recorded 17 interceptions and 127 tackles in his career. Kiley also accounted for 40 career touchdowns: 22 rushing, 12 passing, five receiving and one return. He also lettered in basketball, golf and lacrosse.

➤ Personal

Full name is Jacob Kiley. He is the son of Edward and Carrie Kiley, and has a sister, Madison. His father played football at Springfield College and is the head coach at New Hampton School. Kiley enjoys spending time with his family and watching movies. He is studying criminology and is interested in becoming a lawyer. Born February 21, 1994 in Concord, N.H.

38 BEN KLINE

Linebacker ➤ Seven Valleys, Pa.

Linebacker Ben Kline was getting into a good groove in the first part of last November after being slowed by a shoulder injury earlier in the season. Kline earned his first career start in the win over Illinois and responded with a breakout game, posting a career-high eight tackles. A week later, he again was on the field with the first unit and made four tackles at Minnesota despite suffering a chest injury on the second play of the game. The physical, assertive and intelligent Kline eventually left the game and was not able to play in the final three contests. Despite the injuries, Kline made 18 tackles last season, with 1.5 tackles for loss and one sack for minus-eight yards. Having spent his initial two seasons at outside linebacker, Kline could begin the season at middle linebacker, where he likely will battle Mike Hull and Gary Wooten for playing time. The former Dallastown High School standout loves to hit and gained nearly 10 pounds during the winter strength and conditioning program. Kline is one of the squad's premier students, entering the summer with a 3.83 grade-point average in finance, and is on schedule to graduate in December. He is a two-time Capital One/ CoSIDA Academic All-District® honoree and should be a strong candidate for the Academic All-America® team this fall. The redshirt junior also is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree. Kline is president of Penn State's Uplifting Athletes chapter, which has raised more than $825,000 for kidney cancer patients, their families and research since the first Penn State Lift For Life event was held in 2003. Kline led a contingent of Nittany Lion football student-athletes to Washington, D.C., for Rare Disease Awareness Day this past winter and has been very active in promoting Uplifting Athletes and expanding the chapter's schedule of events. He is among 17 returning Nittany Lions from Central Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Kline battled through injuries during the season and was able to play in six games, earning two starts. After not having any contact during spring practice due to off-season shoulder surgery, he made two tackles, including 0.5 for a loss, in the season-opening win over Syracuse in MetLife Stadium. After missing the Eastern Michigan game, Kline returned to action against UCF. He contributed a pair of hits in the 34-0 win over Kent State before missing the first two games of the Big Ten slate due to injury. Kline had another two-tackle performance at No. 4 Ohio State, including his first career sack. In his first career start, Kline had a breakout game with a career-high eight tackles in the win over Illinois. Kline provided a gutsy effort at Minnesota with four tackles, despite being injured (chest) on the second play of the game. He missed the final three contests with the chest injury. Kline continued to shine in the classroom, as the Dean's List student garnered his second consecutive Capital One/ CoSIDA Academic All-District® selection and second Academic All-Big Ten honor.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Kline appeared in all 12 games, earning playing time on defense and special teams. He recorded 18 tackles (nine solo), which ranked third among the defensive reserves. He made three tackles each in the wins over Navy and Illinois and two stops each against Ohio, Iowa and Indiana. Kline was selected to the CoSIDA Academic All-District® and Academic All-Big Ten squads. He compiled a perfect 4.00 GPA during the 2013 spring semester.

➤ 2011 ➤ Freshman Season

➤ High School

Kline was named York-Adams League Division I Player-of-the-Year under coach Kevin Myers at Dallastown Area High School. As a senior, Kline led Dallastown to an 11-1 record and its first York-Adams League Division I title in 30 years, playing on both sides of the ball. He paced the team with an impressive 152 tackles (93 solo), while recording 1.5 sacks and three interceptions. He contributed nearly 850 yards of offense (rushing and receiving) and 13 touchdowns. Kline was the first freshman to start on the Dallastown varsity. He also was a decorated sprinter on the track and field team.

41 Zach Ladonis

6-2 ➤ 219 ➤ So./So. Eligible

Kick Snapper ➤ Nescopeck, Pa.

Zach Ladonis was a Penn State student with his football career in the rear view mirror until he participated in a walk-on tryout in September 2013. At the September 18 tryout, he caught the eye of the Nittany Lion coaching staff and less than three weeks later he was snapping on punts in the Big Ten-opener at Indiana. The Berwick High School product snapped in five games and was one of 12 true freshmen to see game action for the Nittany Lions in 2013. The Nescopeck, Pa., native enters his second season as a leading candidate to handle the kick snapping duties on a full-time basis. Ladonis plans to major in aerospace engineering and is one of the squad's strongest students. He earned Dean's List recognition with a superlative 3.74 grade-point average during the 2014 spring semester. He brought a 3.55 cumulative GPA into the summer and is a potential Academic All-Big Ten candidate. Ladonis is among 15 returning Nittany Lions from Eastern Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Ladonis joined the team after taking part in walk-on tryouts on September 18 and made his first career appearance a little more than two weeks later, on October 5 at Indiana. Ladonis handled the punt snapping duties against the Hoosiers in the Big Ten-opener. He also served as the kick snapper on punts against Michigan, at Ohio State, against Illinois and against Nebraska and earned a letter. He was one of 12 true freshmen to see game action during the season. He earned Dean's List recognition by compiling a 3.74 grade-point average during the 2014 spring semester.

➤ High School

Ladonis was a two-year letterman for head coach George Curry at Berwick Senior High School. He served as the team's kick snapper and saw time at tight end. He was selected to play in the UNICO Senior All-Star game. Ladonis also lettered in basketball.

55 WENDY LAURENT

6-2 ➤ 284 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Center ➤ Hamilton, N.J.

Wendy Laurent has made very good progress during his initial two seasons in the Penn State program, and he heads into preseason camp looking to challenge for the starting assignment at center. With the graduation of Ty Howle, the New Jersey product should join Angelo Mangiro as the primary challengers for the majority of the snaps as the anchor of the offensive line. Laurent earned the start at center for the victorious Blue squad in the 2014 spring game. The talented Laurent has good physical attributes and work-ethic. He saw action in five games in 2013 and helped the ground attack reach 200 yards on three occasions, including a season-high 289 yards against Purdue. A standout at The Hun School, Laurent is among 12 returning Nittany Lions on the roster from New Jersey.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Laurent saw action in five games. He played against Eastern Michigan, Kent State, Minnesota, Purdue and Wisconsin. Laurent helped pave the way for three 200-yard rushing games for the Nittany Lions, including a season-best 289 yards in the victory over Purdue. He also played an instrumental role on the scout team offense.

7 EUGENE LEWIS

6-1 ➤ 199 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Wide Receiver ➤ Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Eugene "Geno" Lewis is primed to make a large impact in the passing game as the team's top returning receiver heading into the season. He busted onto the scene for the Nittany Lions during his collegiate debut against Syracuse in MetLife Stadium. Lewis, who redshirted in 2012, hauled in a fourth-quarter 54-yard touchdown pass from fellow freshman Christian Hackenberg to help deliver a 23-17 victory over the Orange. Lewis was tied for fourth on the team with 18 receptions for 234 yards last year, including a season-high six catches at Indiana. A superb athlete with good speed and strong hands, his three touchdown catches were tied for second on the squad. Playing in every game, he made four starts, including the last two contests, in 2013. Lewis also returns as the squad's top kickoff returner, averaging 22.3 yards on his 22 returns during his freshman season. BTN.com selected the former Wyoming Valley West High School standout among its three Breakout Players to Watch in the Big Ten heading into the 2014 campaign. Another in the long line of Northeast Pennsylvania standouts who have matriculated to Happy Valley, Lewis delivered his best outing in the season-finale at Wisconsin, making three catches for 91 yards and two touchdowns in the 31-24 victory over the No. 14 Badgers. He made an electric 59-yard touchdown catch early in the fourth quarter for a 31-14 lead over Wisconsin. Lewis is the team's top returning wideout following the departure of two-time Big Ten Receiver-of-the-Year Allen Robinson and Brandon Felder and is poised to emerge as a leader for the youthful receiving corps this year. The hard-working and determined Lewis earned Academic All-Big Ten accolades last year. He is among 15 returning Nittany Lions from Eastern Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

Lewis made 18 receptions for 234 yards and scored three touchdowns during his first season on the field. He busted onto the scene during his collegiate debut against Syracuse in MetLife Stadium. His fourth-quarter 54-yard TD catch from fellow freshman Christian Hackenberg helped deliver a 23-17 victory over the Orange. Lewis, who finished fourth on the team in receiving, played in all 12 games and made four starts, including the last two contests. He had his best outing in the season-finale at Wisconsin, registering three catches for 91 yards and two scores in the huge 31-24 victory over the No. 14 Badgers. He made an electric 59-yard touchdown catch early in the fourth quarter for a 31-14 lead in Madison. He also caught a three-yard scoring strike after an alert Hackenberg saw that Lewis was uncovered to tie the game at 14 just before halftime. He also had three catches in the win over Purdue and two grabs at Ohio State. Lewis earned Academic All-Big Ten accolades.

➤ 2012 ➤ Freshman Season

➤ High School

Lewis was a first-team PIAA Class AAAA all-state selection as a senior at Wyoming Valley West High School, playing primarily quarterback and defensive back. Playing for coach Pat Keating, he also was selected an Offense-Defense All-American, a two-time Wyoming Valley Conference MVP, the PIAA District 2 Offensive Player-of-the-Year and a three-time WNEP-TV Dream Team honoree. A four-star prospect, Lewis was instrumental in helping the Spartans win a pair of District 2 titles. He ran for 1,534 yards and 28 touchdowns, and threw for 1,012 yards and 10 touchdowns during his senior season. A team captain and four-year letterman, Lewis accounted for 30 touchdowns (18 rushing and 12 passing) as a junior. He was selected second-team all-state and first-team all-district, on offense and defense, as a junior. Lewis also earned All-WVC honors as a sophomore and was the WVC Freshman-of-the-Year in 2008. He was invited to play in the Offense/Defense All-American game and the Big 33 Classic. He also attained second-team all-state honors in basketball.

9 JORDAN LUCAS

Cornerback ➤ New Rochelle, N.Y.

Jordan Lucas emerged as one of the squad's most productive and dynamic players after grabbing a starting slot at cornerback prior to last season. Entering his junior campaign, Lucas earned All-Big Ten honorable-mention accolades in 2013 and should be an all-conference candidate this fall. He was named first-team preseason All-Big Ten by USA Today and Lindy's and second-team all-conference by Athlon Sports and Phil Steele's College Football Preview. The athletic, hard-hitting and dynamic Lucas has emerged as a team leader and is poised to play a significant role for the defense and special teams the next two years. He was one of the player speakers at The Signature Event on signing day last February. A starter in all 12 games last year, the talented and enthusiastic Lucas was tied for third in the Big Ten with 16 passes defended (1.33 avg.). Lucas tied for the team lead with three interceptions, all of which came in conference play, and led the Nittany Lions with 13 pass breakups. He was third on the team with 64 tackles, but led the squad with 45 solo stops. The metropolitan New York City product also recorded 4.5 tackles for loss (minus-20), one sack and forced two fumbles. Lucas grabbed his first career interception in the first quarter against No. 18 Michigan, returning it inside the Michigan 15-yard line to set up the Nittany Lions' first touchdown in the four-overtime victory. He led the team with a career-high 11 stops (seven solo) at No. 4 Ohio State. Lucas joins quarterback D.J. Crook as Nittany Lions who played at Worcester (Mass.) Academy after their high school careers.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

Lucas became a defensive leader for the Nittany Lions, as he tied for third in the Big Ten in passes defended with 16 (1.33 avg.) en route to honorable-mention all-conference honors. After a strong spring and preseason camp, Lucas earned the starting nod in all 12 games at cornerback. He was tied for the team lead with three interceptions, all in Big Ten play, with 37 return yards, which was tied for third in the Big Ten. He also led the team with 13 pass breakups and was third with 64 tackles, but led the Lions with 45 solo hits. Lucas also recorded 4.5 tackles for loss (minus-20), one sack and forced two fumbles, which tied for ninth in the Big Ten. He made his first career start just 25 miles from home, in the win over Syracuse in MetLife Stadium. He logged three tackles and tied for the team lead with two pass breakups. Lucas collected three tackles, including a TFL, against Eastern Michigan before forcing his first career fumble and making six stops, including one TFL, against UCF. He was a stalwart in the secondary against Kent State, breaking up a team-high four passes to go with three tackles and 0.5 sacks. In the Big Ten-opener at Indiana, Lucas made a then-career-high nine hits, including six solo tackles, with 0.5 sacks and a pass breakup. He grabbed his first career interception in the first quarter against No. 18 Michigan, returning it 14 yards to the Wolverines 14yard line to set up Penn State's first touchdown of the game. Lucas finished with four tackles in the pulsating four-overtime win over the Wolverines. He continued his impressive play with a career-high 11 stops (seven solo) at No. 4 Ohio State. Lucas followed with seven tackles, an interception and two pass breakups in the 24-17 win over Illinois. His interception at the Penn State 15 in the first quarter set up the drive that resulted in Bill Belton's five-yard touchdown run to open the scoring. Lucas posted four tackles and added a pass breakup at Minnesota. He registered his third pick of the season and returned it 22 yards in the second quarter against Purdue to set up a touchdown. Lucas made eight tackles, including a team-best six solo hits, to go with one pass breakup against Nebraska. He ended the season with four tackles (three solo) and a pass breakup in the big win at No. 14 Wisconsin. He helped the Nittany Lions hold the Badgers to 120 rushing yards, nearly 180 yards below their season average of 297.8 yards entering the contest.

➤ 2012 ➤ Freshman Season

Lucas was among six true freshmen to take the field, seeing action on defense and special teams. He recorded one solo tackle in the 34-9 win at Purdue.

➤ High School

Lucas matriculated to Penn State from Worcester (Mass.) Academy, where he played defensive back and running back for coach Tony Johnson, scoring 13 touchdowns. He was rated a three-star prospect by Scout and Rivals. Lucas played for coach Lou DiRienzo at New Rochelle High School and was selected the AA South Section Back-of-the-Year as a senior in 2010. He was named a Journal-News first-team all-star.

Personal

22 AKEEL LYNCH

6-0 ➤ 215 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Running Back > Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Akeel Lynch cannot wait to resume the competition for more playing time in the running back rotation when preseason practice begins in August. Between Lynch and seniors Bill Belton and Zach Zwinak, the Nittany Lions return three talented and proven runners who combined to gain 2,150 yards last season. During his first season on the field, the highly-skilled, swift and enthusiastic Lynch ran for 358 yards on 60 carries, posting a superlative 6.0 average. His per carry average was the highest on the team among players with at least 10 carries. The 2011 New York Gatorade Player-ofthe-Year scored one touchdown and had a long carry of 43 yards. Lynch suffered only three negative yards on his 60 rushing attempts, delivered a pair of 100-yard rushing games and had one kickoff return. In his first career game carrying the ball from scrimmage, Lynch tallied a then-career-high 108 yards on a team-high 13 carries in the win over Eastern Michigan. The quick and hard-working Lynch became the 49th player in school history with multiple 100-yard rushing games when he ran for a career-high 123 yards on 14 carries in the victory over Kent State, bursting to a season-long 43yard carry. With continued progress in the weight room and on the practice field, Lynch should firmly be in the mix for significant playing time in one of the Big Ten's deepest backfields. The former St. Francis High School All-Western New York standout was selected to the 2013 Academic All-Big Ten team. Lynch is the compliance manager of Penn State's Uplifting Athletes chapter, which has raised more than $825,000 for kidney cancer patients, their families and research since the first Penn State Lift For Life was held in 2003. Lynch and freshman quarterback Michael O'Connor are the Canadian products on the Nittany Lions' roster.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Lynch was third on the team with 358 rushing yards on 60 carries, scoring one touchdown. He averaged 6.0 yards per carry, the best figure among players with 10 or more attempts. Lynch suffered only three negative yards on his 60 rushing attempts. He played in nine contests and delivered a pair of 100-yard games. In his first career game carrying the ball, Lynch tallied 108 yards on a team-high 13 carries in the win over Eastern Michigan. He found the end zone in the fourth quarter, an 18-yard rush off the right side for his first career score. Lynch combined with Bill Belton (108 yards) to become the 32nd Penn State running back combo to rush for 100 yards in the same game and the first since 2010 (Northwestern). Lynch had five carries for 32 yards against UCF, including a long of 13 yards. He became the 49th player in school history with multiple 100-yard rushing games when he ran for a season-high 123 yards on 14 carries in the 34-0 victory over Kent State. Lynch also carried the ball 11 times for 35 yards at Ohio State and nine times for 44 yards in the win over Purdue. He also had one kickoff return during his redshirt freshman season.

70 brendan mahon

6-4 ➤ 292 ➤ So./Fr. Eligible

Tackle ➤ Randolph, N.J.

Tremendous opportunities exist on the offensive line, a unit that must replace three starters. Brendan Mahon has made significant progress during his first year in the program and, with continued progress, is poised to earn time in the rotation during his redshirt freshman season. He trimmed down his playing weight by more than 10 pounds during the winter strength and conditioning program to increase his quickness and was a starter for the victorious Blue squad in the spring game. Mahon likely will battle Andrew Nelson and Chasz Wright for the majority of snaps at right tackle. He was a two-time all-state selection and U.S. Army All-American bowl participant at Randolph High School. Mahon is among 12 returning Nittany Lions from New Jersey.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

➤ High School

Mahon was a cornerstone on the offensive line for coach Joe Lusardi at Randolph High School. He was a two-time all-state selection, while also earning all-metro, all-county and All-Northwest Jersey Conference accolades as a junior and senior. As a sophomore, Mahon helped the Rams to the Group 4 State Championship. He was a team captain for the East squad in the 2013 U.S. Army All-American game, where he roomed with future Nittany Lion teammate Garrett Sickels. Mahon was ranked a four-star recruit by ESPN.com, Rivals.com and 247Sports.com and was a member of the ESPN300. He was a consensus top 20 offensive line recruit and was rated the No. 4 overall recruit in New Jersey by Rivals.com. The Newark Star-Ledger tabbed Mahon as the top offensive lineman in the state following the 2012 season.

66 ANGELO MANGIRO

Center ➤ Roxbury, N.J.

A versatile player with good size and strength, Angelo Mangiro was Penn State's version of the sixth-man on the 2013 offensive line. He played in all 12 games for the second consecutive season, seeing time at center, both guard spots and on special teams. With three starters moving on from the offensive line, including center Ty Howle, Mangiro should be firmly in the mix for a starting assignment when the season begins in Ireland on Aug. 30. He likely will battle Wendy Laurent for the majority of snaps at center. The former Roxbury High School all-state honoree has added nearly 10 pounds of muscle during the off-season strength and conditioning program. A tough, physical and talented player, Mangiro helped the Nittany Lions rush for 2,088 yards and throw for 3,110 yards last season. He is among the student-athletes who have participated in the Penn State Athletes Take Action anti-bullying program, in a local middle school created, by former Lady Lion basketball player Gizelle Studevent. Mangiro owns a cumulative grade-point average above 3.0 in criminology and earned Academic All-Big Ten accolades last year. He is on schedule to graduate in December. Mangiro is among 12 returning Nittany Lions from New Jersey.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Playing in all 12 games for the second consecutive season, Mangiro served as the offensive line's sixth man. He played at center and both guard positions, helping bolster the rotation and depth for the interior O-Line. Mangiro helped the Nittany Lions rush for 2,088 yards and throw for 3,110 yards, boosting quarterback Christian Hackenberg to Freshman All-America honors. Mangiro was named Academic All-Big Ten following the season.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Mangiro worked his way up the depth chart to emerge as a top reserve at guard and center. He appeared in all 12 games and helped pave the way for 1,000-yard rusher Zach Zwinak and protected quarterback Matt McGloin during his record-setting campaign. Mangiro was among the program-record 28 Nittany Lions named to the Academic All-Big Ten team following the season.

➤ 2011 ➤ Freshman Season

CAPPELLETTI'S NO. 22 JERSEY TO BE RETIRED

John Cappelletti, who won the Heisman Trophy in leading Penn State to a 12-0 record in 1973, will have his No. 22 jersey retired. The announcement was made by then-Director of Athletics Dave Joyner during the Sept. 7, 2013 game against Eastern Michigan, as the 1973 team celebrated its 40th reunion.

Cappelletti is the first Penn State student-athlete to have his or her number retired.

The No. 22 jersey will be retired at the end of the career of redshirt sophomore running back Akeel Lynch, a request that was made by Cappelletti.

From Upper Darby, Pa., Cappelletti was a consensus first-team All-America running back in 1973 for Coach Joe Paterno and won the Maxwell Award, and the Walter Camp, ABC-TV and UPI Player-of-the-Year honors in addition to the Heisman.

A defensive back his first two years as a Nittany Lion, Cappelletti ran for 1,522 yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior in 1973. His 1,522 yards remain No. 4 on the Penn State season list. His 2,639 career rushing yards rank No. 11 in Penn State history and he scored 29 career touchdowns.

Cappelletti posted 13 100-yard rushing games and strung together three consecutive 200-yard games in the final month of the 1973 season, topped by 220 yards in a win over North Carolina State.

Cappelletti captured the nation's heart when he dedicated the Heisman Trophy to his younger brother, Joey, who would pass away from childhood leukemia. The story of Cappelletti's family and the 1973 season inspired the TV movie "Something For Joey."

A first-round draft choice of the NFL's Los Angeles Rams, Cappelletti played 10 seasons in the NFL, six with the Rams and four with the San Diego Chargers. Cappelletti was enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1993.

CARL NASSIB

Defensive End > West Chester, Pa.

One of the pleasant surprises of the 2013 season was the development and productivity of defensive end Carl Nassib. Playing in 10 games on defense and special teams, he made 11 solo stops, with 2.0 tackles for loss, a sack and a forced fumble. Nassib is recognized as one of the squad's most relentless workers and has gained 15 pounds in the strength and conditioning program since last season. The former Malvern Prep standout will be looking to solidify his role in the highly competitive defensive end rotation and on special teams when preseason camp begins. In his first career action as a Nittany Lion, he made two tackles, including a 17-yard TFL on a bobbled punt snap, in the 2013 season-opening win over Syracuse. Nassib comes from a strong football family as his older brother, Ryan, was a starting quarterback at Syracuse University and was selected in the 2013 NFL Draft; his cousin, Joe, is a cornerback on the Orange roster and his father, Gil, played at the University of Delaware. Nassib had a grade-point average above 3.00 after the spring semester and was named to the 2013 Academic All-Big Ten team. He is among 15 returning Nittany Lions from Eastern Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Nassib appeared in 10 games, recording 12 tackles (11 solo), 2.0 tackles for loss (minus-25), one sack, one forced fumble and a pass breakup. In his first career game action, Nassib registered two tackles, including a 17-yard TFL on a bobbled punt snap, in the season-opening win over Syracuse in MetLife Stadium. He produced two tackles and a pass breakup in the win over Kent State, followed by a career-best four solo tackles in the Big Ten-opener at Indiana. Nassib registered two solo tackles at No. 4 Ohio State and made one solo tackle at Minnesota. He recorded his first career sack for a loss of eight yards and forced his first career fumble in the win over Purdue. Nassib closed out the season with a quarterback hurry in the huge 31-24 win at No. 14 Wisconsin. He was named to the Academic All-Big Ten team.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

Nassib made steady progress, but did not see any game action.

➤ 2011 ➤ Freshman Season

➤ Personal

Full name is Carl Paul Nassib. He is the son of Gilbert and Mary Nassib. He has two brothers, Ryan and John, and two sisters, Carey and Paige. His father played football at the University of Delaware. Ryan was a standout quarterback at Syracuse and was a fourth-round pick of the New York Giants in the 2013 NFL Draft. A cousin, Joe Nassib, will be a senior defensive back for Syracuse in 2014. Nassib is a biology major and plans to go to medical school. Born April 12, 1993 in West Chester, Pa.

59 ANDREW NELSON

6-5 ➤ 305 ➤ So./Fr. Eligible

Tackle > Hershey, Pa.

Andrew Nelson is poised to be in the mix for substantial playing time at tackle when the season begins against UCF in Ireland. With the graduation of the top two right tackles on the depth chart from 2013, Nelson should be a primary challenger to earn significant snaps. He played a key role on the scout team during his redshirt season in 2013. Possessing good quickness for a player his size, Nelson has the tools to be a consistently productive player at the tackle position. The former Hershey High School standout has excellent physical attributes and added nearly 10 pounds to his frame during the off-season strength and conditioning program. With continued progress, Nelson is primed to be a significant figure on the Nittany Lion offensive line this fall and for the next three seasons. Nelson brought a 3.44 grade-point average into the summer and is a potential Academic All-Big Ten candidate. He is one of five Nittany Lions from the Harrisburg area and among 17 returning players from Central Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

15 MICHAEL O'CONNOR

6-4 ➤ 226 ➤ Fr./Fr. Eligible

Quarterback > Ottawa, Ontario, Canada

The spring semester was invaluable to Michael O'Connor's transition into being a Penn State student-athlete. After graduating from high school early, O'Connor enrolled in classes in January 2014. The Ottawa, Ontario, Canada native transitioned to the academic rigors, got acclimated to the strength and conditioning program and took full advantage of the 15 spring practices. O'Connor made good strides with the offense each time he stepped onto the field. The 6-4 signal-caller finished 11-of-16 for 81 yards in his first Nittany Lion outing in the Blue-White game. An Under Armour All-America game selection, O'Connor was among the nation's top rated quarterbacks in the class of 2014. Playing for Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Chris Weinke at IMG Academy, he threw for 1,804 yards and 18 touchdowns in 2013. O'Connor brings excellent skills and physical attributes to the field. With continued progress in the weight room and on the field during his first year in the program, O'Connor will look to challenge for playing time this fall. O'Connor earned Dean's List recognition during the spring semester, posting a 3.67 grade-point average. He joins running back Akeel Lynch as Nittany Lions from Canada.

➤ High School

Canada native O'Connor spent his final two years of high school in the United States, playing his junior season at the Baylor School in Tennessee before attending IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla., as a senior. Playing for Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Chris Weinke, IMG's head coach, he led IMG Academy to an 8-2 record. O'Connor threw for 1,804 yards and 18 touchdowns to earn Under Armour All-American honors as a senior. O'Connor completed 54 percent of his passes (118of-218), threw just five interceptions and ran for a pair of touchdowns in 10 starts for the Ascenders. He also rushed and passed for more than 1,000 yards during his junior season at Baylor School. O'Connor was rated a four-star recruit by ESPN, Rivals.com and 247Sports.com and ranked as a top 15 quarterback nationally by three of the four primary recruiting services. He was an ESPN 300 recruit and listed among TheRivals250. O'Connor also was rated among the top 35 prospects in the state of Florida by ESPN, Rivals.com and 247Sports.com.

ANTHONY SMITH

6-0 ➤ 196 ➤ So./So. Eligible

Safety ➤ Dover, N.J.

Anthony Smith had demonstrated his versatility and team-first attitude prior to matriculating to Penn State, qualities that will greatly aid his efforts to earn time in the secondary rotation this season. Smith shifted to safety during spring practice after playing cornerback and working as a long-snapper last season. A sophomore, Smith likely will compete with seniors Ryan Keiser and Jesse Della Valle for snaps at free safety. As a true freshman in 2013, Smith played in three games, primarily on special teams, and made one tackle. When Smith was a youth football player, he began longsnapping, a role he continued in 2012 at Valley Forge (Pa.) Military Academy and practiced last year. He is one of 12 returning players on the roster from New Jersey and was among four Garden State products to matriculate to Penn State in 2013.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Smith was one of 12 true freshmen to earn their stripes as he appeared in a trio of games on the special teams units. He participated in the season-opening win over Syracuse in MetLife Stadium. Smith made his first collegiate tackle on a kickoff return against Eastern Michigan. He also saw game action in the prime time contest against UCF.

➤ Prep School

Smith was the team MVP for coach Josh Sands at Valley Forge (Pa.) Military Academy in 2012, grabbing seven interceptions from his cornerback position. When the starting quarterback was injured in the first game of the season, Smith stepped in behind center and also served as the team's long snapper. Smith's Valley Forge squad squared off against 2013 Nittany Lion freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg's Fork Union Military Academy team during the 2012 season.

➤ High School

Smith was selected second-team All-West New Jersey, first-team All-Sussex County and first-team All-Northwest Jersey Athletic Conference as a senior for coach Brian Carlson at Pope John XIII High School in Sparta, N.J. He grabbed three interceptions, had 12 pass breakups and 25 tackles as a senior and was named first-team All-Defense by the New Jersey Herald. During his junior campaign in 2010, Smith helped the Lions to an undefeated regular-season. He was a three-year letterman under Carlson and the late Vic Paternostro, who coached Pope John XIII for 43 seasons and is New Jersey's all-time prep football victories leader. Smith was invited to the Paul Robeson All-Star Football Classic and the Big 33 Classic. He was selected a team captain during his senior year. He also lettered in baseball.

➤ Personal

Full name is Anthony Smith. He is the son of Brian Shaw, and has a younger sister, Aheelah Shaw. He plans to enroll in the Smeal College of Business. Born October 22, 1993 in Dover, N.J.

47 BRANDON SMITH

6-0 ➤ 225 ➤ So./Fr. Eligible

Fullback > Winfield, Pa.

Brandon Smith turned down offers from Penn and Princeton in order to fulfill his dream, an opportunity to play at Penn State. A three-time all-state honoree and superb student at Lewisburg High School, one hour from Happy Valley, Smith will be seeking a chance to see time in the backfield rotation this fall. A redshirt freshman, Smith owned a 3.87 grade-point average after the spring semester and is a potential Academic All-Big Ten candidate. He is among 17 returning Nittany Lions from Central Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

76 DONOVAN SMITH

Tackle ➤ Owings Mills, Md.

Donovan Smith enters his junior campaign as one of the Nittany Lions' most talented and experienced players and an All-Big Ten candidate. He brings excellent physical attributes, toughness and intensity to the left tackle position. Smith was selected first-team preseason All-Big Ten by USA Today and Lindy's and second-team all-conference by Athlon Sports and Phil Steele's College Football Preview. He started 11 games last year and has 20 career starts over the past two seasons, the team's third-highest total. His passion and dedicated efforts have enabled him to add more than $\,$ 10 pounds of muscle to his 6-5 frame in the strength and conditioning program since last season. Smith and senior guard Miles Dieffenbach will be counted on to provide leadership for an offensive line unit that lost three starters and two key reserves. Among one of the squad's leaders in the weight room, he has lifted more than 400 pounds in the bench press and 500 pounds in the squat. An honorable-mention All-Big Ten choice last year, Smith was instrumental in helping Penn State gain at least 350 yards in every game, scoring at least 23 points nine times. He helped Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year Christian Hackenberg throw for 2,955 yards and 20 touchdowns, breaking 12 school freshman and all-time game and season passing records, and Zach Zwinak and Bill Belton combine to rush for 1,792 yards. The former Owings Mills High School All-American helped the Nittany Lions rush for 250 yards or better four times last season, topped by 289 yards in the win over Purdue. Smith and the O-Line boosted Bill Belton to the team's first 200-yard rushing effort since 2002 against Illinois (201 yards) and paved the way for 250 rushing yards and 240 passing yards in the win over the Illini. Smith is on schedule to graduate in December with a degree in criminology. Among the conference's top returning offensive tackles, Smith is one of seven returning Nittany Lions from Maryland.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Anchoring the left side of the offensive line, Smith started 11 games, giving him 20 career starts. He was instrumental in helping Penn State gain at least 350 yards in every game, scoring at least 23 points nine times. Smith helped Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year Christian Hackenberg throw for 2,955 yards and 20 touchdowns, breaking 12 school freshman and all-time game and season passing records, and Zach Zwinak and Bill Belton combine to rush for 1,792 yards. Smith was instrumental in Penn State rushing for 250 yards or better four times during the season. He helped the Lions gain 574 yards of total offense against Eastern Michigan, their most since 2008 against Coastal Carolina (594 yards). He helped pave the way for a 287-yard rushing effort against Kent State, which was Penn State's most rushing yards in a game, at the time, since gaining 338 yards at Illinois in 2009. He was instrumental in protecting Hackenberg at Indiana, allowing him to complete 30 passes for 340 yards and three touchdowns. He helped clear the way for 390 yards of total offense and five touchdowns in the four-overtime win over Michigan, including the first two rushing touchdowns allowed all season by the Wolverines. Smith and the O-Line boosted Bill Belton to the team's first 200-yard rushing effort since 2002 against Illinois (201 yards) and paved the way for 250 rushing yards and 240 passing yards in the win over the Illini. He helped open running lanes for Zach Zwinak's 150 yards rushing at Minnesota and his 149 yards and three rushing touchdowns in the win over Purdue. Smith and the O-Line led the way for a season-high 289 rushing yards and 501 total yards, a season-high against a Big Ten foe, in the 45-21 win over the Boilermakers. He blocked for Zwinak's 149-yard rushing effort in the Nebraska game and helped open running lanes for Zwinak's 115 yards in the big win at No. 14 Wisconsin, marking the only 100-yard rusher allowed by the Badgers in 2013. Smith and the O-Line also protected Hackenberg, who completed 21-of-30 passes for 339 yards — including three completions of 50 yards or longer — and four touchdowns with no interceptions in the big win over the Badgers. Penn State delivered the four longest plays from scrimmage against Wisconsin all season — completions of 68, 52 and 59 yards and Zwinak's

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Smith appeared in 10 games with nine starts at left tackle. For his efforts, he was selected to the ESPN.com Big Ten All-Freshman team. Smith earned the starting nod the first two games of the season, but a sprained ankle at Virginia forced him to miss the next two contests. He returned to the field in the 35-7 victory at Illinois and moved back into the starting lineup for the dramatic comeback win over No. 24 Northwestern to begin a string of seven straight starts. Smith was instrumental in helping the Nittany Lions lead the Big Ten in total offense (437.0 ypg) in conference games and ranking second in scoring offense (32.6 ppg) and passing offense (283.1 ypg) against Big Ten foes. He helped Penn State gain more than 500 yards of total offense three times in conference play, topped by 546 yards against Indiana, its highest total against a Big Ten foe since gaining 557 yards against Michigan State in 2008. Smith was instrumental in helping pave the way for 1,000-yard rusher Zach Zwinak and protecting quarterback Matt McGloin during his record-setting 2012 campaign.

12 JORDAN SMITH

5-11 ➤ 183 ➤ So./So. Eligible

Cornerback > Upper Marlboro, Md.

Cornerback Jordan Smith enters his sophomore campaign in Happy Valley looking to make a larger impact in the secondary rotation and continue his role on special teams. Smith, one of 12 true freshmen to see action in 2013, played in all 12 games on defense and special teams, recording five tackles, with two stops at Ohio State. He has made good strides and with continued progress on the practice field and in the weight room, Smith should be among the primary contributors at corner and on special teams this fall. Smith is looking to add his name to the long line of talented and productive Penn State players that hail from metropolitan Washington, D.C. The former H.D. Woodson High School standout is a childhood friend of former Nittany Lion cornerback Stephon Morris, also a Capital District product, and is wearing the No. 12 Morris wore from 2009-12. Smith is among nine Nittany Lions from metro Washington, D.C.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Smith garnered playing time in all 12 games as a true freshman in the secondary and on special teams. He was among the dozen true freshmen who saw action during the season. Smith recorded five tackles (three solo) for the season. He registered his first career tackle with a solo stop on the kickoff return against Kent State. He made a pair of tackles, one on a kickoff return and the other from the cornerback slot, at No. 4 Ohio State. Smith added one stop each in the Minnesota and Purdue games.

➤ High School

Smith compiled 129 tackles, seven interceptions, seven sacks and 12 pass breakups during his sophomore and junior seasons as a defensive back at Archbishop Carroll High School. As a junior, he accounted for 64 tackles, with seven pass breakups, four sacks and a pair of safeties. Smith also grabbed five interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. His sophomore season included 65 stops, five pass breakups, two interceptions and three sacks. A team captain, Smith also had more than 800 career receiving yards, including 427 yards and three receiving touchdowns as a freshman. Smith attended H.D. 3 DEANDRE THOMPKINS

5-11 ➤ 173 ➤ Fr./Fr. Eligible

Wide Receiver ➤ Hubert, N.C.

DeAndre Thompkins possesses the skills and speed every head coach wants to see in a wide receiver. Clocked as the team's fastest player in the 40-yard dash during spring testing, true freshman Thompkins is poised to make an immediate impact on the Nittany Lion receiving corps. He enrolled at Penn State in January 2014 and has made a good transition to the academic and football requirements and routine. Among the nation's top high school receivers at Swansboro High School, Thompkins was ranked 66th in the 2014 ESPN 300 and played in the Under Armour All-America game and was invited to ESPN's "The Opening." The multi-talented wideout saw time at running back and in the defensive secondary, along with returning kickoffs and punts. He amassed more than 2,000 all-purpose yards during his junior season and gained nearly 1,500 all-purpose yards as a senior. With the departure of two-time Big Ten Receiver-of-the-Year Allen Robinson and senior Brandon Felder, Thompkins is on track to make a seamless transition into the wide receiver rotation in the fall. Thompkins is among two Nittany Lions from North Carolina, joining Hunter Crafford.

➤ High School

Von Walker's hometown, Mill Hall, Pa., is just 35 miles from State College. Having followed Penn State most of this life, little did he know that he would quickly emerge into a contributor in his freshman season with the Nittany Lions. Walker's athletic ability and nose for the football earned the Central Mountain High School all-state player a spot on special teams as a kick and punt returner, ranking second on the team in both categories, and as a coverage player. Seeing action in 11 games during the 2013 campaign, Walker began the season at running back and was shifted to safety as the season progressed. This past spring brought a change to outside linebacker, where he likely will battle Brandon Bell for time at one of the OLB posts, in addition to special teams duty. Walker earned a 3.14 grade-point average during the 2013 fall semester and is a potential Academic All-Big Ten candidate. He is among 17 returning Nittany Lions from Central Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Walker was an all-purpose player last season, seeing time on offense, defense and special teams. He appeared in 11 games as a true freshman, joining a group of 12 players to earn that distinction. Walker began the season at running back, but was shifted to safety at mid-season. He had seven rushing attempts for 18 yards, returned six kickoffs for 99 yards, including a long of 23, and returned four punts for 19 yards. He made four tackles (three solo) and saw action on all four kickoff and punting units. In his first collegiate game, he had one stop on a punt return in the season-opening win over Syracuse at MetLife Stadium. In the Eastern Michigan victory, Walker had three carries for eight yards, a punt return for a season-long 22 yards and one tackle on special teams. He continued his special teams contributions with three kickoff returns for 56 yards, including one return for 23 yards, against UCF. Walker added four carries for 10 yards and a 15-yard kick return against Kent State, followed by a 14-yard kick return in the four-overtime win over No. 18 Michigan. He contributed one tackle against Purdue and in the 31-24 win at No. 14 Wisconsin. He missed the Nebraska game due to an injury.

➤ High School

Walker was a dual-threat quarterback and defensive back for coach Vinny Kishbaugh at Central Mountain High School. He ended his career owning 14 school records, including points in a game (32) and points in season (118). Walker was named to the 2012 Pennsylvania Sports Writers Class AAAA all-state team. During his career, Walker recorded 179 tackles, nine sacks and three interceptions. He compiled more than 3,600 rushing yards and threw for over 1,600 yards in his career, playing quarterback his junior and senior seasons. A four-year letterman, Walker rushed for over 1,500 yards and threw for more than 1,000 yards, with 10 touchdown passes, as a senior for the Wildcats. He logged 900 yards rushing and 600 yards passing as a junior and rushed for 700 yards as a sophomore. He also lettered all four years in basketball and three times in baseball, garnering all-state honors as an outfielder as a senior.

UPLIFTING ATHLETES NAMES OFFICERS FOR 2014

Along with newly named president Ben Kline, the Nittany Lions Uplifting Athletes officers for the 2014 season include: vice president – junior running back Deron Thompson; secretary – sophomore tight end Adam Breneman; director of marketing – junior tight end Jesse James; compliance manager – redshirt sophomore running back Akeel Lynch and director of fundraising – redshirt sophomore tight end Brent Wilkerson. Former football squad members and current Penn State students Joe Marvin (treasurer) and Bryce Wilson (director of operations) also are among the new officers.

Uplifting Athletes is a full-service national nonprofit organization aligning college football with rare diseases and raising them as a national priority through research, outreach, education and advocacy. What makes Uplifting Athletes unique is that the university chapters are run by current football student-athletes, providing them with an opportunity to gain management and leadership skills while learning how to leverage their assets and abilities to make a positive and lasting impact.

5 NYEEM WARTMAN

6-1 ➤ 236 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Linebacker > Philadelphia, Pa.

The Nittany Lions will enter the season with more depth at the linebacker unit than in 2013, thanks in part to the development of Nyeem Wartman. A redshirt sophomore, he played in every game last year, making eight starts. With senior Mike Hull moving to middle linebacker, Wartman will be a primary candidate to earn significant snaps at one of the outside linebacker positions. A highly-skilled and physical player who loves to hit, Wartman was 10th on the squad with 32 tackles last year. The former Valley View High School All-American made his first career start in the 2013 season-opening win over Syracuse after taking a medical redshirt season in 2012. Wartman is a tough and instinctive player with a great deal of potential and has an opportunity to join the long line of productive Nittany Lions who played in Northeast Pennsylvania. He was selected to the 2013 Academic All-Big Ten team. Wartman is among 15 returning Nittany Lions from Eastern Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

After a medical redshirt season in 2012, Wartman made his first career start against Syracuse in the season-opener. He played in every game, making eight starts, and finished the season with 32 tackles, good for 10th on the team. Wartman recorded 2.5 tackles for loss, one sack, four pass breakups and one forced fumble. He made three solo tackles in the win over the Orange. He recorded six tackles (four solo) and a team-best three pass breakups in the win over Eastern Michigan. Wartman added three stops against UCF and logged two tackles and a pass breakup in the 34-0 win over Kent State. Wartman excelled in the four-overtime victory over No. 18 Michigan with a career-best eight tackles and his first career tackle for a loss. He was in on three stops on the Wolverines' last drive in regulation, with the three carries resulting in minus-two yards, to help force a punt. Wartman carried the momentum into the next game, at No. 4 Ohio State, where he notched five tackles, three of which were solo stops. Wartman produced his first career sack and forced fumble, while adding two tackles, in the 45-21 win over Purdue. In the home-finale with Nebraska, Wartman made one tackle for loss. He closed out the season with a pair of solo stops in the huge 31-24 win at No. 14 Wisconsin. Wartman was selected to the 2013 Academic All-Big Ten team.

➤ 2012 ➤ Freshman Season

Wartman played in the first two games, but suffered a knee injury on the opening kickoff at Virginia in the second contest. The injury sidelined him for the final 10 games and he was granted a medical redshirt. Wartman made his presence felt in the season-opener against Ohio, blocking a second-quarter punt at the Bobcats' 25-yard line that the Nittany Lions converted into a touchdown. He also made one solo tackle against Ohio. Wartman was among six true freshmen to play during the season.

➤ High School

Wartman earned All-America, all-state, all-region and All-Lackawanna Conference honors as a senior at Valley View High School. Playing for coach George Howanitz, he was named the Scranton Times-Tribune Defensive Player-of-the-Year and helped lead the Cougars to the school's first District 2-3A championship in 2011. As a senior, he recorded 120 tackles, with 10 tackles for loss, and one interception, giving him a school-record 387 stops. A two-time team captain, Wartman also was an all-region and all-conference selection as a sophomore and junior, delivering 66 and 115 tackles, respectively. Wartman was invited to play in the Offense/Defense All-American game and the Big 33 Classic as a senior. He was the WNEP-TV Dream Team Defensive Player-of-the-Year. Wartman also lettered in basketball and track and field, helping Valley View to the District 2-3A 400-meter relay title as a senior.

93 ANTOINE WHITE

6-1 ➤ 286 ➤ Fr./Fr. Eligible

Defensive Tackle > Millville, N.J.

With both defensive tackle starters from last season having departed, an opportunity awaits Antoine White during his first season on campus. As one of the squad's five early enrollees in January, White has greatly benefitted academically and during spring practice and the off-season strength and conditioning workouts. He has added more than 10 pounds to his frame since arriving on campus and will enter preseason camp with a chance to quickly earn a spot in the defensive line rotation. White was an all-state selection and the South Jersey Defensive Player-of-the-Year as a senior at Millville High School. His athleticism was on display with an 88-yard interception return for a touchdown. White's talents and size and additional time in the strength and conditioning program give him an opportunity to make an impact during his true freshman campaign. White is among 12 Nittany Lion spring practice returnees from New Jersey.

➤ High School

White was a three-year letterman for coach Jason Durham at Millville High School. He earned first-team all-state and South Jersey Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors after piling up 70 tackles, one forced fumble and two interceptions. He returned one of the interceptions 88 yards for a touchdown. White was a three-time first-team All Cape-Atlantic League selection, a two-time team captain and second-team All-South Jersey as a junior for the Thunderbolts. He was invited to play in the Chesapeake Bowl following his senior season. White was rated a three-star recruit by all four of the major recruiting services and was nationally ranked as a top 50 defensive tackle by Rivals. com and 247Sports.com. He also was a top 25 prospect coming out of New Jersey according to ESPN, Rivals.com and 247Sports.com. He also was a member of the Leaders Club and the Key Club at Millville.

50 MIKE WIAND

6-0 ➤ 222 ➤ So./Fr. Eligible

Linebacker ➤ Mifflinburg, Pa.

Mike Wiand enters his redshirt freshman campaign looking to add depth to the linebacker unit and earn a spot in the rotation or on special teams. He was born in nearby Lewisburg, Pa., on January 1, 1995, on the eve of the 1994 Nittany Lions winning the program's first Rose Bowl to culminate a spectacular 12-0 campaign. Wiand is among 17 returning Nittany Lions from Central Pennsylvania.

➤ 2013 ➤ Freshman Season

Redshirt season. Wiand made two tackles and had a pass breakup in the 2014 Blue-White game.

➤ High School

A standout on the field and in the classroom, Wiand was a four-year starter at linebacker for head coach Jason Dressler at Mifflinburg Area High School. He graduated with honors and as a member of the National Honor Society after he missed his senior season due to injury. Wiand was a three-time first-team All-Heartland Athletic Conference I selection and was named to the District 4 all-star team three times, including first-team honors as a sophomore and junior. Wiand helped the Wildcats to the Heartland Athletic Conference I championship as a junior and was invited to the U.S. Army All-American Combine. He was invited to the District 4 North-South All-Star game and the Mid-Atlantic North-South game following his senior season. Wiand also lettered in basketball and track and field.

11 BRENT WILKERSON

6-3 ➤ 247 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Tight End ➤ Clinton, Md.

The Nittany Lions will have plenty of options amongst one of the nation's deepest and most talented tight end units in 2014. Returning from a back injury that kept him off the field last season, Brent Wilkerson has been a dedicated force in his rehabilitation and preparation to try and play a significant role on the offense this fall. An athlete with good size and speed, he made big strides on the field during spring practice and had one catch in the Blue-White game. A smooth route runner with strong hands, Wilkerson will join returnees Adam Breneman, Kyle Carter and Jesse James to form one of the most formidable tight end groups in the nation. A former first-team all-met selection at DeMatha Catholic High School, Wilkerson is the director of fundraising with Penn State's Uplifting Athletes chapter, which has raised more than $825,000 for kidney cancer patients, their families and research since the first Penn State Lift For Life was held in 2003. Wilkerson is one of seven returning Nittany Lions from Maryland.

10 TREVOR WILLIAMS

Cornerback > Baltimore, Md.

The 2013 season was one of transition for Trevor Williams, as he shifted from wide receiver to comerback during spring drills. Williams grabbed hold of a starting assignment in preseason camp and played in all 12 games, making six starts. With senior Adrian Amos returning to safety, Williams will be among the primary candidates to earn a starting berth in the talented and experienced secondary. The athletic and instinctive Williams ranked 11th in the Big Ten with 10 passes defended last season. He made 24 tackles (17 solo) and was third on the team with two interceptions. Both of his picks were big ones, coming in Penn State territory in the fourth quarter of wins over Syracuse and Wisconsin away from Beaver Stadium. Williams joins fellow secondary mates Amos and Da'Quan Davis as former Calvert Hall College High School teammates who are playing for the Nittany Lions. They are among seven former Maryland prep standouts who return to the Penn State roster for the 2014 campaign.

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

Williams moved from wide receiver to cornerback during spring practice and played in all 12 games, earning six starts. He recorded 24 tackles and was tied for 11th in the Big Ten with 10 passes defended. He also notched eight pass breakups and snagged a pair of interceptions, returning them 33 yards. Williams made his second career start (Ohio State, 2012 at wide receiver), and first on defense, in the season-opening win over Syracuse in MetLife Stadium. He registered three tackles and picked off a pass on the sidelines with 1:56 remaining in the game to seal the victory over the Orange. Against UCF, he tied for the team-high with a career-best six tackles (four solo) and had two pass breakups. Williams accounted for five tackles and a pass breakup in the 34-0 shutout of Kent State. He posted three tackles in the four-overtime win against No. 18 Michigan and had a tackle and a pass breakup against Nebraska. In the season-finale at No. 14 Wisconsin, Williams hauled in his second interception of the season with a fourth-quarter pick deep in Penn State territory. He returned the pick 33 yards to set up a Christian Hackenberg to Geno Lewis touchdown pass for a 31-14 lead. Williams also collected three stops and a pass breakup in the huge win over the Badgers.

➤ 2012 ➤ Freshman Season

Williams appeared in all 12 games and was among six true freshmen to make their debut. A wide receiver, he made 10 receptions for 97 yards and returned four kickoffs for an average of 19.8 yards, making his first career start against Ohio State. Williams made his first career catch, good for 24 yards, on fourth-and-12 in the win over Navy for Bill O'Brien's first head coaching victory. He made one catch for nine yards in the victory over Temple and had one grab for seven yards in the thrilling 39-28 comeback win over No. 24 Northwestern. Williams caught a season-high two passes in each of the wins at Iowa and at Purdue, posting 15 and 22 yards, respectively. Williams made his first career start against Ohio State and made one reception for eight yards. He had one catch for 14 yards and two kickoff returns for 46 yards in the 45-22 win over Indiana.

> High School

Williams was first-team all-state and second-team All-Maryland Interscholastic Athletic Association (MIAA) as a senior at Calvert Hall College High School. Playing for coach Donald Davis, he helped the Cardinals win their first MIAA championship since 1982. A two-time team captain, he caught 99 passes for 1,180 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior. He gained all-met honors and also was an All-MIAA pick as a junior. Williams was invited to play in the Maryland Crab Bowl and the Chesapeake Bowl all-star contests after his senior season.

GARY WOOTEN

6-2 ➤ 237 ➤ Jr./So. Eligible

Linebacker ➤ Miami, Fla.

Redshirt sophomore Gary Wooten has an opportunity to play a much larger role for the Nittany Lion defense this season. Wooten has progressively improved during his two years in the program and he played an important role on special teams in 2013. The South Florida product will look to challenge Mike Hull for snaps at middle linebacker and add athleticism and playmaking skills to the defense and special teams. Wooten saw action in 10 games last season and has a promising future. The Hialeah Senior High School standout recorded six tackles, led by three in the season-ending victory at No. 14 Wisconsin. Wooten will be joined by freshman defensive back Amani Oruwariye as 2014 Nittany Lions from the Sunshine State

➤ 2013 ➤ Sophomore Season

After redshirting the 2012 season, Wooten saw his first collegiate action in the home-opener against Eastern Michigan. CHASZ WRIGHT

6-7 ➤ 321 ➤ Fr./Fr. Eligible

Tackle ➤ Woodbridge, Va.

With the top two right tackles from 2013 competing for an NFL roster spot, the battle for time in the tackle rotation will be fierce when preseason camp opens in August. One of the squad's five early enrollees, true freshman Chasz Wright will be among the primary candidates looking to bolster the offensive line depth and earn snaps on Saturdays. The 6-7 Wright made strong progress during spring practice and in the weight room, adding more than 10 pounds of muscle since his January arrival. He was a two-way standout lineman at C.D. Hylton High School before attending Milford Academy in New York in 2013. Wright has good skills and physical attributes and was a highly rated prospect last year. Wright is one of five Nittany Lions from Virginia.

➤ High School

Wright was a three-year letterman at C.D. Hylton High School for head coach Tony Lily. He was a two-way player for the Bulldogs, earning first-team all-district honors his last three years. Wright also garnered second-team all-region during his sophomore and junior campaigns. He attended Milford (N.Y.) Academy in 2013 and helped the Falcons to a 9-3 record. The anchor on the offensive line, Wright helped the offense pile up 2,247 yards rushing and more than 2,700 yards passing. Milford Academy averaged 37.9 points per game with 18 rushing touchdowns and 25 passing scores. Wright also posted nine tackles (five solo), with three tackles for loss in two games on the defensive line, before anchoring the offensive line the remainder of the season. He was rated a three-star recruit by all four of the major recruiting services. Wright was ranked as the No. 2 prospect in the state of New York by 247Sports.com.

80 MATT ZANELLATO

Wide Receiver > Burke, Va.

Matt Zanellato enters the season prepared to play a more impactful role in the passing game. One of just three Nittany Lion returning wide receivers who made a reception in 2013, the redshirt junior will bring skills and experience to a youthful receiving corps in the fall. Possessing good physical attributes, drive and leaping ability, he is recognized as being among the squad's hardest workers in the weight room. Zanellato saw action in all 12 games last fall and made good strides in a bigger role on the offense during spring practice. The former Lake Braddock Secondary School all-state honoree started for the Blue team in the 2014 spring game and made two receptions for 68 yards, including a 56-yard touchdown catch. Last year, he made four catches for 53 yards, including two receptions in the season-opening win over Syracuse in MetLife Stadium. With continued progress on the field and in the weight room, Zanellato should have an opportunity to play a significant role this fall. Zanellato garnered Dean's List recognition by earning a superlative 3.87 grade-point average during the 2014 spring semester. He is an Academic All-Big Ten candidate who is on schedule to graduate in December. Zanellato is one of five Nittany Lions from Virginia and among nine players from metropolitan Washington, D.C.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Zanellato made significant progress on the practice field and in the weight room to increase his playing time. Seeing action in all 12 games, he made four receptions for 53 yards. Zanellato had a season-high two receptions for 21 yards in the season-opening win over Syracuse in MetLife Stadium. He also had one reception against Eastern Michigan and at Minnesota.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

Zanellato saw action in eight games during his first year on the field. He made two receptions for 19 yards. Zanellato recorded his first career reception, good for eight yards on a touchdown drive, in the 34-9 win at Purdue. He also pulled in an 11-yard reception during a touchdown drive in the 45-22 win over Indiana.

NINE-GAME BIG TEN SLATE IN 2016

Big Ten teams will play eight conference games from 2013-15, with a nine-game conference schedule starting in 2016. The Nittany Lions will play their six East Division rivals and three West Division teams that rotate starting in 2016.

Penn State and all East Division teams will have five Big Ten home games in 2016 and in evennumbered years thereafter.

98 ANTHONY ZETTEL

Defensive Tackle ➤ West Branch, Mich.

One of the most significant position changes during the off-season brought Anthony Zettel from defensive end to the interior defensive line. Both starting defensive tackles from last season, Kyle Baublitz and DaQuan Jones, have departed. Zettel has consistently demonstrated the ability to make big plays during his initial two seasons on the field and will be a primary contender for a starting assignment. One of the squad's hardest workers and fiercest competitors, Zettel's efforts during the off-season strength and conditioning program have resulted in adding more than 15 pounds of muscle. The coaching staff recognized Zettel's play at his new position by selecting him as the recipient of the Jim O'Hora Award, presented to the defense's most improved player during spring practice. Despite starting only two games last season, the strong and physical Zettel ranked second on the team in sacks (4.0) and third in tackles for loss (6.0). More than 35 percent of Zettel's 16 tackles last fall resulted in a minus-yardage play, a remarkable ratio for the intense and passionate Michigan native. He played in all 12 games in 2013, making starts in the wins over Michigan and Illinois. In his first career start, against No. 18 Michigan, he grabbed his first career interception, returning it 18 yards to set up a touchdown. Zettel is among three defensive returnees from Michigan, joining linebacker Charles Idemudia and defensive end C.J. Olaniyan.

➤ 2013 ➤ Junior Season

Zettel continued his progression and exhibited a nose for the ball, finishing second on the team with 4.0 sacks (minus-32) and collecting 6.0 tackles for loss (minus-43). More than 35 percent of Zettel's tackles during the season resulted in a TFL. Playing in all 12 games, with a pair of starts, he recorded 16 tackles (11 solo), with two pass breakups and one interception. Zettel had two tackles against UCF and recorded a sack for a nine-yard loss in the Big Ten-opener at Indiana. Zettel made his first career start against Michigan, accounting for three stops (two solo). In the four-overtime win over the No. 18 Wolverines, Zettel grabbed his first career interception, returning it 18 yards to set up a touchdown that would give Penn State a 14-0 lead. Zettel made four stops at No. 4 Ohio State, including 2.0 TFL for minus-11 yards, and recorded one sack for minus-11 yards in the win over Illinois, in his second start of the season. Zettel posted a tackle and a pass breakup in the victory over Purdue. He finished the season strong with two sacks for minus-12 yards and a quarterback hurry in the 31-24 win at No. 14 Wisconsin.

➤ 2012 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Zettel played in all 12 games and made an immediate impact when he took the field. He made 15 tackles (10 solo), recording 4.0 sacks and adding two pass breakups. His 4.0 sacks (minus-19) were tied for third on the team and tied with linebacker Mike Hull for the most among non-starters. Zettel made three tackles against Ohio in his Nittany Lion debut. He delivered a big six-tackle effort that included two sacks (minus-15 yards) in the 34-7 win over Navy in Bill O'Brien's first career head coaching victory. Zettel recorded a sack during a two-tackle effort in the 38-14 prime time victory at lowa. He made one solo stop and had a pass breakup in the 34-9 win at Purdue and recorded a sack in the win over Indiana.

➤ 2011 ➤ Freshman Season

28 ZACH ZWINAK

Running Back ➤ Frederick, Md.

Cut from an old-school mentality, Zach Zwinak is ready to deliver a blow on every play with a downhill, physically-punishing running style. Zwinak enters his senior season with 1,996 career rushing yards to rank No. 18 on the all-time Penn State list. Having posted one 1,000-yard rushing season and missed a second by just 11 yards, a third similar season would put Zwinak near elite territory, as just six Nittany Lions all-time have eclipsed 3,000 career yards. While some players and teams begin to wear down when the calendar turns to November, Zwinak gets stronger, having posted eight of his 11 career 100-yard rushing games in the month that defines a team's regularseason. In fact, the former Linganore High School All-American has eclipsed the century mark on the ground in the last four games in each of the past two seasons. The relentless Zwinak tallied 563 yards in Penn State's final four games of last season. The hard-nosed runner's 11 100-yard games are tied with D.J. Dozier for 10th place on the all-time Penn State list. Zwinak combined with classmate Bill Belton to rush for 1,792 yards last season and they, along with sophomore Akeel Lynch (358 yards), should comprise one of the Big Ten's most formidable backfields. Zwinak gained a team-high 989 yards on 210 carries (4.7) last season and scored 12 rushing touchdowns. He delivered the team's longest rush of the season, a 61-yard burst late in the fourth quarter to help seal the big win at No. 14 Wisconsin. Playing in all 12 games, with eight starts, Zwinak ranked ninth in the Big Ten in overall rushing yardage at 82.4 yards per game. He was tied for seventh in the Big Ten with 12 touchdowns and ranked eighth in rushing yards per game (86.5) in conference games. Zwinak also brings a ferocious attitude in the strength and conditioning program and trimmed down by several pounds from last season to gain additional speed and quickness. Following another strong off-season in the weight room, Zwinak is primed to be a central figure in the Penn State offense this fall and a probable All-Big Ten candidate. Zwinak graduated in May with a degree in criminology. A starter in 12 career games, he is among seven returning Nittany Lions from Maryland.

➤ 2013 ➤ Senior Season

Finishing with 989 yards on the ground, Zwinak was just 11 yards shy of a second-straight 1,000-yard season. He combined with classmate Bill Belton to rush for 1,792 yards. Zwinak gained a team-high 989 yards on 210 carries (4.7) and scored 12 rushing touchdowns. Playing in all 12 games, with eight starts, Zwinak ranked ninth in the Big Ten in overall rushing yardage at 82.4 yards per game. He was tied for seventh in the Big Ten with 12 touchdowns and ranked eighth in rushing yards per game (86.5) in conference games. Zwinak tallied 563 yards in the final four games, gaining at least 115 yards in all four contests. He posted five 100-yard rushing games, giving him 11 in his career, good for a tie for 10th place with All-American D.J. Dozier. His 12 touchdowns were tied for ninth-highest in Penn State season history. He delivered the team's longest rush of the season, a critical 61-yard burst late in the fourth quarter in the big win at No. 14 Wisconsin. Zwinak gained 61 yards and caught the first pass of Christian Hackenberg's career, a five-yard grab, in the season-opening win over Syracuse. He had seven carries for 43 yards and a pair of touchdown runs in the win over Eastern Michigan. He had a 20-yard carry on third-and-24 to set up a fourth down conversion, which led to his second touchdown run against the Eagles. Zwinak posted his first 100-yard effort of the season against UCF, with 128 yards on 21 attempts. He ran for a career-high three touchdowns against the Knights and had a 38yard burst at the end of the third quarter to set up his third score of the game. He also made a 19-yard catch to total 147 all-purpose yards. On the Lions' fourth scoring drive against UCF, Zwinak rushed for 44 yards and added his lone reception to account for all 63 yards on the drive. Zwinak tied his career-high with three touchdowns in the win over Kent State. He carried the ball 15 times for 60 yards against the Golden Flashes, including a long of 20 yards in the third guarter. He ran for 72 yards on 17 carries in the Big Ten-opener at Indiana, including a long of 13 yards in the second quarter. Zwinak began a string of four consecutive 100-yard efforts at Minnesota, running for 150 yards on 26 carries and one touchdown. He had a 38-yard burst on the Lions' first scoring drive, gaining 61 yards on five carries on the drive, which he capped with a 12-yard touchdown run. He gained 149 yards on 26 attempts and scored three touchdowns in the 45-21 win over Purdue. The three touchdowns tied his career-high, which he has accomplished five times. Zwinak became the 16th player in school history to register 10-plus rushing touchdowns in a season and moved into a tie for ninth in school history for season rushing touchdowns with 12 (John Cappelletti, 1972; Evan Royster, 2008). Zwinak delivered his 10th career 100-yard rushing effort against Nebraska with 149 yards on 35 carries. The 35 carries were the second-most in his career (36; Wisconsin, 2012). Zwinak recorded his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game, and the 11th of his career, by gaining 115 yards on 22 carries in the big 31-24 win at No. 14 Wisconsin. Zwinak's 61-yard fourth-quarter burst led to a field goal attempt and was the longest run from scrimmage by a Nittany Lion and against the Badgers all season.

➤ 2012 ➤ Junior Season

Zwinak appeared in all 12 games with four starts, earning his first career start at Purdue and starting the final four games of the season. He delivered the 22nd 1,000-yard rushing season in Penn State history and gave the Nittany Lions a 1,000-yard running back for the eighth consecutive year. An honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection, Zwinak became the 14th different Nittany Lion all-time to crack 1,000 yards in a season. After gaining a total of 96 yards in four non-conference games, he delivered 904 yards in eight Big Ten games for an average of 113.0 yards per game, the fifth-highest total in conference play. For the season, Zwinak gained 1,000 yards on 203 carries (4.9) and scored six touchdowns on the ground. He delivered the team's longest rush of the season, a startling 50-yard touchdown burst on the first series of the game at No. 18 Nebraska. Zwinak also caught 20 passes for 177 yards and a score, ranking fifth on the team in receptions. His 1,177 all-purpose yards led the squad. He broke his career-high in rushing yards six times in the final nine games. During the initial three contests of the season, Zwinak had three carries for two yards at Virginia. In the fourth game, against Temple, he broke out with 94 yards on 18 carries and one catch for 12 yards. One week later, he notched his first career 100-yard effort, carrying the ball 19 times for 100 yards and two touchdowns in the 35-7 win at Illinois to become the 85th Nittany Lion all-time to rush for 100 yards in a game. Zwinak's fourth-quarter workload against the Illini included five consecutive carries for 31 yards, capped by his second one-yard touchdown run of the game. In the 39-28 comeback win over No. 24 Northwestern, Zwinak re-wrote his career-high in the third straight game, gaining 121 yards on 28 carries, with one touchdown. He became just the eighth Nittany Lion to compile his first two 100yard efforts in consecutive contests. Zwinak ran for 52 yards and had two catches for 24 yards in the 38-14 prime time win at Iowa. In his first career start, Zwinak's 134 yards on 21 carries (6.4 avg.) in the 34-9 victory at Purdue started a string of four consecutive 100-yard games to finish the season. He delivered another superb effort at No. 18 Nebraska, as he ran for 141 yards on 21 carries (6.7) and a touchdown. On the fourth play of the game, Zwinak's 50-yard burst up the middle for a score was Penn State's second-longest play from scrimmage and the longest rush of the season. He also made two catches for 37 yards, including a career-long 31-yard effort, against the Huskers for 178 all-purpose yards. Zwinak gained 135 yards on 29 carries and scored a touchdown in the win over Indiana, adding a 16-yard touchdown grab. He reached the 1,000-yard mark for the season exactly on the dot thanks to a career effort in the thrilling 24-21 overtime win over Wisconsin. He re-wrote his career-high for the sixth time of the season with 179 yards on a career-best 36 carries and made three catches for five yards to produce a team season-high and personal career-high 184 all-purpose yards.

➤ 2011 ➤ Sophomore Season

In his first season on the field, Zwinak appeared in two games and gained considerable experience on the practice field. He rushed for seven yards on three carries, gaining six yards in the win over Eastern Michigan. He also recorded a carry in the season-opener against Indiana State.

➤ 2010 ➤ Freshman Season

Redshirt season. Zwinak suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in an October practice and underwent surgery soon thereafter, ending his season.

➤ High School

Zwinak was rated the nation's No. 2 prep fullback at Linganore High School for coach Richard Conner. Zwinak was one of five future Nittany Lions selected to play in the 2010 U.S. Army All-American Bowl. He was named all-state after rushing for 1,447 yards as a junior. As a senior, he ran for 2,109 yards on 164 carries and scored 25 touchdowns. Zwinak was a prep teammate of former Nittany Lion offensive lineman Mike Lucian.

FOREVER BLUE & WHITE

ATHLETIC ENDOWMENTS

Join Penn State's proud athletic tradition. This is an opportunity to link your name in perpetuity with the accomplishments of all of Penn State's athletic teams.

By endowing a specific playing or coaching position on a team of your choice, you will help ensure that the University always will have funds available for expenses such as room and board, tuition and books; and that Penn State will be able to employ a first-rate coaching staff that will set a positive example for our young men and women.

As of June 2014, 29 benefactors already have seized the chance to endow a football position for the White Squad (see diagram below). The entire Blue Squad remains available.

This program is open to all positions on any of Penn State's 31 intercollegiate athletic teams in consideration of a gift of $300,000 and for a minimum commitment of $50,000 you can establish a named endowed scholarship to support the team of your choice.

Coaching endowments also are available in all 31 sports, with gift levels for assistant coaches starting at $500,000 and head coaches starting at $1 million. Patrick and Candace Malloy committed $5 million to create the Malloy Paterno Head Football Coach Endowment at Penn State.

The Malloys' gift will provide important resources for the football program. Income from the Malloy Paterno Head Football Coach Endowment will be directed, at the head coach's discretion and with approval from the director of athletics, to purposes ranging from academic support and special medical care for team members, to expenses associated with recruitment of student-athletes and coaching expenses, excluding salary supplements. Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics receives no state support for its programs and must cover the cost of fielding 31 varsity teams from ticket revenues and private giving.

The University invests endowed gifts in perpetuity and uses a portion of the annual income for the purposes intended by the donor. The remaining income is added to the principal to protect it from inflation and ensure its growth.

For more information on becoming a part of Penn State's proud athletic tradition, please call the Nittany Lion Club Office of Major Gifts at 814-863-GIFT (4438).

"I can't tell you how excited I am to come home. I grew up watching Penn State football and now to be at the helm of such a storied program is a tremendous honor."

EE

- JAMES FRANKLIN

JAMES JANIL

James Franklin, a Pennsylvania native who is one of the nation's most successful and dynamic coaches, is in his first season as the Penn State head football coach.

Franklin was named the 16th head football coach in the storied 127-year history of the Nittany Lion program on January 11, 2014.

The enthusiastic and passionate Franklin led Vanderbilt University to unprecedented success as head coach from 2011-13, winning nine games in each of the past two years, finishing in the Top 25 and winning bowl games in consecutive seasons, all for the first time in school history.

From Langhorne, Pa., a Philadelphia suburb, Franklin vowed to "Dominate The State" during his introductory news conference in Beaver Stadium. He has electrified Nittany Nation with his passion and vision for the program and ability to recruit premier student-athletes from across the nation. Franklin assembled a coaching staff that features a record of success and tremendous chemistry and familiarity with each other, Penn State and the region.

From Day 1, Franklin has reinforced the four core values for the Penn State program to return to national championship contention — a positive attitude, great work-ethic, competing on and off the field and the ability to sacrifice.

"Dr. Joyner and I stressed that our No. 1 priority in hiring a new coach was to hire an outstanding leader for our football program, one who will continue our long tradition of student-athlete success on the field and in the classroom," then-Penn State President Rodney Erickson said at the January news conference. "We have achieved that goal. Coach Franklin's record of success is extraordinary, but even more impressive is his passion for not only the game of football, but also creating an atmosphere in which student-athletes can succeed. His character, work-ethic, values and knowledge of the game make him an outstanding fit for our program and to lead our student-athletes."

Penn State and Vanderbilt annually rank among the nation's top institutions in the graduation of its football student-athletes. In the NCAA Graduation Success Rate data from October 2013, the Nittany Lions and Commodores both ranked among the leaders in the Football Bowl Subdivision. Penn State's 85 percent Graduation Success Rate was tied for 12th among the nation's 124 FBS programs and Vanderbilt's 82 percent GSR was tied for the best in the Southeastern Conference. Both programs were well above the 70 percent FBS graduation rate average.

"Our primary focus was to identify someone who shared our commitment to integrity, academics and winning championships," then-Director of Athletics Dave Joyner said at Franklin's introductory news conference. "Coach Franklin is a highly regarded coach and tremendous leader, but more importantly, he shares the same vision for Penn State football that we, and our fans, have for the program. His record shows that he takes great pride in the academic and athletic success of his student-athletes."

Franklin's tireless efforts and enthusiasm resulted in taking Vanderbilt to new heights over the past three years, posting a 24-15 record, including marks of 9-4 during each of the past two seasons, capped by bowl victories. The Commodores finished the 2013 season with five consecutive victories, with wins over Florida, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky in Southeastern Conference play, along with a win over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl. Franklin's 2012 squad finished the season with seven consecutive victories and posted Vanderbilt's first nine-win season since 1915.

A two-time All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) quarterback at East Stroudsburg University, Franklin has demonstrated the ability to recruit, teach and motivate talented student-athletes throughout his coaching tenure. He was named Vanderbilt's head coach on December 17, 2010 after three years as the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Maryland, his second stint with the Terps. Franklin was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kansas State in 2006-07 and the wide receivers coach of the NFL's Green Bay Packers (2005) prior to arriving in Nashville.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to come home," Franklin stated at his introductory press conference. "I grew up watching Penn State football and now to be at the helm of such a storied program is a tremendous honor. It's important to me to be a part of a University that strives for excellence in everything they do. When football student-athletes come to Penn State, they have a unique opportunity to receive a premium education while playing at the highest level of competition.

"I'm incredibly excited to get to know the students, alumni, and fans who have demonstrated such loyalty to the University as a whole and to the football program in particular," Franklin added. "I've worked my way through every division of football and no other school boasts a fan base like we do. We Are...Penn State!!"

Just days before he was named the Nittany Lions' head coach, the engaging and highly-detailed Franklin spent the day in Pasadena, Calif., appearing on multiple ESPN platforms throughout the day during the network's coverage of the BCS National Championship Game in the Rose Bowl.

Following spring practice and individual meetings with every player, Franklin spent a good portion of May criss-crossing the Commonwealth and Mid-Atlantic region on the Penn State Coaches Caravan. Attending all 17 Caravan events, Franklin met and spoke with more than 6,000 Penn State alumni, students, fans and former players in Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Washington, D.C. He did more than 50 interviews with local and national media over the three weeks to assist in introducing himself to Penn Staters and potential recruits and spreading his core values and vision of Penn State football.

In his 20th year in coaching, Franklin directed Vanderbilt to consecutive Top 25 finishes for the first time in the 124-year history of the program. The Commodores finished the 2013 season No. 24 in the Associated Press poll and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches survey. The 2012 Vanderbilt squad finished No. 23 and 20, respectively, marking its first AP final ranking since 1948. Franklin's 24 wins tied Dan McGugin for the most by a Vanderbilt coach in his first three seasons.

Franklin led Vanderbilt to a bowl game in each of his three seasons in Nashville, with the last two years resulting in wins over North Carolina State (Music City Bowl) and Houston (BBVA Compass Bowl). The Commodores had played in four bowl games all-time in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival, none in consecutive years.

Vanderbilt has posted four nine-win seasons in program history, with Franklin's last two teams comprising half of the total. Over the last 20 games during the 2012-13 seasons, the Commodores' 16-4 record was second-best in the SEC to Alabama's 17-3 mark

Franklin inherited a Vanderbilt team that finished 2-10 in both 2009 and 2010, including a 1-15 SEC mark. From 1983-2010, the Commodores had just one winning season (2008) prior to his arrival. His drive, coaching acumen and enthusiasm drove a quick turnaround in Vanderbilt's fortunes, as the team posted a 6-6 regular-season record and earned a berth in the Liberty Bowl during his first season. The 2011 bowl berth was Vanderbilt's second since 1983 and running back Zac Stacy broke the Vanderbilt season record with 1,193 rushing yards.

The Commodores had a breakthrough campaign in 2012 under Franklin, finishing on a seven-game winning streak (longest since 1948) to compile a 9-4 mark, Vanderbilt's most wins in 97 years. A victory at Missouri sparked an 8-1 finish, which included three consecutive SEC road wins for the first time in program history. The Commodores were 5-3 in SEC play, winning five SEC games for the first time since 1935, and recorded two shutouts for the first time since 1968. Vanderbilt defeated North Carolina State, 38-24, in the Liberty Bowl and Franklin was among five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach-of-the-Year. Stacy became the first player in Vanderbilt history to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons, gaining 1,141 yards to finish with a school-record 3,143 yards and 30 rushing touchdowns. Stacy started 12 games and ran for 973 yards and seven touchdowns as a rookie with the St. Louis Rams in 2013. Wide receiver Jordan Matthews broke the Vanderbilt season receiving record with 1,363 yards on 94 catches.

Vanderbilt continued its historic rise under Franklin during the 2013 season, capping a school-record second consecutive 9-4 campaign with a 41-24 win over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl. The Commodores defeated Florida, Georgia and Tennessee in the same season for the first time in program history, winning in Gainesville and Knoxville, and finished 4-4 in the SEC. Franklin helped Matthews develop into a two-time All-American and first-team All-SEC honoree, having compiled 262 career receptions for 3,759 yards and 24 touchdowns. He broke the SEC season record with 112 receptions for 1,477 yards and seven touchdowns this past season, becoming the first SEC receiver to make 100 catches in a season. Tackle Wesley Johnson also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the coaches and the Associated Press.

Franklin began his coaching career as the wide receivers coach at Kutztown University (1995) and was a graduate assistant coach at East Stroudsburg in 1996, working with the secondary. He then was the wide receivers coach at James Madison (1997), a graduate assistant (tight ends) at Washington State in 1998 and the wide receivers coach at Idaho State (1999).

In 2000, Franklin was named the wide receivers coach at Maryland under head coach Ron Vanderlinden, who would go on to coach the Penn State linebackers from 2001-13. Franklin continued in that role under new head coach Ralph Friedgen in 2002 and '03 and helped the Terps to three consecutive 10-win seasons, including an appearance in the 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl. In 2003, Franklin added duties as recruiting coordinator and directed back-to-back recruiting classes ranked in the Top 25 nationally. Franklin and former Nittany Lion head coach Bill O'Brien (running backs) were Maryland assistant coaches in 2003 and '04 under Friedgen.

After five successful years at Maryland, Franklin was named wide receivers coach on Mike Sherman's Green Bay Packers staff in 2005. During that season, Green Bay ranked third in the NFL in receptions (383) and seventh in receiving yards (3,766). Donald Driver was among the top receivers in the NFL, ranking second in receptions and eighth in receiving yards, with a then-career-high 86 catches for 1,221 yards.

Franklin served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kansas State during the 2006-07 seasons under head coach Ron Prince. In 2006, he helped the Wildcats to their first winning season in four years. Franklin coached quarterback Josh Freeman and oversaw an offense that produced a 3,000-yard passer (Freeman), 1,500-yard receiver (All-American wide receiver Jordy Nelson) and 1,000-yard rusher (James Johnson) during the 2007 season, a first in school history. Freeman would go on to become the Wildcats' highest NFL offensive draft pick since 1954 when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him 17th overall in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Franklin returned to Maryland in 2008 as the Terps' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He helped the Terrapins to victories in the 2008 Humanitarian Bowl and the 2010 Millitary Bowl. The 2010 squad was among the national leaders in scoring offense at 32.2 points per game and was led by ACC Rookie-of-the-Year quarterback Danny O'Brien. He threw for 2,438 yards, 22 touchdowns and only eight interceptions in 2010, with All-ACC receiver Torrey Smith making 67 catches for 1,055 yards and 12 scores.

In 1998, Franklin began his participation in the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, starting with a stint with the Miami Dolphins and working with Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Franklin also worked with Donovan McNabb with the Philadelphia Eagles (1999) and Minnesota Vikings (2008) in the NFL program.

Franklin was a four-year letterman at quarterback and a two-time All-PSAC selection at East Stroudsburg. He set seven school records as a senior to earn team MVP honors and was a Harlon Hill Trophy nominee as the NCAA Division II Player-of-the-Year. Among the season records he set were for total offense (3,128 yards), passing yards (2,586) and touchdown passes (19). Franklin graduated having broken or tied 23 school records.

Franklin graduated from East Stroudsburg in 1995 with a degree in psychology and earned a master's degree in educational leadership from Washington State University. Franklin graduated from Neshaminy High School in Langhorne.

Franklin and his wife, Fumi (foo-ME), have two daughters, Ava and Addison

➤ Coaching Accomplishments

- Helped Zac Stacy become the first player in Vanderbilt history to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons, rushing for 1,193 yards in 2011 and 1,141 yards in 2012. Stacy earned second-team All-SEC honors both years.
- Under Donovan's tutelage, Stacy became the Commodores' career leader in rushing yards (3.143) and rushing touchdowns (30) and was drafted by the NFL's St. Louis Rams in 2013.
- His Vanderbilt offenses posted three of the top four total yardage marks in school history, gaining at least 4,400 yards each season, including a school-record 4,936 yards in 2012.
- Vanderbilt averaged 30.0 points per game in 2012, marking the first time in school history Vanderbilt averaged 30 or more points per game, and followed with another program record of 30.1 points per game in 2013.
- Helped Jordan Matthews become Vanderbilt's and the SEC's career leader in receptions and receiving yards. Matthews was a two-time All-American and All-SEC honoree, becoming the first player in conference history with two 90-plus reception seasons, including a Southeastern Conference record 107 in 2013.
- Assumed offensive play-calling duties for Maryland in its 51-20 Military Bowl victory in 2010. He took over the offensive coordinator role after James Franklin accepted the head coaching position at Vanderbilt after the regular-season.
- In 2006, he coached All-ACC quarterback Sam Hollenbach to his finest year, as he threw for 2,371 yards and 15 touchdowns, and was named MVP of Maryland's Champs Sports Bowl victory over Purdue.
- While at Maryland, Donovan coached All-ACC performers Lance Ball and Da'Rel Scott. His backfields also produced three of the top eight career rushers in Maryland history — Ball (4th), Davin Meggett (7th) and Scott (8th).
- The Terrapins played in a bowl game in seven of his 10 seasons, including the 2002 Orange Bowl, and compiled a 5-2 bowl record.
- During his tenure at Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets won an ACC Championship (1998) and had the nation's top offense (1999), averaging more than 200 yards passing and rushing, while setting 59 school records in the process.
- At Villanova, Donovan helped the Wildcats compile a 12-1 overall mark and 8-0 record in the Atlantic 10 to win the league's inaugural championship. In 1997, Villanova achieved a No. 1 ranking for the first time in school history and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA guarterfinals.

RICK KALUZA ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Rick Kaluza was named Penn State Associate Athletic Director of Finance in 2009 and assumed the additional responsibility of sport administrator for the football program in March 2013.

Kaluza oversees all aspects of Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics' financial operations , including overall management of the department's $115 million budget, compliance with University policies and procedures, strategic planning, financial reporting and analysis, capital projects and contract proposals. Within football, Kaluza's primary responsibilities include operational budget management, non-conference football scheduling, facility enhancements, compliance-related issues and daily interfacing with the head football coach and his administrative staff.

A native of Exton, Pa., Kaluza graduated with distinction with a degree in accounting from Penn State in 1986 and became a CPA in 1989. He held several positions before returning to Penn State in 2004 as an Assistant Controller — Financial and Strategic Support Services. He worked four years at Arthur Andersen & Co., in Philadelphia before joining the Bellefonte Lime Co., Inc., in 1990, where he served as Controller, Vice President for Strategic Planning and as an ERP Project Manager for Graymont, Inc., which purchased the company.

Kaluza has served as a committee member for Penn State Basketball's Coaches vs. Cancer initiative and has coached youth baseball, basketball, soccer and wrestling in the Centre Region. He also is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), the College Athletic Business Management Association, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Rick and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Tyler and Morgan, both of whom are full-time Penn State students, and reside in State College.

JEMAL GRIFFIN

Jemal Griffin is in his first year as Chief of Staff of the Penn State football program. Griffin's primary responsibilities include the day-to-day management of the football program and its administrative staff, oversight of the football budget and handling all football contracts. In addition, he serves as the team's liaison to the athletic and university administration. Griffin served in a similar capacity with James Franklin at Vanderbilt the past three years. During those three years, he was a member of the committee that oversaw the construction of the department's multipurpose indoor facility and team meeting rooms, the installation of football stadium field turf and lighting as well as the renovation of the football complex lobby and locker rooms.

Griffin also worked with Franklin at Maryland, serving as the Director of Football Operations from 2008-10 where he was responsible for the daily management of the Maryland football program, including team travel, budget management, team housing, fundraising and special events. He served as Maryland's assistant recruiting coordinator in 2006-07. During that time, the Terps landed nine prep All-Americans and 31 others ranked among the nation's top 100 at their positions.

Prior to joining the Terps, Griffin spent seven years on staff at Woodlawn High School in Baltimore. He started as a defensive backs coach in 1999 and was promoted in 2000 to assistant head coach/offensive coordinator. Griffin coached two prep All-Americans, as well as numerous all-state players at Woodlawn. The school won two Baltimore County titles and two Maryland 4A North Region titles during his tenure.

A native of Baltimore, Griffin earned his degree in management from Coppin State University, where he was a four-year starter on the Eagles baseball team and was named to the MEAC All-Tournament team as a senior. Griffin and his wife, Carla, are the parents of two boys, Brandon and Joshua, and a daughter, Billie Grace.

MICHAEL HAZEL DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Michael Hazel is in his first year as the Nittany Lions' Director of Football Operations. His primary responsibilities include overseeing football's external operations, facilities and handling of Coach Franklin's public appearances. Additionally, he serves as the program's liaison to marketing, athletic communications and high school coaches.

Hazel also was a member of James Franklin's staff at Vanderbilt University, serving as Director of Football Operations the past three years. Hazel was a member of the Vanderbilt football staff from 2004-14, serving four seasons as Director of Football Operations, six assistant Director of Football Operations, as Assistant Director of Football Operations and one as a defensive graduate assistant. At Vanderbilt, Hazel was a part of more than half of the institution's bowl games, including the school's first bowl game in 26 years in 2008 and unprecedented back-to-back bowl victories the last two seasons.

Before joining Vanderbilt, Hazel spent three seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Elon University. Hazel was a four-year letterman at Elon, playing linebacker and contributing on special teams. He helped Elon to a 28-16 record as the program transitioned to Division I-AA and was an eight-time member of the Elon Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

Hazel, a native of Easley, S.C., and a graduate of Wren High School, holds two master degrees. He earned an M.Ed. in organizational leadership from Vanderbilt in 2007 and an MBA from Elon University in 2004. Hazel received his bachelor's degree in corporate communications from Elon in 2001.

KEVIN THRELKEL DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Kevin Threlkel is in his first year as Penn State's Director of Football Administration. In his capacity, Threlkel handles team travel logistics, daily internal operations and serves as the team's liaison to the Nittany Lion Club, Penn State Alumni Association and the Penn State Football Letterman's Club.

Threlkel served as the assistant director of football operations under James Franklin at Vanderbilt the past three years. The ties between Threlkel and Franklin date to Kansas State in 2006-07, when the Wildcat undergraduate worked for Franklin as an offensive and recruiting assistant. After receiving a bachelor's degree in business management from Kansas State in 2007, Threlkel assisted with the Ahearn Fund, the school's development organization, and earned his master's degree in 2009.

A native of Hays, Kan., Threlkel matriculated to Maryland for two years, serving as a football operations intern and a program management specialist. He then followed Franklin to Vanderbilt when he was named head coach in December 2010.

ANDY FRANK DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Andy Frank is in his first year as the Director of Player Personnel for the Penn State football program. He oversees all aspects of the Nittany Lions' recruiting operation. Frank was a member of James Franklin's staff at Vanderbilt, serving as the Player Personnel Coordinator the past three years. In that role, Frank oversaw the two highest ranked recruiting classes in Vanderbilt history (2012 ranked

No. 29; 2013 ranked No. 19 nationally according to Rivals.com). He was a member of the Vanderbilt staff from 2005-13, serving in several capacities, including: defensive graduate assistant (2005-07), defensive quality control (2008), assistant recruiting coordinator (2009), assistant director of football operations (2010) and Player Personnel Coordinator (2011-13).

Prior to arriving at Vanderbilt, Frank worked four years for an engineering firm while also serving as a defensive assistant coach at Lincoln High School in Warren, Mich. A native of Sterling Heights, Mich., Frank played defensive back and special teams at Princeton University. He earned a bachelor of science in engineering from Princeton in 2001 and a master's in education from Vanderbilt in 2007.

TIM BREAM DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC TRAINER SERVICES/HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL

Tim Bream is in his third year at Penn State as Director of Athletic Trainer Services/Head Athletic Trainer for Football. He is responsible for overseeing athletic training services for all 31 Penn State varsity sports, including football, and the university's approximately 800 student-athletes.

Bream returned to his alma mater after 19 years with the National Football League's Chicago Bears. He had served as the head athletic trainer with Chicago since 1997 after spending the four previous years with the Bears as an assistant athletic trainer.

Prior to working in the NFL, Bream held athletic trainer positions at several universities, including Richmond, where he was the director of sports medicine and head athletic trainer from 1988-92, Vanderbilt (1986-88), Syracuse (1984-86) and West Virginia (1983-84). In addition, Bream has worked internationally with the United States Olympic Committee medical staffs, including the 1991 World University Games in England and the 1992 Winter Olympics in Albertville, France.

Bream graduated from Penn State with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, with an emphasis in athletic training. A native of Gettysburg, Pa., he earned his master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports science from West Virginia. He has served as an instructor and lecturer in collegiate and professional settings, co-authored articles for national publications and been a presenter at numerous national athletic training seminars and symposia.

Bream and his wife, Lisa, have two daughters, Rebecca and Flizabeth

JEVIN STONE VIDEO COORDINATOR

Jevin Stone is in his third year as Video Coordinator for the Nittany Lion football program after serving as a video assistant since 2009. As coordinator, Stone oversees all functions of the department, including filming and editing games and practices, budgeting and managing the student staff.

Stone graduated from Indiana State University in 2004 and worked in video production for the football team as a student. He was a member of the Indianapolis Colts' video staff from 2004-06, including the Super Bowl XLI Championship team. He also served as the head video director for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe in 2006, followed by a one-year stint with the Frankfurt Galaxy.

Stone served as a video assistant with the Cleveland Browns (2007-08) and rejoined the Colts' in 2008-09. With considerable professional and collegiate video experience, he returned to the college ranks in 2009 as a video assistant at Penn State.

Stone was a two-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Indiana State. He also has experience as a coach at summer youth football camps, including the Dwight Freeney Football Camp.

 Christian Hackenberg became just the second true freshman quarterback since 1911 to start a Penn State seasonopener and the young signal caller opened his career in style, leading the Nittany Lions to a 23-17 victory over Syracuse in MetLife Stadium.

Going 22-of-33 passing for 278 yards, Hackenberg accounted for the then-third-highest game passing yardage total for a freshman in school history (Zack Mills, 280, twice). He connected with Allen Robinson and Eugene Lewis on touchdown strikes of 50-plus yards to earn the first of his five Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honors.

Robinson led the receiving corps with seven receptions for 133 yards all in the second half — including a 51yard touchdown catch and run. Brandon Felder hauled in six catches for 40 yards and Lewis' 54-yard touchdown catch helped him total 68 yards on two catches in his first career game.

Junior placekicker Sam Ficken connected on all three of his field goal attempts to push his consecutive success streak to 13 after hitting from 36, 35 and 46 yards against the Orange.

The defense created three turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble), amassed eight tackles for loss and broke up eight passes, holding the Orange to just 11 first downs and 260 vards of total offense.

The Nittany Lions limited Syracuse to 71 yards on 37 carries on the ground, which was more than 100 yards under its season average of 178.0 yards per game in 2012.

Playing just across the Hudson River from his hometown, Bronx, N.Y., product Stephen Obeng-Agyapong made eight tackles, forced and recovered a fumble and collected his first career interception. Former wide receiver Trevor Williams made his first career start at cornerback and grabbed a late fourth-quarter interception along the sideline to seal the victory.

Senior defensive tackle DaQuan Jones made a team-best and careerhigh nine tackles, including a careerbest three tackles for loss, surpassing his 2012 TFL total of two.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; Sept. 7 -Penn State used a balanced offensive attack and a superb defensive performance to post a 45-7 win over Eastern Michigan in Beaver Stadium.

With the undefeated 1973 team and Heisman Trophy winner John Cappelletti in attendance, the Nittany Lions landed a pair of 100-yard rushers against the Eagles in Bill Belton and Akeel Lynch.

The tandem marked the first time since 2010 that Penn State had a pair of 100-yard rushers in a game when Evan Royster (134) and Silas Redd (131) accomplished the feat against Northwestern. Belton carried the ball nine times en route to 108 yards and a pair of touchdowns. It was the second time in his career that Belton found the end zone multiple times in a game (lowa, 2012), Lynch, who had his first collegiate carry in the contest, also ran for 108 yards and a touchdown. Zach Zwinak rushed for a pair of scores, as the Nittany Lions totaled 251 yards on the ground.

In his second career game, Christian Hackenberg broke the Penn State freshman game passing yardage record, going 23-of-33 for 311 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He found 10 different receivers, but his favorite target was Allen Robinson, who had seven catches for 129 yards and a touchdown. It was the fourth 100-yard performance of Robinson's career and his second of the season.

The Penn State defense was stellar, allowing just 183 total yards. Linebacker Glenn Carson registered 10 tackles, with a half-sack. DaQuan Jones tied his career-high with nine tackles in the second consecutive game, including two for a loss, and one sack.

The 1973 team, Penn State's first 12-0 squad, was honored at halftime, led by All-America running back Cappelletti. As part of the celebration of the 40 years since his Heisman Trophy win, Cappelletti's No. 22 jersey was retired, becoming the first jersey in Penn State history to be retired. At Cappelletti's request, No. 22 will not be retired until Lynch, who wears No. 22, completes his UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; Sept. 14 — Running back Zach Zwinak ran for a career-high three touchdowns and 128 yards, but Penn State was edged by UCF, 34-31, under the lights in Beaver Stadium. The Nittany Lions fell to 2-1, while the Knights improved to 3-0 en route to an eventual 12-1 record, capped by a win in the Fiesta Bowl.

In a game that saw a combined 962 yards of offense, freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg threw for 262 yards and one touchdown, while Zwinak rumbled to the seventh 100-yard game of his career.

Wide receiver Allen Robinson became the third Penn State player with three consecutive 100-yard receiving games (Kenny Jackson, Joe Jurevicius) after recording nine receptions for 143 yards and a score. In addition, true freshman Adam Breneman corralled his first career reception on a critical fourth down play during Penn State's first TD drive.

A quartet of Nittany Lions — Glenn Carson, Jordan Lucas, C.J. Olaniyan, Trevor Williams — collected a team-high six tackles, while safety Malcolm Willis recorded his third career interception late in the first half.

Junior Sam Ficken connected on a then-career-long 47-yard field goal to extend his school record streak to 15 consecutive field goals made. The streak ended when he missed a 57-yard attempt near the end of the first half.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; Sept. 21 — On a day that featured a steady rain for much of the game, Penn State used a stout defensive performance and gained 463 yards of total offense en route to a 34-0 win over Kent State at Beaver Stadium. The win marked the first shutout for the Nittany Lions since a 24-0 victory over the Golden Flashes on Sept. 18, 2010.

The Nittany Lions were dominant on the ground, racking up 287 rushing yards. Akeel Lynch paced the effort with a career-best 123 yards on 14 carries for his second 100-yard rushing game of the young season. Zach Zwinak added 65 yards rushing and found the end zone three times for the second-straight game, becoming the first Nittany Lion to have back-to-back games with three or more touchdowns since Evan Royster in 2008 (Coastal Carolina and Oregon

Bill Belton also provided a spark on the ground for the Nittany Lions with 90 yards on 13 carries.

Sam Ficken connected on a pair of field goals, including a career-long 54-yarder in the fourth quarter.

The 54-yard effort was tied for the fourth-longest field goal in school history, behind a trio of 55-yard kicks by Chris Bahr, and was the longest ever by a Nittany Lion in a home game. The field goal also was the longest by a Penn State player since Herb Menhardt connected on a 54-yard field goal to beat North Carolina State in 1979.

Christian Hackenberg threw for 176 yards and connected with Belton on a 15-yard scoring strike. Allen Robinson had three catches for 43 yards and Brandon Felder pulled in three passes for 35 yards.

Glenn Carson made seven tackles, including two for a loss, to lead the Nittany Lions. Safety Ryan Keiser was stellar in the secondary as he nabbed his first career interception to go with four tackles, a sack and three pass breakups. Defensive end Deion Barnes also had six tackles and a half-sack for the Nittany Lions.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind.; Oct. 5 — Penn State opened Big Ten play on the road for the fourth consecutive year and saw Indiana score three touchdowns in the fourth quarter to pull away for a 44-24 decision in Memorial Stadium.

The Hoosiers won for the first time in the series after Penn State had posted 16 consecutive on-field wins.

Big Ten Receiver-of-the-Year Allen Robinson was spectacular, making a career-high 12 catches for 173 yards and two touchdowns. His dozen catches were the second-highest number of receptions for a Nittany Lion in a game, trailing only Freddie Scott's 13 catches against Wisconsin in 1995. Robinson zoomed from 12th to 7th on the school career receptions list with his second consecutive monster effort against Indiana. His two touchdown catches gave him 16 in his career, to move him into fifth place at Penn State.

Christian Hackenberg completed 30-of-55 passes for 340 yards, with three touchdowns and no interceptions, with Robinson hauling in two of the TD strikes and Bill Belton grabbing the other.

The 55 pass attempts by Hackenberg were the most in a game in program history, eclipsing Kerry Collins' 54 attempts at BYU in 1992. He also became just the fourth Nittany Lion to attempt more than 50 passes in a game. Hackenberg's completions, attempts, touchdown passes and passing yardage all broke the school freshman records. The 340-yard effort made Hackenberg just the fourth Nittany Lion signal caller to post multiple 300-yard passing games in a career. After just five career games, he joined Matt McGloin (6), Kerry Collins (4) and Daryll Clark (3) on the 300-yard list.

The linebacker duo of Glenn Carson and Mike Hull each recorded 10 tackles. It was the sixth double-digit tackle game of Carson's career and second of the season. He also tipped a pass that was intercepted by Adrian Amos for his fourth career pick. Cornerback Jordan Lucas made a career-high nine stops, including 1.5 tackles for loss.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; Oct. 12 — After Penn State erased a 10-point deficit with less than seven minutes to play, Bill Belton's two-yard touchdown run in the fourth overtime catapulted the Nittany Lions to a pulsating 43-40 victory over No. 18 Michigan in front of a raucous sellout crowd of 107,884 fans in Beaver Stadium.

The game was the longest in the Big Ten's 118-year history and was the Nittany Lions' first four-overtime game in the 127 seasons of the program. The 83 combined points scored were the fourth-most in Beaver Stadium history.

A fourth-and-one conversion and a pass interference call on the Wolverines in the fourth overtime extended the Nittany Lions game-winning drive, as Belton sent the all-stadium white out audience into a frenzy when he bounced a two-yard touchdown run off the left side to end the game. Belton ended the game with 85 rushing yards.

Christian Hackenberg completed 23-of-44 passes for 305 yards and three touchdowns to earn Athlon National Freshman-of-the-Week honors. Senior Brandon Felder, who caught six passes for 97 yards, hauled in a pair of touchdowns and Jesse James caught one touchdown pass.

Allen Robinson caught five passes for 84 yards, including a spectacular, leaping 36-yard grab at the Michigan one-yard line late in regulation, setting up Hackenberg's one-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 34-all.

The defense forced three turnovers for the second time in 2013, with Jordan Lucas and Anthony Zettel recording their first career interceptions to set up touchdowns.

Mike Hull, who collected two tackles for loss, and Glenn Carson, who assisted on a sack, recorded 10 stops each. C.J. Olaniyan collected eight stops, including 2.5 sacks, en route to Big Ten Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors and DaQuan Jones tied his career-high with nine tackles, with 2.0 TFL.

Defensive tackle Kyle Baublitz blocked Michigan's field goal attempt in the first overtime to keep the Nittany Lions alive in the classic thriller.

COLUMBUS, Ohio; Oct. 26 — Two weeks after its four-overtime win over Michigan, Penn State returned to action and dropped to 4-3 overall with a 63-14 loss at No. 4 Ohio State.

All-America wideout Allen Robinson amassed 173 receiving yards on 12 catches, tying his career-best effort in both categories, which he set three weeks earlier at Indiana. The 12 catches were tied for second-most in a game in school history, behind Freddie Scott's 13 catches against Wisconsin in 1995.

Robinson's 173 receiving yards were tied for eighth on the all-time game charts.

Junior running back Bill Belton gained 98 rushing yards — the secondmost allowed by the Buckeyes during the entire 2013 season — on 22 carries. Belton gained 78 yards in the first half to surpass the most Ohio State had allowed in a 2013 game to that point. Belton also caught one pass for nine yards to accumulate 107 all-purpose yards.

Sophomore cornerback Jordan Lucas recorded a career-high 11 tackles and, in his first career start, junior safety Jesse Della Valle notched a career-best nine stops. Linebacker Mike Hull added nine tackles and defensive lineman Anthony Zettel made four stops, including two tackles for loss.

Penn State gained 357 yards of total offense and converted 8-of-16 third down attempts.

The Buckeyes took a 28-0 lead midway through the second quarter before Christian Hackenberg finished off an 11-play, 79-yard drive with a 12-yard scoring strike to Brandon Felder. It was Felder's third touchdown catch of the season, all coming in the past two games.

After Hackenberg connected with Felder with 4:12 left in the half, the Buckeyes scored on their next two possessions.

The Blue and White posted their second score of the game when Tyler Ferguson threw a pass in the flat to Robinson, which he broke for a spectacular, weaving 65-yard touchdown, the longest reception of his career. Robinson caught the pass near the Penn State sideline, cut across the field to near the Ohio State sideline before diving in for the score at the pylon closest to the Nittany Lion sideline.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; Nov. 2 -Tight end Kyle Carter corralled a 15yard touchdown reception in overtime and safety Ryan Keiser sealed the game with an end zone interception, as Penn State defeated Illinois, 24-17, at Beaver Stadium.

After Illinois erased a 14-point deficit to take a 17-14 lead with 5:30 left in the fourth quarter, Sam Ficken sent the game to overtime with a 35-yard field goal with less than a minute to play.

In the overtime session, Christian Hackenberg connected with Carter on a third-and-11 for the touchdown strike. On the Illini's overtime possession, Adrian Amos broke up a pass in the end zone and the alert Keiser snared it to secure the Nittany Lion victory.

Bill Belton ran for a career-high 201 yards, becoming the 15th Nittany Lion to eclipse 200 yards in a game. Belton carried the ball a career-high 36 times and opened the scoring with a fiveyard touchdown run, as he became the Nittany Lions' first 200-yard rusher since Larry Johnson's 279 yards against Michigan State in 2002.

Hackenberg went 20-for-32 on the day with 240 yards and two touchdowns (one rushing).

Allen Robinson, who became the first Nittany Lion with a pair of 60-plus reception seasons, eclipsed 2,000 career receiving yards with 165 yards. He ended the day with 2,085 receiving vards to move into fourth place on Penn State's all-time list. With 11 catches, Robinson also moved into fifth place on the program's career receptions list.

The Nittany Lions, who played their third consecutive Big Ten overtime game in Beaver Stadium, out-gained Illinois by a 490-411 margin, including a 250-90 advantage on the ground.

In overtime, the Penn State offense took to the field first and Hackenberg found Carter with a 15-yard strike to put the Lions up, 24-17. On Illinois' first offensive play, Amos broke up the pass and Keiser intercepted Nathan Scheelhaase's throw to secure the victory.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.; Nov. 9 — On a cold, windy day in TCF Bank Stadium, Penn State's 24-10 loss to Minnesota was a tale of reversal by halves.

In the first half, the Golden Gophers scored all 24 of their points and the Nittany Lions stayed within striking distance by tallying 10.

In the second half, the Penn State defense rose up and did not allow Minnesota to score, but the Nittany Lion offense was unable to put any points on the board to get the visitors within a

Zach Zwinak gained 150 rushing yards on 26 carries for his second 100yard rushing effort of the season and eighth of his career. Zwinak's effort would launch four consecutive 100-yard rushing efforts by the bruising junior to end the season for the second year in a row Christian Hackenberg completed 14-of-25 passes for 163 yards. He didn't throw an interception, but was held without a touchdown pass for the only time during the 2013 season.

Allen Robinson caught a game-high seven passes and led all players with 63 receiving yards. Bill Belton caught two passes for 41 yards, including a 30-yard screen pass in the fourth quarter.

Penn State totaled 22 first downs to 19 for Minnesota, but was out-gained, 381-353

Mike Hull made nine tackles (seven solo) to lead the Nittany Lions. Malcolm Willis had eight stops (six solo) and Ryan Keiser added seven hits (six solo). C.J. Olaniyan had a strong effort with six stops, 2.5 tackles for loss and a forced fumble

Neither team was able to crack the scoreboard in the second half even though the Nittany Lions were able to drive the ball inside the Minnesota 20yard line on their final two drives of the game

After a Gopher punt, Penn State drove to the Minnesota 16-yard line, thanks to 57 passing yards from Hackenberg, including a 30-yard screen pass to Belton. Four straight incomplete passes ended the drive, though.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.; Nov. 16 -Zach Zwinak equaled his career-high with three rushing touchdowns and Allen Robinson continued his ascension on the Penn State receiving leaderboard, as Penn State topped Purdue, 45-21, in Beaver Stadium.

With his three rushing touchdowns, Zwinak pushed his season total to 12 to become the 16th individual Nittany Lion, and first since Daryll Clark and Evan Royster in 2008, to rush for at least 10 touchdowns in a season. Zwinak, who also moved into a tie for ninth place for season rushing scores, finished the game with his ninth career 100-yard game (149 yards) on 26 carries.

Robinson broke his own school season record with his 78th reception on an 18-yard, second-quarter grab. The junior standout hauled in eight passes to move into a tie for third place (Derrick Williams) on Penn State's career receiving list (161).

Christian Hackenberg completed 16-of-23 passes for 212 yards and two touchdowns (one rushing). Bill Belton ran for a five-yard touchdown and Adam Breneman collected an eight-yard grab for his first career touchdown catch.

The Nittany Lions out-gained Purdue, 501-264, including a 289-41 margin on the ground. The 289 rushing yards were a season-high and the most by Penn State since gaining 338 yards at Illinois in 2009.

The defense forced three turnovers and six Nittany Lions contributed sacks. Adrian Amos led the unit with eight tackles, and career-highs of 2.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks, while Austin Johnson and Mike Hull recovered fumbles. Jordan Lucas corralled his team-high third interception of the season in the second quarter.

The Nittany Lions registered touchdowns on four of their five first-half possessions en route to a 28-14 halftime lead.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; Nov. 23 -Christian Hackenberg totaled three touchdowns and Allen Robinson passed Bobby Engram for second all-time on the program's career receptions list, but Penn State fell to Nebraska, 23-20, in overtime at Beaver Stadium.

The Nittany Lions became the first team in Big Ten history to play three overtime games at home in a season, playing their fourth conference overtime contest in their last five. Penn State joined the 2012 Wisconsin squad as the only Big Ten teams to play three overtime games overall in a season.

The Nittany Lions got the ball to start overtime. After two runs by Zach Zwinak and an incomplete pass, Sam Ficken missed a 37-yard field goal attempt. On Nebraska's first offensive possession. Pat Smith connected on a 47-yard attempt to seal the victory on the Nittany Lions' Senior Day.

Hackenberg, who also scored on a seven-yard rushing touchdown, completed 16-of-33 passes with two touchdowns and an interception. He notched his fourth multi-touchdown game of the season. Zwinak delivered his 10th career 100-yard game, and third consecutive, with 149 yards on 35 carries.

In his final game in Beaver Stadium, Robinson made eight receptions for 106 yards, giving him 169 career receptions and moving him past Bobby Engram (167) for second all-time at Penn State.

The Nittany Lions out-gained the Huskers by a 387-360 margin. Penn State held the advantage in passing yards, 217 to 192, and rushing yards, 170 to 168.

The Penn State defense forced three fumbles, recovering two. Senior Glenn Carson led the unit with 10 tackles, while Mike Hull and Malcolm Willis each had nine stops. Jordan Lucas contributed eight tackles.

C.J. Olaniyan and Adrian Amos recorded sacks. Olaniyan, Willis and Brandon Bell all forced fumbles.

Nebraska tied the game, 20-20, on a 19-yard field goal by Smith with 4:29 remaining. However, the field goal came after Penn State kept the Huskers out of the end zone after Nebraska advanced to the Penn State one-yard line.

MADISON, Wis.; Nov. 30 — Freshman Christian Hackenberg played with the poise of a senior and the Penn State defense came up with three turnovers, including a late end zone interception by Ryan Keiser to seal a huge 31-24 victory at No. 14 Wisconsin.

The win boosted Penn State to a 7-5 record and gave the Nittany Lions 15 wins the past two years under Coach Bill O'Brien under unprecented circumstances

Zach Zwinak rumbled to 115 yards on 22 carries for his 11th career 100-yard rushing effort and fourth consecutive. His effort was the most rushing yards allowed by the Badgers during the 2013 season and included a 61-yard fourth-quarter burst, the longest run Wisconsin alllowed all season.

Hackenberg threw for 339 yards on 21-of-30 passing. He tossed a seasonhigh four touchdown passes and didn't have an interception in the contest in earning his second Athlon National Freshman-of-the-Week and fifth Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honor.

In his final game as a Nittany Lion, Allen Robinson grabbed eight passes for 122 yards and moved into third place on the Penn State career receiving yards chart with 2,474. He also improved his Penn State season receptions record to 97 and his season reception yardage record total to 1,432 yards.

Robinson, the 2012 and 2013 Big Ten Receiver-of-the-Year, became the first player since at least 1985 to lead the conference in receptions and yards in two consecutive years.

Eugene Lewis posted 91 yards and two touchdowns on three catches, including a 59-varder with 13 minutes to go to give the Nittany Lions a 31-14 lead. Adam Breneman had a 68-yard catch and run for a touchdown that set the tone for the day on the game's opening drive.

Penn State delivered the four longest plays from scrimmage against Wisconsin all season — completions of 68, 52 and 59 yards and a 61-yard run.

C.J. Olaniyan and Trevor Williams also grabbed interceptions. The Lions held Wisconsin to 120 rushing yards, 177 below its season average entering the game.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's status as one of the preeminent athletic conferences in the country also endures as an important component of the Big Ten student-athlete experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its student-athletes not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world, as well.

ACADEMICS

All Big Ten universities have been granted Tier One Status by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a distinction awarded to just over 100 universities.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,500 Academic All-Americans. In 2012, Big Ten institutions had over $10 billion in research expenditures, $3 billion more than any other conference.

SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS

All Big Ten universities have been granted Tier One Status by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a distinction awarded to just over 100 universities.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,500 Academic All-Americans. In 2012, Big Ten institutions had over $10 billion in research expenditures, $3 billion more than any other conference.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

Almost 1,400 Big Ten student-athletes and coaches have participated in the Olympics, winning at least 480 medals, including nearly 250 gold.

The Big Ten administers nearly $200 million in direct financial aid to almost 9,500 student-athletes for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.

The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the debut of men's and women's lacrosse as official conference sports this academic year. The Big Ten sponsors more official sports than all conferences other than the lvy League.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

The Big Ten leads all conferences with nearly six million alumni and more than 520.000 students.

Each year more than 10 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests. In the 2013-14 season, the Big Ten established a conference record for total attendance in football and led the nation in volleyball attendance for the seventh year in a row. Men's basketball led the nation in attendance for the 38th straight year, while women's basketball established a new conference record for total attendance.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

✓ Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.

✓ First awarded the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding senior student-athletes who demonstrate excellence in academics and athletics. The conference celebrated the 100th anniversary of the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 2014.

✓ Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former student-athletes to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

✓ Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan

✓ Implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006

✓ Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.

✓ Accepted Johns Hopkins University as the conference's first sport affiliate member in 2013, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport.

TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ ESPN, FOX and BTN, more than 1,200 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally on an annual basis.

With more than 53 million subscribers in the U.S. and Canada — and more outside the Big Ten region than inside — BTN allows fans to see their teams compete regardless of where they live.

EAST DIVISION

Beginning in 2014, the Big Ten football division alignments will feature new members Maryland and Rutgers, plus Indiana, Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio State and Penn State in the East Division. Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Northwestern, Purdue and Wisconsin will comprise the West Division. Each school will play the other six schools in its division plus two teams from the other division in 2014 and 2015, which will serve as transitional years in which the schools will continue playing eight-game schedules. Beginning in 2016, each school will play three teams from the other division as part of its nine-game schedule. The cross-division games will include one protected meeting on an annual basis between Indiana and Purdue.

➤ Land Grant Trophy

The Land Grant Trophy, established in 1993, is awarded to the winner of the Penn State-Michigan State game. It honors the universities as the nation's two pioneer land-grant schools. Each was founded in 1855: Michigan State on February 12 and Penn State on February 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grant system was patterned.

The trophy features images of the schools' landmark buildings — Penn State's Old Main and Michigan State's Beaumont Tower — and replicas of the Nittany Lion and the Spartan, the schools' mascots.

➤ Governor's Victory Bell

Commissioned in 1993, the Governor's Victory Bell is presented to the winner of the Penn State-Minnesota contest. It first was awarded when the Golden Gophers provided the opposition for Penn State's first game as a member of the Big Ten.

The trophy was commissioned by Pennsylvania Governor Robert Casey and Minnesota Governor Arne Carlson. The trophy features a brass bell bearing the medallion of the Big Ten Conference, the state seals of Minnesota and Pennsylvania and the athletic logos of each institution.

> Brown, Kwalick Big Ten Trophies

The Big Ten initiated the presentation of 18 trophies following the 2011 season and honors some of its all-time premier football student-athletes with the newly named awards, including Penn State's Courtney Brown and Ted Kwalick.

The Big Ten awards the Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year, recognizing the Nittany Lions' Brown and Michigan State's Bubba Smith. Brown was a consensus first-team All-American in 1999, breaking school records in career tackles for loss (70), career sacks (33) and season TFL (29). The 1999 Big Ten Defensive Player-of-the-Year, he was a three-time all-conference selection. Brown was the first overall pick in the 2000 National Football League Draft by the Cleveland Browns. Penn State senior defensive tackle Devon Still won the inaugural Smith-Brown Defensive Player-of-the-Year award in 2011.

The conference also presents the Kwalick-Clark Tight End-of-the-Year, honoring Penn State's Kwalick and Iowa's Dallas Clark. Kwalick was a first-team All-American in 1967 and '68 and finished fourth in balloting for the 1968 Heisman Trophy. A first-round draft choice by the San Francisco 49ers and a three-time All-Pro, Kwalick was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The winners of the East and West divisions will play in the Big Ten Conference Championship game in primetime on Saturday, December 6, at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. Fox Sports is the official television partner of the 2011-16 Big Ten Championship games. Kickoff time is 8 p.m. for the contest.

Lucas Oil Stadium will be the site for the 2011-21 Big Ten Championship games.

The winner of the Big Ten Championship game will play in either the Rose Bowl game or the College Football Playoff.

The winning team in the Big Ten Football Championship game will receive the Stagg Championship Trophy. The trophy pays homage to Amos Alonzo Stagg, who won 199 games at the University of Chicago when the Maroons were Big Ten members.

UNRIVALED

AWARDS & HONORS

➤ Heisman Trophy

John Cappelletti, tailback on the unbeaten and untied 1973 Penn State team, was the recipient of the 1973 Heisman Trophy.

Cappelletti received the coveted award and dedicated it to his younger brother, Joey, a leukemia victim, in a moving acceptance speech in Dec-ember 1973, in New York City.

The Heisman Memorial Trophy is awarded annually by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York City to "the outstanding intercollegiate football player in the United States."

Originally the D.A.C. Trophy, it was renamed after the death of John W. Heisman, then director of athletics at the Downtown Athletic Club, in October 1936. Heisman was a coach at Auburn, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Pennsylvania, Rice, and Washington and Jefferson, among other colleges.

Fifteen other Penn State players have finished in the Top 10 in Heisman Trophy balloting. Quarterback Michael Robinson placed fifth in 2005.

➤ Bednarik Award

Linebacker Dan
Connor won the 2007
Chuck Bednarik Award, giving Penn State three consecutive Bednarik honorees. The award is presented to the nation's top defensive player. Paul Posluszny became the second

two-time winner of the Bednarik Award in 2005 and '06. Linebacker LaVar Arrington was awarded the Bednarik in 1999

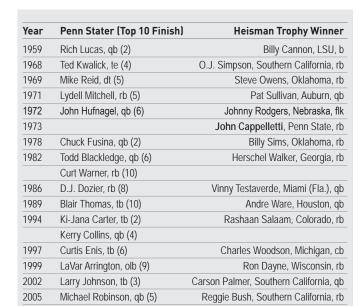

The Bednarik Award has been presented since 1994 by the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia in honor of Chuck Bednarik, a two-way standout at the University of Pennsylvania and with the National Football League Philadelphia Eagles (1949-62). The winner is chosen by a national selection committee comprised of coaches and the media, as well as members of the Maxwell Club.

➤ Biletnikoff Award

Penn State wide receiver Bobby Engram was the recipient of the first Biletnikoff Award, initially presented in February 1995.

standout for Florida State University and the National Football League Oakland Raiders, Biletnikoff is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The award is sponsored by the Tallahassee Quarterback Club Foundation of Tallahassee. Fla.

Established in 1994, Biletnikoff Award candidates must "display leadership and self-discipline, have a significant positive impact on his team's success as well as have a desire and commitment to be the best player he can be."

The owner of 12 school records at the time, Engram was one of three finalists for the 1995 Biletnikoff Award.

➤ Burlsworth Trophy

Penn State quarterback Matt McGloin was the recipient of the 2012 Burlsworth Trophy, presented to the nation's outstanding football player who began his career as a walk-on.

The Rotary Club of Springdale (Ark.) initiated the award in 2010 in honor of Brandon Burlsworth, a walk-on offensive lineman at Arkansas, who earned All-American honors in 1998. He died in an automobile accident 11 days after being selected by the Indianapolis Colts as the 63rd overall pick in the 1999 NFL Draft.

> Butkus Award

Penn State outside linebacker LaVar Arrington was the initial Nittany Lion to win the Butkus Award as the nation's premier linebacker in 1999, the same season that his teammate, Brandon Short, was a finalist for the honor.

In 2005, outside linebacker Paul Posluszny claimed the second Butkus Award for "Linebacker U." He also was a finalist for the 2006 honor.

Dan Connor was a finalist for the award in 2007.

The Butkus Award has been given annually since 1985 by the Downtown Athletic Club of Orlando and honors one of the greatest linebackers in the history of collegiate and professional football, Dick Butkus. The winner is chosen by a national media selection committee.

The tandem of finalists from Penn State for the '99 Butkus Award marked the first time one school had two finalists for the honor. Nittany Lions' All-American Shane Conlan was a finalist for the 1986 Butkus Award, while All-American Andre Collins was a finalist in 1989.

➤ Walter Camp Player-of-the-Year

Penn State senior tailback Larry Johnson won the 2002 Walter Camp Player-of-the-Year Award. First presented in 1967, Johnson became the second Nittany Lion to receive the prestigious honor, joining John Cappelletti in 1973.

The award is sponsored by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, which annually selects the nation's oldest All-America team, with the first team chosen in 1889. The Foundation honors the legacy of Walter Camp, "The Father of American Football," who played and coached football at Yale and served on the football rules committee for most of his life. Camp was instrumental in bringing organization and stature to the college game and was one of the sport's most influential people from the beginning of his playing days in 1876 until his death in 1925.

➤ William V. Campbell Trophy

Penn State All-America guard John Urschel was the recipient, as a senior, of the 2013 William V. Campbell Trophy, presented by the National Football Foundation to the nation's premier college football Scholar-Athlete

Urschel was the first Penn State student-athlete to win the Campbell Trophy, which was first presented in 1990, and received $25,000 for postgraduate work. Urschel was the 17th Nittany Lion to be selected a National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete.

➤ Lombardi Award

Bruce Clark became the first iunior winner of the Lombardi Award when the Penn State defensive tackle was named the recipient in

Sponsored by the Rotary Club of Houston, the award was initiated in 1971 following the death of Vince Lombardi on Sept. 3, 1970. It is presented annually "to the offensive or defensive lineman or linebacker who, in addition to outstanding performance, best exemplifies the discipline of Lombardi."

Clark and junior defensive tackle teammate Matt Millen both were finalists in 1979. Clark and Millen were the first finalists from Penn State and only the second and third juniors to be finalists. Senior offensive tackle Keith Dorney also finished in the Top 10 in balloting for the award that year.

Guard Sean Farrell was a finalist in 1982 and outside linebacker LaVar Arrington and defensive end Courtney Brown were finalists in 1999. Linebacker Paul Posluszny was a finalist in 2005 and 2006

➤ Maxwell Award

NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships

GoPSUsports.com

Forty-five Penn State studentathletes, including 18 football players, have received National Collegiate Athletic Association Postgraduate Scholarships. The award carries a $7,500 scholarship for postgraduate study at the university or professional school of the studentathlete's choice.

To qualify for consideration, each recipient must have earned at least a "B" cumulative average (3.0 on Penn State's 4.0 grade-point scale) and also must have performed with distinction in his or her sport, thus epitomizing the term "student-athlete."

Penn State's recipients and year of graduation:

> NCAA Silver Anniversary Award

1995Mike	Reid
1997 Dave Jo	yner
2008 Todd Blackl	edge

> Chevrolet Scholarships

The Penn State general scholarship fund has received more than $100,000 due to the success of the football team in televised games sponsored by Chevrolet. The total includes Player-of-the-Game awards worth $1,000 each during ABC and CBS telecasts.

HEAD COACHES

George Hoskins

George "Doc" Hoskins served as Penn State's first head coach, while also a player for the Nittany Lions. A three-year letterman at center, he was the athletic trainer at Vermont before being appointed Penn State's first director of physical training and first instructor of physical education. His duties included coaching the football team to a record of 17-4-4. He later was head coach at Bucknell and served as a trainer for the Cincinnati Reds during baseball spring training for 23 years. He died in Cincinnati in 1957.

Pop Golden

William Nelson "Pop" Golden compiled a 16-12-1 record in three seasons before being named Penn State's first athletic director. A Chicago native, he remained on the football staff as an assistant coach until 1909 and served as a recruiter for two years. He was the athletic trainer at Purdue and was in charge of physical education at YMCAs in Syracuse, N.Y., and Johnstown and Williamsport, Pa., before taking the Penn State position. He died in 1949 at the age of 81 in Pittsburgh after enjoying a successful career in insurance sales.

Bill Hollenback 1909, 1911-14

Bill Hollenback became the youngest head coach in the nation, when, at 23, he was named Penn State's head coach in 1909. He capped his senior year at Pennsylvania the previous season as captain and being named to the Walter Camp All-America team at fullback. He guided Penn State, in its initial year of play at Beaver Field, to its first unbeaten season (5-0-2) since 1893. He was lured to Missouri in 1910, but returned to lead the Nittany Lions to undefeated records in 1911 and 1912. He ended his Penn State career after the 1914 season with a record of 28-9-4.

Samuel Newton 1896-98

Dr. Samuel Newton was Penn State's second head coach. He posted a 12-14 record, while also serving as the director of physical training. A native of Yarmouth, Maine, and a graduate of Williams College and the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, he was a physician and assistant coach at Pennsylvania, when named to the Penn State post. He also compiled a record of 57-28-2 at Lafayette and Lehigh. He retired from coaching after the 1905 season at Lehigh to devote full time to his medical practice.

Dan Reed

Dan Reed led Penn State to a 5-3 record in his only season as head coach, including wins over Pittsburgh (59-0) and Navy (17-0). A two-year letterman at Cornell for the legendary Pop Warner, Reed later served as a Cornell assistant coach (1910-11). Reed, who also was on the Cornell track and wrestling teams, turned to politics after his coaching career. He was elected to Congress, where he served on the Ways and Means Committee. He died in 1959.

Jack Hollenback

Jack Hollenback coached Penn State for one season (1910), when his brother, Bill, took the head position at Missouri. The Nittany Lions were 5-2-1 in a season which saw admission charged for the first time when Penn State met Bucknell on Nov. 12 at Beaver Field. A Pennsylvania graduate in dentistry, Hollenback also coached at Franklin & Marshall (1908-09) and at the Pennsylvania Military College (Widener) in 1911 before opening a dental practice in Philipsburg, Pa. He later joined his brother in the coal brokerage business in Philadelphia. Hollenback died in 1959 at the age of 75.

Sam Boyle

Sam Boyle coached Penn State for just one season, but led the Nittany Lions to a 6-0 victory at Army to highlight a 4-6-1 campaign. It would be 60 years before Penn State won again at West Point. A three-year letterman at Pennsylvania, he coached at Dickinson the following season (1900), during which his squad downed Penn State, 18-0.

Tom Fennell 1904-08

Tom Fennell was named Penn State's first full-time head coach in 1904 and compiled a 33-17-1 record in five seasons. He was hired exclusively to coach football and held no additional duties. A graduate of Cornell, where he was a standout in football, Fennell gave up the Penn State post after the 1908 season. He returned to law practice in Elmira, N.Y., and later become a judge.

Dick Harlow 1915-17

Dick Harlow was the first Penn State graduate to serve as head coach, compiling a 20-8 record in three seasons. A two-year letterman, he also was a member of the baseball and track teams. He later served as head coach at Colgate (1922-25), Western Maryland (1926-34) and Harvard (1935-42, 45-47). He was recognized as Coach-of-the Year in 1936. A Philadelphia native, Harlow, who died in 1962, was named to the Helms Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

f #PSUnrivaled

Hugo Bezdek 1918-29

Hugo Bezdek, a native of Prague, Czechoslovakia, posted a 65-30-11 record in 12 seasons (1918-29) as head coach, including consecutive undefeated seasons (1920-21). He also served as athletic director from 1918-36. Bezdek gained All-American status at Chicago, where he was a fullback in football and second baseman in baseball. His collegiate coaching experience included head jobs at Oregon (1906, 13-17), where his team defeated Pennsylvania, 14-0, in the 1917 Rose Bowl; and Arkansas (1908-12). He also managed the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball club (1917-19) and was head coach of the Cleveland Rams (1937-38). Bezdek, who died in 1952, was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954 and the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1960.

Bob Higgins 1930-48

Bob Higgins served 19 years as head coach, compiling a record of 91-57-11, including an unbeaten season in 1947. A native of Corning, N.Y., he entered Penn State in 1914 and became one of only five players in school history to letter five years. He served as captain of the team as a senior when he was named to the 1919 Walter Camp All-American team. He also lettered in baseball, boxing and wrestling. Following two years of professional football with the Canton Bulldogs, he began his coaching career, which included stops at West Virginia Wesleyan and Washington University in St. Louis. He joined the Penn State staff in 1928 as an assistant coach. Higgins, who died in 1969, was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

Joe Bedenk 1949

Joe Bedenk led Penn State to a record of 5-4 in his only season as head coach. A 1924 Penn State graduate from Williamsport, Pa., he lettered three years at guard and captained the 1923 squad. He also served as baseball coach, compiling a record of 410-161-6 from 1931-62. Nine of his baseball teams played in the NCAA Tournament and three appeared in the College World Series, including 1957, when the Nittany Lions placed second. Bedenk was elected to the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and was one of the founders of the American Association of College Baseball Coaches. He lived in State College, Pa., following his retirement in 1963, until his death in 1978

Charles A. "Rip" Engle 1950-65

GoPSUsports.com

"Rip" Engle achieved national prominence as Penn State's 13th head coach, compiling a record of 104-48-4 over 16 seasons (1950-65). His teams won three of four bowl games and the Lambert Trophy three times. A native of Salisbury, Pa., Engle was a four-sport standout at Western Maryland, graduating in 1930. He compiled an 86-17-5 record in 11 seasons at Waynesboro (Pa.) High School, before joining the staff at Brown in 1942. He was named head coach in 1944 and led the Bears until coming to Penn State in 1950. Engle won the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his contributions to football and was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1974. Following his retirement, he lived in State College, Pa., until his death on March 7, 1983.

Joe Paterno 1966-2011

An assistant coach on Rip Engle's staff for 16 years, Joe Paterno was named Penn State's 14th head coach on February 19, 1966. Paterno was the Nittany Lions' head coach for 46 years, the longest tenure by a major college coach at one institution, and a member of the Lions' coaching staff for an unprecedented 62 years. He was among the first three active coaches to be inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, in 2007. Paterno was the winningest coach in major college football history, compiling a 409-136-3 on-field career record (74.9). He led Penn State to national championships in 1982 and 1986, Big Ten on-field titles in 1994, 2005 and 2008 and seven unbeaten, untied regular-seasons. Creator of "The Grand Experiment," his teams annually were among the national leaders in graduation rates and 47 of the student-athletes who played under his direction earned Academic All-America honors. Paterno passed away on January 22, 2012.

Bill 0'Brien 2012-13

Bill O'Brien was named the Nittany Lions' 15th head coach on January 6, 2012 and quickly established his vision and continued the program's athletic and academic success during the most challenging period in the University's history. Amidst an unprecedented situation in college athletics, O'Brien's workethic and no-nonsense approach guided the team to two of the most rewarding seasons in history. The Nittany Lions posted records of 8-4 and 7-5 during his two seasons, with a 10-6 Big Ten record, including a 6-2 mark in 2012. O'Brien's eight wins in 2012 were the most by a first-year coach in school history and led to numerous honors, including Bear Bryant and ESPN Coach-of-the-Year and the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach-of-the-Year. He also was the Big Ten Dave McClain Coach-of-the-Year. O'Brien came to Penn State after helping the New England Patriots to two Super Bowls from 2007-11, serving as quarterbacks coach the last three years. O'Brien was named head coach of the NFL's Houston Texans on January 3, 2014.

James Franklin 2014-

James Franklin was named Penn State's 16th head coach on January 11, 2014. Franklin daily reinforces the four core values for the program to return to national championship contention and "Dominate The State." A native of Langhorne, Pa., Franklin led Vanderbilt University to unprecedented success from 2011-13 as head coach, including consecutive nine-win seasons and bowl wins in 2012 and '13 and back-to-back Top 25 finishes, all for the first time in Vanderbilt history. He was a two-time All-PSAC quarterback at East Stroudsburg, where he set or tied 23 school records. He graduated in 1995 and has been on the sidelines every season since, with 19 of his 20 years in college football. Franklin also spent one year as an assistant coach with the NFL's Green Bay Packers.

LAMBERT-MEADOWLANDS TROPHY

Penn State won an unprecedented 29th Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy in 2013 as Eastern football's top team.

In 1936, the Lambert brothers, Victor and Henry, of the distinguished New York City jewelry house that bears their name, established a memorial to their father, August — a trophy to be awarded to the outstanding Division I college football team in the East. In 1957, the Lambert Cup was instituted for Division II teams and, in 1966, the Lambert Bowl was added for Division III schools.

Fifteen schools have been awarded the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy. Penn State has won more Lambert-Meadowlands trophies than any four schools combined.

PENN STATERS IN CANTON

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Jack Ham Linebacker Inducted: 1988

Penn State, 1968-70 Pittsburgh Steelers, 1971-82

A second-round draft choice in 1971, Jack Ham played on four Super Bowl title teams and was voted to the All-Pro team nine consecutive seasons in a career in which he made 32 pass interceptions. A unanimous choice for the NFL Team-of-the-Decade for the 1970s, Ham was the 1975 National Football League Defensive Player-of-the-Year. He is the president of a drug testing services company and lives in Moon Township, Pa. He also works as an analyst on the Penn State radio network as well as professional football broadcasts.

Franco
Harris
Fullback

Penn State, 1969-71 Pittsburgh Steelers, 1972-83 Seattle Seahawks, 1984

In 13 NFL seasons, Franco Harris rushed for 12,120 yards on 2,949 carries and scored 91 touchdowns. He ranks No. 13 in the NFL in all-time rushing. He topped the 1,000-yard mark eight times and totaled more than 100 yards rushing in 47 games. The Most Valuable Player in Super Bowl IX, Harris was elected to play in nine Pro Bowls. He was the 13th player chosen in the first round of the 1972 NFL Draft. Harris joined teammate Jack Ham on the Pro Football Hall of Fame All-Pro team of the 1970s. Harris resides in Sewickley, Pa., where he is a business executive.

August Michalske

Penn State, 1923-25 New York Yankees (AFL), 1926 New York Yankees (NFL), 1927-28 Green Bay Packers, 1929-35, 37

August "Mike" Michalske, who was born in Cleveland, Ohio, joined the New York Yankees of the American Football League after a distinguished career with the Nittany Lions. When the Yankees switched to the National Football League in 1927, he played two more seasons in New York before being traded to the Green Bay Packers, where he was a member of three NFL championship teams (1929-31). Although only 6-0 and 206 pounds, Michalske was an outstanding lead guard on running plays and a feared defender, whose blitzing technique was ahead of its time. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's All-Pro team of the 1920s, Michalske died on Oct. 26, 1983.

Lenny Moore Running Back

Penn State, 1953-55 Baltimore Colts, 1956-67

Lenny Moore's high-stepping style as an offensive centerpiece of the Baltimore Colts' title teams of the late 1950s earned him the nickname "Spats." In 12 seasons, he was a five-time All-Pro, played in seven Pro Bowls and set an NFL record by scoring at least one touchdown in 18 consecutive games. He missed most of the 1963 season and was voted the 1964 Comeback Player-of-the-Year, racking up more than 1,000 yards rushing and receiving and scoring 20 TDs. He had career-highs of 649 rushing yards (7.5 ypc) as a rookie in 1956, and 50 catches and 938 receiving yards in 1958. He scored 113 TDs and gained 12,451 yards of offense in his career. Moore was selected for the Hall of Fame All-Pro squad of the 1950s. A native of Reading, Pa., Moore lives in Randallstown, Md.

Mike Munchak

Guard Inducted: 2001

Penn State, 1979-81 Houston Oilers, 1982-93

A standout guard for 12 years with the National Football League's Houston Oilers, Mike Munchak was a nine-time Pro Bowl choice in his career (1982-93). From Scranton, Pa., he was the eighth player selected and the first offensive lineman chosen in the 1982 draft. In his third year in the NFL (1984), he was named to the first of his seven American Football Conference all-star teams and was selected All-Pro for the first time. Munchak was the centerpiece of an offensive line which helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93), including AFC Central Division titles in 1991 and '93. He retired in 1993 after playing in 159 regular-season games. He joined the Oiler coaching staff in '94 and was head coach of the Tennessee Titans from 2011-13. He is an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Dave Robinson Linebacker

Penn State, 1960-62 Green Bay Packers, 1963-72 Washington Redskins, 1973-74

Dave Robinson was enshrined on August 3, 2013. From Mount Laurel, N.J., Robinson was a 1962 first-team All-American and a three-year letterman, helping Penn State to a 24-8 record from 1960-62, including wins in the 1960 Liberty Bowl and the 1961 Gator Bowl as an offensive and defensive end. The Green Bay Packers selected Robinson in the first round of the 1963 NFL Draft (14th overall). He played linebacker for the Packers from 1963-72 and the Washington Redskins in 1973-74. A three-time Pro Bowl pick (1966-67, 1969) and two-time first-team All-Pro (1967, 1969), he was a starter on three NFL title (1965-67) and Super Bowl (I and II) winning teams. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade team, he intercepted 27 passes in his 12-year career. Robinson, who resides in Akron, Ohio, was enshrined into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1997 and the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame in 1982.

BEAVER STADIUM

HOME OF THE NITTANY LIONS

Beaver Stadium, the home of the Nittany Lions, is one of the nation's premier football venues.

Installation of seating to meet standards established by the Americans with Disabilities Act before the 2011 season resulted in a reduction of the stadium's capacity to 106,572.

An expansion and renovation prior to the 2001 season added more than 12,000 seats, increasing the stadium's capacity to 107,282 and easing the waiting list for season ticket requests from Penn State fans.

The second-largest stadium in the nation, the renovation and expansion added rest rooms and concession facilities, new scoreboards with video screens, and improved handicap access and pedestrian circulation patterns. Among the most visible additions to the venue were 60 skyboxes in a three-level structure erected above the east stands and an 11,500-seat two-tier upper deck located in the south end zone.

Beaver Stadium has more than doubled in size since it was moved from its former site northeast of Rec Hall on the west side of campus to the east end of the campus in 1960.

Built in a horseshoe configuration seating 46,284, the stadium now towers 110 rows on the east side, 100 rows on the west, 60 in the lower end zones, 35 in the north upper deck, 20 in the club level above the south end zone and 25 in the south upper deck.

The Nittany Lions dedicated Beaver Stadium with a 20-0 victory over Boston University on Sept. 17, 1960. Penn State halfback Eddie Caye scored the venue's first touchdown at 10:45 of the first quarter.

Additions of over 2,000 seats in 1969 and more than 9,000 in 1972 raised the seating capacity to 57,538. Expanded bleachers in the south end zone in 1976 increased the seating capacity to 60,203.

A uniquely engineered expansion project during the winter, spring and summer of 1978 added more than 16,000 seats, upping the capacity to 76,639. The stadium was cut into sections, raised eight feet by hydraulic jacks and precast concrete seating forms inserted within the inner circle of the stadium, where a running track previously was located.

In 1980, expansion increased the capacity to 83,770. Lights were added in 1984. In 1985, the addition of walkways around the tops of the end zones and entry ramps at the four corners resulted in reducing the capacity to 83,370.

The addition of a 10,033-seat upper deck in the north end zone in 1991 and portable seats on the north end zone concourse increased the stadium's capacity to 93,967.

Penn State's first permanent football venue was Beaver Field, located between the present-day Osmond and Frear laboratories in the center of campus. Before that, games were played on the Old Main lawn.

The first game at 500-seat Beaver Field was played on Nov. 6, 1893 against Western University of Pittsburgh (later to become the University of Pittsburgh). The 32-0 Penn State victory was delayed two days because of bad weather and played on a Monday

New Beaver Field, located near Rec Hall, was dedicated in 1909 with a 31-0 win over Grove City. Originally constructed of wood, the stadium was converted to steel in 1936. The area also contained facilities for baseball, lacrosse, soccer, and track and field.

New Beaver Field was the Nittany Lions' home through the 1959 season, after which the 30,000-seat facility was dismantled in 700 pieces and moved one mile to the east side of campus. There it was reassembled with 16,000 new seats to form Beaver Stadium.

The stadium is named in honor of James A. Beaver. A lawyer in nearby Bellefonte at the outbreak of the Civil War, he enlisted in the Union Army as a second lieutenant and rose to the rank of brigadier general prior to his discharge in 1864. Beaver, who died in 1914, served as a superior court judge, governor of Pennsylvania and president of the University's Board of Trustees. He is credited with being among the most influential leaders in the development of the University at the turn of the century.

PENN STATE HERITAGE

NITTANY LION LEGEND, BLUE & WHITE

> Nittany Lion Legend

Penn State's athletic symbol, chosen by the student body in 1906, is the mountain lion which once roamed central Pennsylvania.

H.D. "Joe" Mason, a member of the Class of 1907, conducted a one-man campaign to choose a school mascot after seeing the Princeton tiger on a trip with the Penn State baseball team to that New Jersey campus. A student publication sponsored the campaign to select a mascot and Penn State is believed to be the first college to adopt the lion as a mascot.

Since Penn State is located in the Nittany Valley at the foot of Mount Nittany, the lion was designated as a Nittany Lion. In regional folklore, Nittany (or Nita-Nee) was a valorous Indian princess in whose honor the Great Spirit caused Mount Nittany to be formed. A later namesake, daughter of chief O-Ko-Cho, who lived near the mouth of Penn's Creek, fell in love with Malachi Boyer, a trader. The tearful maiden and her lost lover became legend and her name was given to the stately mountain

➤ The "S" Zone

Organized in 1999 by the Penn State Lion Ambassadors, the student alumni corps, the "S" Zone revived one of the oldest traditions — Block S — in the student section at Beaver Stadium. Now formed when 700 underclassmen don coordinated blue and white t-shirts, the giant block "S" is a striking symbol visible throughout the stadium and captured regularly by national television cameras. The "S" Zone has had several locations over the years. The area is marked on the bleachers on Fridays before home games by volunteers from the Lion Ambassadors, who also seek sponsorships to offset the cost of printing the t-shirts and coordinate the delivery and distribution of t-shirts on game days.

> The Nittany Lion Shrine

Penn State's Nittany Lion shrine was dedicated on Oct. 24, 1942, during Homecoming Weekend. Animal sculptor Heinz Warneke and stonecutter Joseph Garatti molded a 13-ton block of Indiana limestone into the most recognizable symbol of Penn State. The shrine was chosen from six models submitted by Warneke.

The shrine is a gift of the Class of 1940 and rests in a natural setting of trees near Recreation Building. The site was chosen because of its accessibility, the surrounding trees and the fact that the sculpture would not be dwarfed by nearby buildings.

> Blue & White

Penn State's student-athletes are instantly identified by their blue and white uniforms — but those weren't the original school colors.

A three-member committee representing the sophomore, junior and senior classes was appointed in October of 1887 to develop color options from which the student body would select the school's official colors. Dark pink and black was the unanimous choice of the student body after considering the color combinations presented by the committee.

Soon many students and the baseball team were sporting pink and black striped blazers and caps. However, problems arose when the pink faded to white after several weeks of exposure to the sun. The students then opted for blue, rather than black, and white. The official announcement of the new choice was made on March 18, 1890.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

A LAND-GRANT INSTITUTION

Penn State's historic mission of teaching, research, and public service - launched under the most modest of circumstances more than 150 years ago — now reaches into virtually all parts of Pennsylvania. Consider, for example, that the University now has 24 campuses across the Commonwealth, putting a Penn State education within practical reach of nearly every Pennsylvanian. In fact, nearly 75 percent of Penn State's undergraduates are Pennsylvania residents.

Penn State is Pennsylvania's largest nongovernmental employer and has employees and expenditures in every one of its 67 counties. The University generates a total economic impact across the Commonwealth that surpasses $8.5 billion annually.

Part of that impact is derived from Penn State's research program, which brings more than $500 million in federal funds to Pennsylvania each year, and an additional $100 million from private industry.

Penn State's outreach and online programs — ranging from 4H to Cooperative Extension, from summer camps to public broadcasting — provide educational and service programs to more than a million Pennsylvania households annually.

The University's presence throughout Pennsylvania today contrasts sharply with its humble beginnings. Chartered as a college of scientific agriculture, the institution was located in rural Centre County after James Irvin, a partner in the Centre Furnace iron works (remains of which can be seen today along East College Avenue), offered to donate 200 acres of farmland for a campus.

Founding President Evan Pugh wanted the fledging institution to embody a new approach to higher education that blended classical studies with subjects that had practical value. He joined similar visionaries in other states in convincing Congress to pass the Morrill Land-Grant Act in 1862. The act gave individual states tracts of federal land to sell; the proceeds supported colleges that agreed to include engineering, science and the liberal arts as well as agriculture in their course of studies. In 1863, the Pennsylvania legislature designated Penn State the Commonwealth's sole land-grant institution. The lawmakers in effect bestowed on the privately incorporated college a public character. In return for state support, the institution assumed obligations of teaching, research and service that are normally associated with publicly owned land-grant universities in other states.

By the 1890s Penn State was making its mark. It ranked among the nation's 10 largest undergraduate engineering schools, a distinction it still holds. It established one of the nation's first collegiate agricultural experiment stations, and Professor Whitman Jordan's pioneering research on using fertilizers for soil enrichment had global impact on crop yields.

Penn State in 1871 became one of the first land-grant schools in the Northeast to admit women, graduated its first international student in 1890, and its first African-American

In the early 1900s, President Edwin E. Sparks supported a number of efforts to "carry the college to the people," as he liked to say. Technical institutes were established in various locations statewide for engineering education, beginning with an evening school in Allentown in 1910. In 1912, Penn State helped create a system of county agents in agriculture and home economics. Today, the Penn State World Campus, with its "anywhere, anytime" learning through the Internet, builds on that outreach tradition

But undergraduate education remained foremost. Enrollment surpassed 5,000 students by 1936, including those attending several undergraduate centers that were created for students who, in the depths of the Great Depression, could not afford to leave their hometowns to get a college education. The centers offered the first year of baccalaureate studies and were the predecessors of today's statewide system of campuses. Thanks to this innovative approach to higher education, Penn State in the 1930s became Pennsylvania's largest single source of baccalaureate degrees, a distinction it holds to this day.

Following World War II, Penn State underwent unprecedented expansion, first to meet the needs of returning military veterans and later to accommodate the Baby Boom generation. Total enrollment at all Penn State campuses climbed to 40,000 by 1970.

The University also emerged on the national scene as a research powerhouse in fields as diverse as dairy science, acoustics, psychology, and diesel engineering. The expansion of research went hand in hand with a steady increase in the number of graduate students. The University awarded its first graduate degree - a master's degree in scientific agriculture - in 1862, and the Graduate School was established in 1922. But overall graduate enrollment remained modest until the 1950s, then swelled steadily. In the past ten years alone, Penn State had awarded more than 30,000 master's, doctoral, and other advanced degrees.

The University Park campus is Penn State's administrative and research hub. In addition, there are 19 primarily undergraduate campuses: Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, including the College of Medicine; the Pennsylvania College of Technology; the Penn State Dickinson School of Law, Carlisle campus; the Penn State Great Valley School of Graduate Professional Studies; and the Penn State World Campus.

To date, Penn State has awarded nearly 750,000 degrees, hallmarks of an educational experience second to none in quality. In addition, Penn State alumni — including 327,000 in Pennsylvania alone - have job- and socialnetworking opportunities that no other college or university in the Commonwealth can surpass.

PRESIDENT ERIC J. BARRON

Eric J. Barron, former dean at Penn State and former president of Florida State University, began his presidency at Penn State on May 12, 2014. Succeeding former President Rodney Erickson, who had served since 2011, Dr. Barron was named the 18th President of Penn State by the University's Board of Trustees on February 17, 2014.

Dr. Barron returned to Penn State from the helm at Florida State, bringing with him nearly 35 years of leadership experience in academic administration, education, research, and public service, and a track record as a talented manager of fiscal policy within large and complex institutions. Dr. Barron led Florida State to two consecutive U.S. News and World Report rankings as the nation's "most efficiently operated" institution of higher education.

Dr. Barron earned a bachelor of science degree in geology at Florida State in 1973 before moving on to the University of Miami, where he earned master's and doctoral degrees in oceanography, in 1976 and 1980, respectively. Dr. Barron spent 20 years of his career at Penn State, serving as dean of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences from 2002 to 2006, and as founding director of the Earth System Science Center, one of the first major initiatives focused on the total study of Earth as a system, from 1986 to 2002. He also had a simultaneous appointment as director of the Earth and Mineral Sciences Environment Institute from 1998 to 2002. In 1999, he was named Distinguished Professor of Geosciences at Penn State, and during his tenure as director, Industry Week magazine ranked him among "50 R&D Stars to Watch."

An accomplished scientist with a long background in atmospheric research, Dr. Barron served as director of the National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR) from 2008 to 2010 and as dean of the Jackson School of Geosciences at the University of Texas at Austin from 2006 to 2008. Early in his career he was a postdoctoral research fellow and scientist at the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder. Colorado, a federal research center focusing on atmospheric and related science issues. Dr. Barron originally worked at NCAR as a postdoctoral fellow (1981-85), and served for one year on the faculty at the University of Miami before joining Penn State

Over the decades, Dr. Barron has lent his significant expertise in the areas of atmospheric science and the geosciences to many national committees and federal organizations, including contributions as chair of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's (NOAA) science advisory board and nearly 20 years of service as the chair of multiple National Research Council committees and boards. Throughout his career he has earned numerous accolades and awards, including Penn State's Wilson Award for Excellence in Teaching (1999); the National Aeronautic and Space Administration's (NASA) Distinguished Public Service Medal (2003); and the Bridge Builders Leadership Award from the Martin Luther King Foundation of Florida (2012).

Dr. Barron is a Fellow of the American Geophysical Union, the American Meteorological Society, the Geological Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He has authored more than 125 peer-reviewed papers in geology, oceanography, and climate issues.

Big Ten Advisory Commission

Long a leader in innovative practices and policies beneficial to intercollegiate athletics, the Big Ten Conference has been at the forefront in addressing and investigating the problems and concerns of minority student-athletes.

The Big Ten Advisory Commission, formed more than 20 years ago, represents a positive approach to achieving the Conference's goal of providing quality and equal education for all its student-athletes. The Commission consists of 12 former African-American alumnae and alumni from each Big Ten university. Each individual represented their institution in intercollegiate athletics and now are prominent professionals in their chosen fields.

MISSION OF PENN STATE INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHI

Consistent with the institutional mission of The Pennsylvania State University, Intercollegiate Athletics strives for excellence by offering all students model programs to develop meaningful standards of scholarship, athletic performance, leadership, community service, ethical and sportslike conduct within the institution's extant educational and social environments. Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to creating a climate for students and staff that reflects diverse values and needs; fosters an appreciation of a multicultural human society; assures equal access to opportunities without regard to personal characteristics not related to ability, and seeks greater involvement with an increasingly interdependent world.

PENN STATE ATHLETICS

The 2013-14 academic year marked Penn State's 21st complete year in the Big Ten Conference. In that time, the Nittany Lions and Lady Lions have established themselves as annual contenders in 24 Big Ten Championship sports, winning 88 titles.

Penn State completed the school's integration into the Big Ten in 1993 by joining the chase for its firstever conference football crown and the accompanying Rose Bowl bid. The integration of the football program concluded a process that began in June 1990, with Penn State's initial acceptance as the 11th member of the Big

In just its second year of Big Ten competition, Penn State won its first Big Ten and Rose Bowl championships, becoming the first conference football squad to finish with a perfect record since Ohio State in 1968 and the first-ever to compile a 12-0 mark.

Penn State made its Big Ten debut in 18 sports during the 1991-92 athletic season. The Penn State men's and women's basketball teams and the wrestling squad first competed in the conference in 1992-93.

Boasting one of the largest intercollegiate athletic programs in the nation, Penn State fields teams in 16 men's and 15 women's sports. All 31 programs are funded at 100 percent scholarship levels. The breadth of the University's athletic offerings has been matched by a generous harvest of national, regional and conference titles.

Penn State has won 73 national championships in all sports, with 15 titles since March 2007. The women's volleyball and wrestling teams were national champions in 2010-11; fencing and women's volleyball in 2008-09, 2009-10 and 2013-14; men's and women's volleyball in 2007-08; fencing and men's gymnastics in 2006-07; and wrestling repeated in 2012, 2013 and 2014.

■ Penn State has won 89 Big Ten regular-season or tournament titles all-time, including 16 in the past two years.

With a total of 16 Big Ten Championships in the last two years, Penn State has nearly doubled second-place Michigan

■ For the second consecutive year, 21 Penn State programs (out of 31) participated in their respective NCAA

■ Senior guard John Urschel, a 4.0 grade-point student, capped his brilliant career by being selected the winner of the 84th Annual AAU Sullivan Award, presented to the nation's premier amateur athlete. Urschel also was the recipient of the Campbell Trophy as the nation's premier college football student-athlete and the Senior CLASS Award for college football. Urschel, who earned a master's degree in mathematics, also was an Associated Press third-team All-

American and a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American

■ Wrestler David Taylor and women's volleyball's Deia

McClendon were selected the Penn State Male and Female

Athlete-of-the-Year. Taylor was named the Big Ten Jesse

Owens Athlete-of-the-Year, becoming Penn State's second

■ Five Penn State coaches were selected Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year on six occasions: Beth Alford-Sullivan (women's indoor and outdoor track and field), Russ Rose (women's volleyball), Cael Sanderson (wrestling), Bob Warming (men's

Penn State has had 13 Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honorees

■ In his 35th year at the helm of the program, Coach

Russ Rose led women's volleyball to its sixth national championship and fifth in the last seven years. Penn State knocked off Wisconsin, 3-1, to claim the title and joined Stanford as the only schools to win six NCAA crowns.

Micha Hancock was named the NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player. The Nittany Lions also won their 16th

■ Russ Rose also received 2013 AVCA Division I National

Coach-of-the-Year honors, marking the fifth time in his career

2013-14 HIGHLIGHTS

- Penn State was No. 5 in the final Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings with a school-record 1,113.0 points. Penn State posted its first Top 5 finish since placing fifth in 2002-03 and has earned consecutive Top 10 finishes for the first time since 1998-99 and 1999-2000. The Nittany Lions have five Top 5 and 10 Top 10 finishes since the Directors' Cup began in 1993-94. Penn State is among only eight schools to finish in the Directors' Cup Top 25 all 21 years.
- Penn State captured three NCAA Championships in 2013-14 — women's volleyball, fencing and wrestling — winning its most national championships since 1999-2000 (three).

- Penn State has won 15 NCAA Championships since March 2007 (in five sports), trailing only Southern California's 16 for most in the nation. Penn State has won 27 NCAA titles since 1993-94, its first full year in the Big Ten Conference, more than double every other Big Ten institution. The Nittany Lions have captured 73 national championships all-time.
- The Nittany Lions claimed nine conference championships, including a record-tying eight Big Ten titles for the second consecutive year. In addition to the Big Ten titlists (see sidebar), Penn State men's volleyball won the EIVA conference championship for the 16th consecutive year. Penn State has won 20 conference championships in the past two years, its highest two-year combined total all-time.
- The Nittany Lions earned a school-record-tying eight Big Ten Championships for the second consecutive year. Big Ten champions: women's volleyball, men's soccer, field hockey, women's basketball, wrestling (dual meet and championship), women's indoor track and field and women's outdoor track and field the third team to win four consecutive NCAA Wrestling titles. Seniors David Taylor (165) and Ed Ruth (184) won NCAA individual titles. Taylor won his second NCAA title in becoming Penn State's first four-time finalist. He also received the Hodge Trophy for the second time. Ruth became Penn State's first-ever three-time NCAA Champion. The Nittany Lions also won their fourth consecutive Big Ten Championship.

- The men's and women's fencing teams, led by first-year coach Wes Glon, won its 13th national title since 1990 with 180 bout wins, bettering 159 bout wins by Princeton. Sophomore Kaito Streets won the men's saber individual
- The Lady Lion basketball team claimed its third consecutive Big Ten regular-season title under Coach Coquese Washington and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16, falling to regional host Stanford. Senior Maggie Lucas was selected Big Ten Player-of-the-Year for the second consecutive year and also earned third-team Associated Press All-America honors.
- Led by Coach Beth Alford-Sullivan, the women's indoor and outdoor track and field teams won Big Ten Championships. The women's outdoor track and field team attained a Big Ten-best ranking of No. 6 in the final USFTCCCA standings and finished 12th at the NCAA Outdoor Championships.
- The Penn State women's track and field team broke six school records (two indoor and four outdoor) and the men's squad set three school records (two indoor, one outdoor) in 2013-14.
- Led by Coach Char Morett, the field hockey team won its seventh Big Ten Championship overall and its second consecutive. The Nittany Lions lost to defending NCAA champion Princeton in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.
- Char Morett and former Nittany Lions Chris Larson and Brenda Stauffer were inducted into the U.S. Field Hockey Hall of Fame. The trio were among those honored this year who competed on the 1984 Olympic team, which earned a bronze medal in the '84 Olympic Games. The honor marks the second Hall of Fame selection for Morett and Larson, who were each individual members of the 1989 class.
- The men's soccer team won its second consecutive Big Ten title under Coach Bob Warming and its fifth title overall. The Nittany Lions advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the second time in Warming's four years as head coach.
- Coach Mark Pavlik's men's volleyball team captured its 16th consecutive EIVA Championship, advancing to the NCAA semifinals for the 16th consecutive year. The Nittany Lions lost in five sets to eventual NCAA champion Loyola in the national semifinals

- The women's soccer team gained its 19th consecutive NCAA Tournament berth, earning a No. 4 seed, and advanced to the second round. Senior Maya Hayes was a semifinalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy and became a three-time All-American.
- Led by Coach Patrick Chambers, the Nittany Lion basketball team attained its first sweep against nationallyranked Ohio State since 1997-98. Penn State went 6-6 in its final 12 Big Ten games and Tim Frazier and D.J. Newbill received All-Big Ten honors.
- In the first season of Big Ten men's hockey, the Nittany Lions defeated Michigan three times, including a 2-1 double-overtime victory in the inaugural Big Ten Tournament. Penn State also beat conference rival Ohio State and opened the spectacular Pegula Ice Arena with a 4-1 win over Army on Oct. 11.
- The men's tennis team, led by Coach Jeff Zinn, set program records with 22 overall wins (22-6) and eight Big Ten victories (8-3). The team finished in the ITA Top 25 for the first time in program history (No. 24) after advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, where the Lions fell at No. 4 seed Virginia.
- The football team won seven games during the 2013 season, highlighted by a 43-40 four-overtime win against Michigan in Beaver Stadium and a season-ending 31-24 victory at No. 14 Wisconsin. Junior Allen Robinson shattered the school season records in receptions (97) and receiving yardage (1,432) en route to first-team All-America honors.
- The women's gymnastics team gained its first berth in the NCAA Championships since 2009 and hosted the NCAA regional championship meet in Rec Hall. Coach Jeff Thompson's team compiled its highest team score in the program's NCAA history.
- Coach Randy Jepson's men's gymnastics team advanced to the NCAA Championships team finals, finishing No. 6. Three Nittany Lions earned All-America honors.
- Senior Adrian Evans (men's gymnastics) and Emily Giannotti (women's track and field/cross country) were selected Penn State's McCoy Award and Big Ten Medal of Honor recipients for athletic and academic success.
- Penn State student-athletes compiled an NCAA Graduation Success Rate of 88 percent compared to the 81 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2003-04 through 2006-07. The 88 percent figure was tied for second-highest among Big Ten institutions.

- For the second consecutive year, six Penn State squads attained perfect multi-year APR scores of 1,000: field hockey, men's cross country, women's cross country, women's golf, men's tennis and women's tennis. The average multi-year APR score for Penn State's 31 varsity teams is 984, easily above the Division I average of 976, according to the NCAA.
- The NCAA announced that eight Penn State squads have multi-year APR scores that rank in the Top 10 percent nationally for their respective sport: field hockey, men's cross country, women's cross country, women's golf, men's indoor track and field, men's outdoor track and field, men's tennis and women's tennis. Those eight squads received NCAA Public Recognition Awards for their superlative APR scores.
- The women's tennis team is one of only 146 teams among the 6,450 eligible (2.3 percent) that has earned eight consecutive Public Recognition Awards since the program began with APR data from 2004-05.
- A school-record 468 student-athletes compiled a 3.0 grade-point average or higher during the 2013 fall semester; 59 percent of all Penn State student-athletes. A total of 197 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors by posting a GPA of 3.50 or higher.
- A total of 285 Penn State student-athletes attained Academic All-Big Ten honors during the 2013-14 season (84, fall; 65, winter; 136 at-large/spring). The 285 honorees were second-highest all-time. Penn State's 65 winter honorees and 136 spring honorees were school records, while the fall honorees marked the Nittany Lions' second-highest all-time. Penn State has produced a total of 4,762 Academic All-Big Ten honorees through its 21 years of full membership in the conference.
- Four Penn State student-athletes earned Capital One/ CoSIDA Academic All-America® accolades, including first-team honorees David Taylor, John Urschel and Katie Slay, who was selected the Academic All-American-ofthe-Year for women's volleyball. Penn State has had 186 Academic All-America® honorees all-time, the nation's third-highest total among Division I institutions.
- Men's hockey player David Glen and women's golfer Christina Vosters were among 24 honorees named Big Ten Outstanding Sportsmanship Award winners for the 2013-14 academic year.
- The Big Ten conference awarded Penn State women's gymnast Lindsay Musgrove and men's swimmer Matt Salig with post-graduate scholarships.

➤ Coach Interviews

Coach James Franklin conducts a teleconference Tuesdays at 12:40 p.m. (ET) in the Beaver Stadium media room. Those wishing to be included should contact the Athletic Communications Office. The press conference is transmitted via satellitie. Other interview requests must be coordinated through the Athletic Communications Office. Coach Franklin holds a post-game press conference in the Beaver Stadium media room, which also is telecast live in the press box and on satellitie.

➤ Player Interviews

Prior to game day, player interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office at least one day in advance. Player interviews generally are conducted Tuesday and Wednesday. Players will return telephone calls; player telephone numbers will not be released. Selected player interviews are available to television stations via satellite on Tuesday. Contact the Athletic Communications Office for the coordinates.

Following the game, requested Penn State players will be brought to the Beaver Stadium media room at the conclusion of Coach Franklin's press conference. Please see a member of the staff to request a player for a post-game interview. The Penn State locker room is closed. As time permits, Penn State player interviews are available by FTP links following the game. Contact the Athletic Communications Office for weekly FTP links.

Press Box Credentials

Admittance to the Beaver Stadium press box is limited to working media members only. Credential requests must be made on www. GoPSUsports.com/media at least three weeks in advance of the game to permit sufficient time for mailing. Media credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at Press Will Call (Media Entrance) beneath the Beaver Stadium press box.

Members of the media must make their own arrangements for telephones, although the Athletic Communications Office does provide a limited number of first-come, first-served telephones on Level 3 of the press hox

Penn State is a member of the Big Ten Conference and all press box and game day policies conform to Big Ten guidelines.

➤ To Order A Telephone Line

> Photographers

Photo passes may be issued for either the press box or the field. Credential requests must be made on www.GoPSUsports.com/media at least three weeks in advance of the game. All photographers working the field must display a photo armband and wear a numbered photo vest. Armbands are issued in the West/Visitor's Media Room under the press box just inside the Media Entrance, beginning two hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before kickoff. Sideline access generally is limited to newspapers or publications staffing the two teams, national publications, wire services, and local and national television outlets.

Sideline photographers must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas and the stands.

➤ Radio/Television

Penn State's live television appearances are designated by the Big Ten Conference. Facilities are assigned in accordance with Big Ten guidelines. Radio booths are available for the Penn State Sports Network and the opponent's radio network. Student stations are assigned broadcast locations as available.
